—Mall Agent West, who has not missed a trip between Killbuckville and Tionesta since we don't know when, has made every trip during the past five weeks with a sleigh, and says he has never known a time when we have had a better continuous run of sleighing in this latitude. —The current number of The Ladies' Home Journal contains Ira D. Sankey's latest hymn, which is called "A Song of Heaven and Homeland." The words of this hymn were written by the well-known poet, Eben E. Rexford, and they have been most beautifully set to music by Mr. Sankey for the magazine which now presents the hymn. —Secret service officials have discovered in circulation a new counterfeit one dollar silver certificate of the series of 1899, check letter C. The counterfeit is signed Lyons, Register, and Roberts, treasurer. The back of the note is printed upside down. The paper contains no silk and the word Washington on the face is printed in ordinary script type.—Ex. —The interest in the Blevins murder case will not down with the citizens of New Castle, Pa., whose council has offered a reward of $10,000 for the conviction of the murderers, or sufficient information to lead to their conviction. This is one of the mysterious crimes of the past decade, and it is gratifying to learn that a solution is thought to be near at hand. —Hemlock lumber will be much higher the coming summer than ever before and it will be hard to get, according to information received from absolutely reliable sources. Wholesale are receiving orders now and have all they can do to fill them. If this demand keeps up, which is quite certain, owing to the prosperous times, it is likely that hemlock will go to $15 a thousand at the mill. This price means that the retail price in Dunkirk will be at least $20.—Herald. —A Meadville paper demands an official inspection of gas meters in the city, urging that there is as good reason for this inspection as for inspecting weights and measures or the dairies and meat shops that supply people of the city, and the demand is taken up in New Castle, where it is given approval in the columns of one of the papers. There isn't any doubt about the soundness of the contention of the newspapers. If laws are to be passed to curtail fraud here is a prolific field. —Two new cases of smallpox have developed in Oil City. They are Albert Anderson and Harry Varner the former is a porter and the other a bartender in the hotel where Chisholm, the first victim was employed, and were in his company daily up to the time he was taken sick. The disease seems to be of a very mild type, nevertheless the health board has taken every precaution in its quarantine regulations, and it is not believed there will be a spread of the contagion. —A short time ago some men were engaged in putting telegraph poles in some land belonging to an old farmer who disliked seeing his grass trampled down. He ordered them off his land. The men produced a paper which said that they had leave to put the poles up where they pleased. The farmer went back and turned a large bull into the field. The savage beast made after the men and the old farmer, seeing them running out of the field, shouted at the top of his voice: "Show him your paper! Show him your paper!"—Ex. —Revival meetings are being held in the Free Methodist church, which are expected to continue for some time yet. On Wednesday next, Feb. 5th, Rev. W. B. Winget, Foreign Missionary Secretary of the F. M. church in Africa, will be here and remain one week assisting in the services. On Sabbath evening following his arrival a special meeting will be held at which Mr. Winget will give a detailed account of the work going on in Africa which will doubtless be very interesting. All are cordially invited to all these meetings. —The "big head," says and exchange, is a popular way of expressing a common and very frequent ailment. It arises from various sources, but the real foundation is a lack of sense. A little money develops it in some people. A few good clothes give it to others. A little office where a chance is given to exercise a little authority is often the cause of it, while others get it by having a better job than their associates. The truth is, no sensible person ever gets the "big head." The one who becomes stuck-up and stiff-necked from success of any kind is weak in the intellectual caliber. —An exchange pertinently asks the following question: "Who sympathized with you when your little girl was sick the other day? Was it your home merchant or was it Sears, Roebuck & Company? Who carried you last winter when you were out of a job and had no money? Was it Montgomery, Ward & Co. or was it your home merchant? When you want to raise money for the church or some needy person in town do you write to "Fair" store in Chicago or do you go to your home merchant? How much does Siegle, Cooper & Co. give toward keeping up the sidewalks of the town or paying the minister's salary? When you were sick how many nights did Hibbard, Spencer & Bartlett sit up with you? When your loved one was buried, was it Marshall, Field & Co. who dropped a tear of sympathy and uttered a cheering word, or was it your home merchant? —The young people who compose the home talent company preparing to render that excellent comedy drama "The Deacon," at Dale opera house, in the near future, are diligently putting forth every effort to make this the best of all previous efforts in amateur theatricals in Tionesta, and a representative of the REPUBLICAN having had the pleasure of witnessing their Monday evening rehearsal has no hesitancy in predicting their success. Every member of the company did remarkably well and seemed specially adapted to the part assigned to him or her. The young people have worked hard and have been to considerable expense, having had two special scenes and a handsome drop curtain painted, besides numerous other stage settings and fixtures. The exact date for the production has not yet been fixed, but it will probably be within the next three weeks, and they should be well patronized. —Another thing that makes a man mad is to be asked what time it is in the dark.

