

1902 FEBRUARY 1902

Calendar for February 1902 showing days of the week and dates from 1 to 28.

In these days all eyes in Europe are on the United States and American methods.

No one can deny hereafter the artistic temperament of the Chinese in San Francisco. They have just mobbed a tragedian on critical grounds.

One reason why this country succeeds better than some in Europe is that it hunts down brigands and never looks on idly while they exact ransom for captives.

It is observed that Hon. J. K. P. Hall is "mentioned" in connection with the Democratic nomination for Governor. Now, if it should happen that Jim should actually be nominated—what a padding!

In 1850 the per capita of wealth in the United States was $37.69. In 1900 the per capita was $123.89, with a population increased threefold. The increase in the number of inhabitants in this country is rapid, but the ratio of wealth is still faster.

A TREASURY surplus will be one of the problems which the new Secretary, Governor Shaw, must take up when he gets into office. Whenever the Republicans come into power in Washington that same old surplus emerges from hiding and the deficit of the Democracy takes to the woods.

THE Union party, so far as Philadelphia is concerned, has quit business and its chief promoter, John Wanamaker, is in deepest sorrow. The Times, which gave Wanamaker much help in organizing and adding the organization, says: "It is dead. When February comes there will be not enough of it left to require burial. That episode is closed."

It is to be hoped that during the visit of Prince Henry our people may not, through the excessive use of sycophancy and servile adulation, succeed in giving him a wrong impression. Americans never appear to so poor advantage as when they undertake to be something they are not. Therefore cut out the snobbery, flattery and toadyism, and give him the genuine article in the shape of a good, cordial, every-day American welcome. And give it to him straight—Blizzard!

That's right, Brother. We endorse the sentiment heartily. Fill up the Prince in proper shape, but with the genuine stuff. Sauer kraut and Weiner worst, with lager beer accompaniments. No fancy frills in this frolic.

THE prospects for the passage of an isthmian canal bill in the present session of Congress are not quite so bright as they seemed to be a few days ago, yet hope of favorable action will not be given up. An overwhelming majority of the American people want a canal built, and they want it over the Nicaragua route. It is well enough for the Senate to give careful examination to the Panama company's offer, but all discussion which has no purpose except obstruction should be avoided. The country believes that the most advantageous route is that by way of Nicaragua, which has been surveyed several times, and which has been in the minds of the people of the United States for this purpose for half a century.

CONGRESS has a new game. It is called "Greenback Poker." Any number can play it. It takes a dollar bill to come into the pot. An ingenious statesman, while examining some paper money a few days ago, discovered that in numbers on the bills there is likely to be pairs, 1067007 there are two sixes, two sevens and two nines. In less than a minute he had bet a dollar that this bill had a better poker hand on it than the other fellows'. That started it and now every body in the capital who has the required stock of dollar bills, is playing. As in poker, the man with the most pair or three wins. Every interger in the bill number can be utilized. Most of the paper money in circulation is numbered up in the millions. Representative Cannon, of Illinois, is away ahead. He has, by diligent search, acquired a bill with four nines and three sixes on it.

IT is the present intention to have all the United States troops withdrawn from Cuba before the new government goes into operation in that island. This looks a little risky, but perhaps it can be done safely. There was very little interest felt in Cuba in the recent election for president, but this was largely because one of the candidates, Maso withdrew, which left the field to Palma. The withdrawal of Maso, however, showed a suliteness on the part of his supporters, and an unwillingness to recognize the Palma administration, which may mean trouble for the new president. It would seem that the United States ought to keep some troops in the island until the new republic is fairly in operation. It would be awkward for us to be compelled to send troops into Cuba to suppress insurrection against Palma. We must prevent any Central American armies in our ward in the Gulf of Mexico.

lector of this district, he had been almost constantly in office for fifteen years, yet he retained the good will of and grew in popularity with the people. There was no sham or pretense about the man. He was outspoken and honest with friend and foe alike, and he dispised hypocrisy. Those who knew Jim Fruit will drop a tear of sad regret at the loss of a loyal and true-hearted friend. Mr. Fruit was aged 82 years, and leaves a wife and one son. His home was in Sharon, where the burial took place on Monday.

