Y., trappers expect during the present season, which lasts into the month of April, to realize $10,000 from the sale of skunk pelts. They look upon this as the most profitable season in a number of years. -George Sibble, of German Hill, son of Adam Sibble, was kicked on top of the head by a horse last Monday, making a bad scalp wound. Dr. Dunn was called and made the necessary repairs, and the young man is doing all right now. -A party of Tionestavillians who drove to West Hickory Sunday were snow-bound there and unable to return home until today. The roads in the country are badly drifted and mounds of the beautiful 10 feet high are reported.—Monday's Courier. -An interesting and apparently successful effort made by Kansas farmers to do away with middlemen in the handling and shipment of their wheat is described in the February Review of Reviews by Mr. C. H. Matson. These farmers seem to have found away to cope with the so-called "elevator trust" of the Kansas wheat belt.

-Possibly the action of Judge Criswell, in requiring one of the prosecuting attorneys to pay the costs, in three cases brought by him before the grand jury, in which no true bills were found, may serve to discourage some of the enterprising attorneys, who, by encouraging prosecutions, take into court many cases which should never go there.—Blizzard, J. is at -The County Auditors' report which appears on our fourth page today will be read with the usual interest by the tax payers. In the county account the showing is very good, the liabilities over assets being but $675.33. The poor account shows liabilities over assets to be $23,945.52. The necessity for a number of important improvements about the grounds and buildings, the water works, etc., at the county home, account largely for the lack of material reduction in this item. With two or three years of proper management our county should be almost entirely out of debt.

-A curious freak of the calendar for 1922 is that during the months of February, March and November, the days of the month and week are the same. The first comes on Saturday of each month, says an exchange. The "freak" is not so curious, however, when it is known that the same thing happens three years out of every four, but not always on Saturday.

-The Traction company's Crystal Springs park managerie was increased yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock by the birth of twins to Pete and Babe, the black bears. The new arrivals are running little and are jealously guarded by their mother, who will brook no interference with her maternal arrangements for their proper bringing up.—Titonville Courier.

-It is said that when the case of Frank Woodard, who is awaiting trial for the murder of Chief of Police McGrath of Titonville comes up at the February term of court that application will be made for a change of venue on the ground that a fair trial can not be had in this county.—Meadville Star.—It is perhaps the fairness of the trial that is bothering Woodard the most.

-One of our prominent citizens received a terrible shock yesterday. In his noon mail he received a $1 note, a dividend from a gold mine in which he had invested hundreds of dollars. It was the startling suddenness and unexpectedness of the dividend that affected him so severely. Two highballs were required to get his nerves into a normal condition again.—Bradford Era.

-The Republicans of Hickory township have placed the following ticket in nomination for the approaching spring election: Road commissioner, A. H. Pettigrew; school directors, G. W. Warden, H. O. Taft, J. P. McCullough; constable, J. E. Stoughton; auditor W. H. Stiles; treasurer, G. W. Warden; clerk, Joseph Green; inspector, John Thompson; Judge, Jonathan Albaugh.

-Rob. Haslet, who recently located in Burlington, N. C., has already received a taste of southern hospitality if we hear aught from that section. On a certain night recently a "coon" visitation was made to his honoree relieving the same of a dozen or more of his choice chickens. Of course this is a rather rough introduction into the ways of the Southland, but new-comers have to get used to it we suppose.

-There are over 16,000 members of the different I. O. O. F. organizations in this and eight adjoining counties composing the Northwestern Anniversary Association that celebrate the 83rd anniversary of the Order established in America on the 26th day of next April at Ridge way. Extensive preparations are being made for the entertainment of the fraternity, and we can assure Ridgeway of a good representation from this section.

-An expert has figured out that the difference between rising every morning at 6 and 8, in the course of forty years, amounts to 29,200 hours, or three years one hundred and twenty-one days and sixteen hours, which are equal to eight hours a day for exactly ten years. So that rising at 6 will be the same as if ten years of life were added, wherein we may command eight hours every day for attention to important matters.

-John A. Magee & Son, of Clarion, are early on the ground this season in declaring their readiness to meet the wants of farmers and others, as will be observed by their double column ad. In this issue of the REPUBLICAN. This firm is well known to the people of Forest county, with whom it has dealt honorably and fairly for many years and thereby gained the confidence of the farmers and others to a remarkable degree. Read the ad.