—The Relief Corps of Tionesta has engaged Mr. L. Hawes Long of Belfast, N. Y., reader and impersonator, who will give one of his notable entertainments at the court house, Tuesday evening, Feb. 4th. Admission, adults 25 cents, children 15. "Over 400 Sunday School children and others were delighted with the entertainment given last evening in Calvary Parish House by L. Hawes Long, reader and impersonator. The program, which was especially arranged and adapted for children, was not only enthusiastically received by them, but was enjoyed by everyone present."—Pittsburg Dispatch, May 14. —An unusual and important notice has been posted at all of the Carnegie company's plants. It prohibits the display of political advertisements around any of its establishments. It also guarantees political and religious freedom to its employees, insures the operation of civil service rules and decrees the dismissal of criminals and men who refuse to pay their just debts, says in exchange. It is one of the most remarkable documents ever promulgated by any industrial concern. That all of its provisions can be carried out is a foregone fact, for the Carnegie concern has never in the management of its affairs planned anything that it could not fulfill. —Russell Hopkins and Tommy Fulton had a little extra fun while sleighing last Saturday. Coming down the road below the county home and when near the Hopkins farm a dog ran out and scared their horse, which belonged to Tom's pap. The pony made a spring to one side and succeeded in spilling the boys and then undertook to pass through a narrow gate, but the sleigh caught and stopped further proceedings. The vehicle, which belonged to Russell's pap, needed considerable repairing to make it passable, but neither of the boys was hurt beyond a little hair-raising scare, and the pony is ready for the next dog nuisance that may spring out. —D. B. Shields, W. C. Brown, and M. N. Zeller, the purchasers of the timber on the Mathers tract in Warsaw township, have been very successful in getting their timber to the creek. Monday of this week the jobbers, Hildinger & Tiblston, finished hauling to the North Fork. They made and hauled 215,000 feet, and ended the job without an accident. The timber is now lying on the bank of the stream near the Big Dam, and will be rafted in in the spring and run to Pittsburgh. These gentlemen are the first so far as we know, to finish a big job of timbering this winter. They have a fine lot of timber, and expect to do well with it next spring.—Brookville Democrat. The two first named gentlemen are residents of Marionville, this county. Township Nominations. REPUBLICAN. Tionesta twp.—Road Commissioner, Fred Dreyer; school directors, Melchior Jaun, W. H. Saturday last Dr. Dunn accompanied Miss Nellie Platner, whose injury to her left arm in a runaway accident was noted in these columns last week, to the Oil City hospital owing to the serious nature of the case. On Monday morning at an early hour Dr. Davis, one of the city's leading physicians, was hastily summoned to the hospital and found the patient suffering from a rupture of the main artery of the arm, making amputation at once necessary in order to save the young lady's life. This operation was performed, the arm being taken off above the elbow, since which time she has been resting as comfortably as could be expected under the circumstances. The case is a very distressing one indeed, and the young lady's friends sympathize deeply with her in this misfortune. TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. LANSOX BROS., Tionesta, Pa. "Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Prendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicate an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly ward off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by Killmer Bros., Tionesta, W. G. Wilkins West Hickory, Pa. J. Hopkins. Our Fifth Semi-Annual Remnant & Clearance Sale Commences Friday, Jan. 24th, and closes, Saturday Evening, February 1st, 1902. These sales we have but twice a year—in January and July—they are the house-clearings that follow every six months business. Because of the Honest, Thorough Manner in Which These Sales are Conducted they have come to be an event looked forward to by every money saver in this vicinity. In the beginning we adopted the plan of marking ALL remnants and goods reduced, in RED INK. This has met with the hearty approval of every one. You're able, then, to tell at a glance, without being waited upon, whether or not an article is cheap, by comparing the Red Ink Prices with the original. We propose making a liberal use of Red Ink to the end that this, our Last Semi-Annual Sale in this building, shall be a record breaker. IN EVERY DEPARTMENT IN WHICH GOODS ARE SOLD BY THE YARD THERE ARE REMNANTS. Many Silk and Dress Goods Remnants in which there is enough for a Waist or Skirt and, very often, enough for an Entire Suit. 300 Dress Goods Remnants, 125 Silk Remnants, over 400 Lace and Embroidery Remnants 50 Foulard Silk Remnants—enough for suit, 500 Romantic Domestic, Remnants of Damask, Crash, Lawns, Linings, Ribbons, Flannels, Draperies, Etc.
