

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 11.

We are going to make it easier than ever before for you to make all the Christmas presents you care to by giving you better bargains than you have been used to. The greatest problem of the buyer is to make his money hold out long enough to buy something for every one to whom he wishes to make a present. The greatest problem of the seller is to dispose of all goods that are only reasonable during the Holidays. The solution to both these problems is the same—LOW PRICES. We intend to carry nothing over and on many articles have made the cost price the selling price. On some others the selling price is less than cost. On nothing is there a big profit asked. Come and see what we have to offer in HOLIDAY BARGAINS.

Santa Claus unloaded his pack of Christmas offerings at F. Walters & Co's this year. Fancy China, Candelabras, Picture frames, Books and Dolls. Don't forget the place. The best training obtainable in the state normal may be had at Edinboro State Normal School. Winter term begins Dec. 30. For particulars address the Principal, John F. Bigler. Following is the list of letters remaining uncalled for in the Tionesta, Pa., Post Office, for the week ending Dec. 11, 1901: Wash Oiler, Mr. J. A. Towman. D. S. Knox, P. M. The Pan-American buildings have been sold to the Chicago House Wrecking company for $90,000, but there are claims against them for more than that amount and just how the matter will end is yet to be learned. The Tionesta Cash Store distributed a very pretty and very unique calendar among its many customers and friends last week. This is one of the first to make its appearance for the new year which will soon be upon us. Mrs. James McGuffigan and Mrs. F. A. Wood of West Hickory, wife and daughter of the late James McGuffigan, desire to express their heart felt thanks to those who were so kind and helpful to them in their late sad bereavement. Mrs. N. McManigle, of near Mayburg, died Tuesday morning at 2 o'clock. She was aged 24 years, and leaves a husband and two small children, the youngest but one week old. The interment will be at Howe, Jefferson county, her former home. One of the handsomest and most common sense calendars that has yet come under our notice is being distributed by C. M. Arner & Son, the wide-awake real estate and insurance agent. It is one of their own selection and reflects credit on their good taste. The black bear, weighing 200 pounds, which was shot by John Kyle and J. N. Smith, on Tionesta creek and which was on exhibition Friday in front of Schwartz's restaurant, was sold by the owners for $10 and was shipped Saturday by express.—Warren Mirror. Officers were elected last Friday evening by the Forest Lodge, A. O. U. W., as follows: P. M. W., J. B. Eden; M. W., J. C. Dunn; Foreman, F. P. Amsler; Overseer, J. W. Morrow; Financier, S. J. Satey; Receiver, L. J. Hopkins; Recorder, J. R. Clark; Guide, J. B. Eden. Rep. to Grand Lodge, J. R. Clark. Epworth League elected the following officers for the ensuing term, Monday evening: Pres., Mrs. Nickle; Ist V. P., Mrs. A. Carson; 2d, Mrs. J. H. Derickson; 3d, Claudie Graham; 4th, Blanche Hunter; Sec'y, John Jamieson; Treas., Lester Holeman; Organist, Maude Butler. When thinking over your holiday purchases and you come to the items of confectionery, nuts and fruits, just keep in mind the fact that Garfield Grove has as fine an assortment in this line as can be found in town, and his prices will compete with any. Candy for Christmas is a specialty. G. T. Anderson has opened up a watch repairing shop in connection with his barber shop next door to the Citizens National Bank, and he guarantees all his work to be satisfactory. He will make a specialty of repairing jewelry, sending all hard and soft soldering to a Cincinnati firm where it will be done right. Cards have been issued announcing the approaching marriage, Jan. 1st, 1902, of Miss Amelia Stoelting, daughter of R. D. Stoelting, of Pleasantville, and Morley J. Beal, of Tinsville Corrier. The bride-to-be has many friends among the young people of Tionesta, where she has visited frequently as the guest of Mrs. K. C. Heath. The Greenville Record warns its readers against a silver polish agent, who has made himself very obnoxious there this week. His modus operandi is thus described by the Record: "He calls on the President of some Ladies' Aid Society connected with a church and tries to sell her a keg of polish, to be bottled and sold 'for the benefit of the church' at an immense profit. The President either refuses, hesitates or accepts—it is all the same to him. In the Greenville case the president did not endorse the project, and the fakir immediately calls upon the secretary and tells her the president said if she (the secretary) was willing, the president was agreed to buy the polish. The secretary refuses to enter the scheme and the polish man calls on treasurer and delivers the keg of alleged polish, and demands the pay, sheds tears and makes such threats that a timid woman might be cajoled into paying for the stuff. As easy fruit he is always ripe. Pass the warning along."

