FAMILY DIED IN FLAMES

Calamity at East Buffalo Sunday Morning.

Lived Over a Shoe Store Where the Fire Started From Dropping of a Lamp—Proprietor of Shoe Shop and His Brother-in-Law Detained by the Police.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Henry Pearlstein, his wife and five children, ranging in age from 1 1/2 to 12 years, were burned to death at an early hour yesterday in a fire that destroyed a two story frame building at 1947 Broadway.

The Pearlsteins and another family lived in the rooms above the shoe store and were asleep when the fire started. Supowski told the police that he accidentally dropped a lamp. A few minutes after the fire began there was a terrific explosion that blew out the front of the store and hurled some of the contents of the show windows into the middle of the street.

Denouncing Railroads. Call for Action to Remove Tunnel Death Trap.

New York, Jan. 14.—Samuel W. Marvin, chairman of the committee appointed by the mass meeting held at New Rochelle Saturday night to consider the New York Central tunnel disaster, yesterday gave out the following resolutions: "Whereas, they, after duly and deliberately considering the facts and circumstances surrounding that horror and recalling the gruesome history of the Park avenue tunnel, including the previous slaughters of Sept. 22, 1882, and of Feb. 20, 1891, and taking into consideration its present condition, did unanimously resolve,

Attempted to Defraud Creditors. Binghamton, N. Y., Jan. 14.—A. B. Cornell is in the county jail in this city, not having complied with the order of United States Justice Cox at Utica, to turn over $5,000 to the trustee of his bankrupt estate.

MRS. DENNIS' STATEMENT.

Does Not Throw Any Light on the Mysterious Assault.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Mrs. Ada Gilbert Dennis, the fashionable modiste, who was rudely assaulted on the night of the 9th of December, was able for the first time yesterday to make a statement.

Mrs. Dennis said she had not been out of the house during the evening of the night of the assault and that before retiring she had locked the doors to the front and back parlors. The latter she occupied as a bedroom. One feature of Mrs. Dennis' statement that puzzled the police, was her pillow when she retired. When the crime was discovered the next morning the revolver was in a drawer of a secretary near by and the money was in a pocketbook in a box on a table near the bed.

Havana, Jan. 11.—The commission of the supreme court, appointed to investigate the dismissal of Judges Quintana, Iglesias, Maydagan, Guiral and Romero, who were removed from office on the recommendation of Mayor Gener in September, 1900, has reported that Mayor Gener was not justified in recommending their dismissal.

Manufacturers of Wire and Nails. Pittsburg, Jan. 11.—Arrangements have been made for a meeting of the principal companies manufacturing wire and wire nails in this city next Tuesday, at which it is probable that an arbitrary price association will be formed for the purpose of controlling the prices of wire and wire nails. The association, if formed, will be very similar to the steel rail and steel plate pools. It will include about a dozen concerns, the largest of which it is said will be the American Steel and Wire company of the United States Steel corporation.

Endorse Pure Food Bill. Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—The National Commission Merchants' convention passed a resolution asking congress to pass the pure food bill. In speaking on the resolution Charles Y. Knight of Chicago said that over 5,000 carloads of imitation butter were sold each year despite the fact that in 32 states prohibitory laws had been enacted. This he said, took $20,000,000 worth of business out of the hands of the farmers and butter men of the country.

Coal Mines to Be Sold. Columbus, O., Jan. 11.—The Pittsburg Coal company of Pennsylvania closed a deal yesterday for the purchase of the property belonging to the New Pittsburg Coal company whose main offices are in this city. Eight mines located in the Hocking Valley and four company stores are included in the sale. The purchase price was not announced.

Strike Declared Off. Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 11.—The 700 men employed at the Buttonwood colliery of the Parish Coal company, who went out on strike Wednesday because a number of non-union hands were employed about the works, held a meeting last night and declared the strike off. The non-union men agreed to join the Miners' union. The mine will resume operation today.