PITTSBURG authorities should run some of their so-called "Detectives" into the river, if only a portion of the published reports are true. The wonderful "bravery" of these scoundrels would vomit a dog. The Biddles doubtless were a bad pair and evidently dangerous when cornered, but that was no jurisdiction for shooting them with buckshot and battering their brains out with the butts of Winchester after they had been mortally wounded and were prostrated and helpless on the ground. This shameful conduct has been most severely condemned by the newspapers everywhere. One sensible utterance is from the Blizzard: The squabble that arose between the Butler County authorities and the Pittsburg detectives is said to have had its origin in McGovern, the great I Am from Pittsburg, who not only endeavored to run things with a high hand, but who, if half that is told of him is true, deserves to be put in the cell lately occupied by the Biddles. At the coroner's inquest the testimony of Deputy Sheriff Rainey Hoon was in part that after Jack Biddle was down, and while Hoon was putting the handcuffs on him, McGovern, one of the Pittsburg men, hit him over the head with the butt of a Winchester rifle and also shot him, Jack saying, "For God's sake don't shoot me any more; let me die in peace." When a Pittsburg detective, was giving his testimony, was asked in regard to the above statement, he asked to be excused from answering it. And it is further said that in the evening, while the unfortunate men were slowly dying in their cells, this same man McGovern was talking about the jail and pointing his gun at those who did not comply with his orders. If these charges be true, the "brave detective" seems to possess in an eminent degree many of the characteristics of the stinker.

BIG FIRE IN WATERBURY. Large Part of Business Section Wiped Out—Loss $2,500,000.

Waterbury, Conn., Feb. 3.—The most disastrous fire in the history of Waterbury broke out in the heart of the city shortly before 6:30 o'clock last evening. A large section of the business part of the city was wiped out. The fire originated in the upholstery department on the third floor of the store of Reid & Hughes, drygoods company on Bank street. Insurance men estimate that the property damage will be found to be considerably over $2,000,000. Origin of the conflagration is not known. The fire was not discovered until it had gained tremendous headway.

Large Reduction of Taxes. Washington, Feb. 3.—The majority and minority reports on the bills reducing the war revenue taxes are practically completed, the purpose being to report the bill to the house after a meeting of the ways and means committee today. Chairman Payne's majority report is furnished in his recent statement, when the bill was agreed upon. It deals mainly with the extent and details of the reduction, which is said to be the largest single reduction of taxation ever made by a nation. The minority of the committee concurred and will meet at 11 a. m. to sign the final draft of their report. It will concur with the majority in supporting the tax reduction and also will discuss the general subject of tariff revision.

Charges to Be Investigated. London, Feb. 4.—The scandal arising from the charges brought against British officers by Sir John Blundell Maple, M. P., in connection with the purchasing of horses for the army, caused further acrimonious comment yesterday. It was announced that Major General W. R. Trueman, inspector general of the remount department, asked for the appointment of a court of inquiry. The war secretary, Mr. Brodrick, replying, said he agreed it was desirable that a thorough investigation should be made of the whole subject and promised that the inquiry would be opened without delay.

Working For World's Fair. St. Louis, Feb. 4.—A delegation of Louisiana Purchase exposition officials, headed by President Francis and composed of leading citizens, will form a committee to start the campaign for world's fair legislation in the New England states and New York. March 11 this delegation will appear before the New York general assembly after which they will meet the New England governors at a banquet that is being arranged in Boston. It is expected that New York will appropriate $750,000 and Massachusetts state at least $500,000.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured. by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Something That Will Do You Good.

We know of no way in which we can be of more service to our readers than to tell them of something that will be of real good to them. For this reason we want to acquaint them with what we consider one of the very best remedies on the market for coughs, colds, and that alarming, complaint, croup. We refer to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. We have used it with such good results in our family so long that it has become a household necessity. By its prompt use we have not only cured but that it has time and again prevented croup. The testimony is given upon our own experience, and we suggest that our readers, especially those who have small children, always keep it in their houses as a safeguard against croup.—Cauden, S. C. Messenger. For sale by Kiltner Bros., Tionesta, W. G. Wilkie, West Hickory, Pa.