Wm. Morgan, an Oil City youth is under $1,000 bail to answer the serious charge before the U. S. court of raising the figures on $1 bills and passing them for $5. The papers say there is much sympathy for the young man. There ought to be for one who is cunning enough to accomplish such things and still refuses to turn his talents in a proper direction. J. M. Hickman, a veteran printer, whose life of nearly sixty years has been spent in Meadville, is missing. He walked out of his house one evening about three weeks ago while his wife was preparing supper, and he has not been heard of since. He is a man of medium height and does not appear to be over 30 years old. He is familiarly known as "Mike" Hickman. A correspondent of the Brookville Republican makes the statement that many teachers of the public schools of Jefferson county bought their positions. If his statement is correct they must pay very much larger wages there than elsewhere through the State or the teachers could not afford to bribe the directors. The story looks fishy and ought to be taken with salt.—Freeport Journal. Old John Brown, of Harper's Ferry, and a patriot whose memory is ever green, laid down his life for his principles forty-two years ago. John Brown's former home and tannery at New Richmond, Crawford County, are now points of historic interest, and while a stone's throw of the old tannery sleep his wife and three children. Captain A. Cannon occupies the tannery as a residence.—Meadville Tribune. Capt. Geo. Stow W. R. C., No. 157, elected the following officers at their last regular meeting night: President, Fannie Grove; Sr. V. Pres., Anna Carson; Jr. V. Pres., Alice Vaughn; Treas., Jennie E. Agnew; Chaplain, Mrs. J. W. Morrow; Conductor, Emma Hunter; Guide, Alice Agnew, Delegate to State Convention, Anna Fones; Alternates, Anna Carson; Delegates to the Home Board, Mrs. Jennie E. Agnew, Mrs. L. Agnew and Mrs. Anna Fones. Following his annual custom, Amsler, at the White Star Grocery, has on hand hundreds of pounds of chicken to be used at Sunday school and public school holiday celebrations and he will make special low rates with all school teachers and Sunday school superintendents throughout the county. Don't fail to correspond with the White Star Grocery, if you wish to buy candy in any quantity. We have it from 8c to 75c per pound. Also tropical and domestic fruits. The Franklin News tells of two hunters? who recently bagged in three days 88 pheasants, 39 rabbits and 20 squirrels, a total of 97, and says it does not believe this record has been broken by any two men in the county during the present hunting season. We should hope not. If the report be true it is doubtful whether two more such game hogs could be found in any county in the State. If a legislature is not soon elected in Pennsylvania with sufficient intelligence and decency to stop that sort of hoghissness, all game laws may as well be wiped off the statutes. The Measuring Party. The ladies of the Relief Corps, as usual, did themselves proud at the "measuring party" given at the home of Mrs. Jennie E. Agnew, treasurer of the State department, last Friday evening. Upward of a hundred guests were present and enjoyed the evening's festivities immensely. Besides those who were present in spirit and purse, many having sent the amount of their "length" in the cute little bags which accompanied the invitations. Dominoes and other innocent games formed the principal amusement of the guests, while the "measuring up" of couples for the tallest and shortest prizes afforded no little merriment. A feature of the evening was the elegant spread set out by the ladies, a thing that has become proverbial with them. It was surely a pleasure to have been there and help out in this particular part of the program. The proceeds of the evening, which go to reimburse the "infirmary fund" of the Brookville memorial home, amounted to $100. A number of letters of regret characteristic of the authors were read, two of which are appended, which will illustrate the longing desire of absent friends to be present on this occasion: Your kind invitation came duly to hand, for which many thanks to your loyal band. We regret that your party we cannot attend. So be it to your care this little bag send. The enclosure please add to your "measuring" pile. And during the evening pray once in a while. In the midst of the fun which the party attends, Give a passing thought to your Warren friends. We cannot hope either prize to win, As we are neither tall nor short, but only thin. So hoping your treasury good ducats may swell. We remain yours sincerely, in F. C. & L. R. H. & E. L. SMITH, 606 Water St., Warren, Pa. According to your instructions enclosed, Our measure we have taken from head to toes, And find to our utter dismay, (that by our combined lengths) We have left five cents to pay. May we ever retain our linear measure And thus be able to help swell your Treasury. MR. AND MRS. C. M. WHITERAN, 120 Lincoln St., Jamestown, N. Y. Roberts and little boy, of Tinsville, were guests of Sheriff and Mrs. J. W. Jamieson over last Sabbath. Mr. Roberts is still master carpenter on the "Penns," his division extending from Oil City to Buffalo, which responsible position he has held for a dozen or more years. Death of John R. Walters. Mrs. Sarah Walters arrived here Monday evening from Burlington, North Carolina with the body of her husband, John R. Walters, whose death occurred at that place on Saturday evening, December 7, 1901, at about nine o'clock. Mr. Walters was a son of Anthony Walters, one of the first settlers of Washington township, Clarion county, Pa. Just one month ago Mr. and Mrs. Walters accompanied R. L. Haslet to the South, intending to remain there at least one year. On Tuesday of last week the deceased contracted a cold which settled on his lungs, baffling medical skill almost from the first, finally developing into pneumonia resulting in his death at the hour mentioned. The subject of this sketch was born in Westmoreland county, Pa., October 28, 1828, but soon after came to this part of the county, where he has since resided, following the occupation of a farmer. In the year 1856 he was married to Miss Sarah Dewoddy, whose parents resided at East Hickory, this county, at that time. Mr. Walters has been a member of the M. E. Church for the past quarter of a century and will long be remembered as a good citizen, a kind neighbor and always a good friend to those in want. Besides his wife, he is survived by three brothers, Anthony, of Tionesta, Pa., David R., of Newmansville, Pa., and Jacob, of Pierce county, Wisconsin. Funeral services were held at the home of J. H. Fones, by Rev. O. H. Nickle on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, after which the body was laid to rest in Riverside Cemetery. Peace to his ashes. Stops the Cough and works off the Cold. Important Land Case. The December term of the court of common pleas convened at 10 o'clock this forenoon. A portion of the morning was devoted to going over the trial list and shortly before noon the jury was empaneled in the case of W. J. Knupp vs. Frank Bernard and E. Piquignot. It is an ejectment proceeding and the case hinges on the boundary line between Warren and Forest counties. The original survey was made by State surveyors in the year 1795 and at that time a tract of land bordering on Forest county was ceded to W. Bozer, the tract adjoining to the north was ceded to Henry Bozer and another still to the north came into possession of Jacob Courtman. All border on the Allegheny river on the west. The case involves the title to about 100 acres of land in the Courtman tract. The plaintiff will endeavor to show that the original William Bozer tract runs over the Forest county line for several rods, and if this is true the property of the plaintiff, which is conceded to be in the Henry Bozer tract, will lap over on the property now in the possession of the defendants, upon which are some valuable oil wells. The Plaintiff came into possession of the property in the original Henry Bozer tract by deed from the Falconer heirs, by whom it was purchased at tax sale. The case will be tried by eminent counsel on either side. The interests of the plaintiff are being looked after by Judge First of Bellefonte, and D. I. Ball and J. W. Wiggins of Warren, while the defendant's attorneys are Perry D. Clark, W. W. Wilbur and Hinckley & Rice. The case will be largely determined upon the testimony of surveyors. Messrs. E. R. Wheelock and L. S. Strong have been subpoenaed by the plaintiff and for the defense F. F. Whitekin of Tionesta; Mr. Morgan, of Ridgeway, and Mr. Curtis of Tidioute, will testify. The case will doubtless consume three days, although it was materially shortened by dispensing with certain testimony. F. H. Barnard is a resident of Buffalo and E.