-The fourth case of smallpox has developed in Oil City, the man's name being James Beightol, who rode from Bradford to Oil City on the train last Wednesday evening. He had been with Chisholm, the first victim, about the time the latter was taken down, and had then gone to a place near Mt. Alto to work, where he was taken sick. He is not in a serious condition; in fact all of the cases are of a very mild type, and are getting along very well.

-George Salsgiver, for more than 33 years a resident of Tionesta township, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. McDermott, at Martins Ferry, Ohio, Saturday morning last, February 1st. The deceased was aged about 75 years and had raised a family of six girls and five boys, all of whom, with his wife, survive him. Mr. Salsgiver was a familiar figure in this community during his long residence among our people, by whom he was highly respected for his honesty and industry.

-Sunday was groundhog day and if the fellow was out strolling about during the entire day he surely saw his shadow, for the sun shown at short intervals several times, and we shall therefore have six weeks more of winter weather. But no sensible hog-ground or otherwise—would be out on such a day as Sunday was merely for his health or to take particular part in the shaping of the weather conditions, and it is probable the whole affair will be declared off on "account of the weather."

-The entertainment billed to take place at the court house last evening under the auspices of the Woman's Relief Corps, was postponed one day owing to the inability of the chief entertainer, Mr. L. H. Long, to reach here in time, he having been "snowed in" along the route. The entertainment will take place this evening, and the ladies hope to see the court house well filled, and guarantee to all their patrons a most delightful evening's pleasure and profit. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

-Elk county has another murder case on hand. On the 25th ult., while on their way to the boarding house in Shawmut James Heekin and Michael Burke were overtaken by Tom Maddelino or Maddello, and Ben Paola, Italians, and as they came up Heekin said "Hello! where are you going?" Without a word Maddello whipped out a revolver and fired at him, the ball taking effect in Heekin's temple, and he lived but an hour or two afterward. The two Italians fled immediately after the shooting, and have not been apprehended. The two principals had had a slight dispute over wages, which the victim supposed had been satisfactorily adjusted. The Elk county commissioners and the Shawmut Mining company jointly offer $1,000 reward for the capture of Maddello and Paola, $500 for each man.

-John Range, aged 21 years and 8 months, died at his home in East Hickory on Saturday morning last, and was buried on Monday at 10:30 a. m. in the cemetery at that place, Rev. J. T. Stone of the F. M. Church conducting the funeral services. The young man was born and reared at East Hickory, being a son of the late Shollas Range. He had been ill for a long time, his trouble being of the lungs. His brother, Henry Range, died suddenly about two months ago of pleuro-pneumonia.

-Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Wilkins, of West Hickory, died at 3 o'clock yesterday morning after an illness of nearly three weeks, of spinal trouble following an attack of measles. She was aged twelve years, and was a bright, winsome girl, loved and esteemed by all who knew her. In their great loss Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins have the heartfelt sympathy of all their acquaintances. The funeral takes place today from the house, and the interment will be in the cemetery at Tidonite, the former home of the family.

-The day for the lecture by Rev. Benjamin Winget, announced last week to take place in the Free Methodist church next Sunday, has been changed to this, Wednesday, evening. Mr. Winget was in India during the recent great famine, and his talk will be largely on what he saw there during that terrible scourge. He has many odd curios gathered while in India which will be on exhibition during the evening, and which will be found very interesting to the public. Everybody is invited. No admission will be charged.

-Next Friday night, 7th inst., don't fail to go to the Dale opera house and see "The Deacon" as that rare comedy drama will be presented by a company of our best home talent. Rehearsals for this play have been going on for some time and the young people have it well in hand. They have gone to a good deal of expense and lots of trouble to give the people a good show and there will be none disappointed that attend. Whatever surplus remains after paying expenses will be devoted to the school library. Prices 35, 25, and 15 cents. Take it in.

-The storm of Sunday and Monday night was the severest that has struck this country for a number of winters. Business on Monday was practically at a standstill. Trains from all points of the compass were almost completely snow-bound, and those that did manage to get through a part of the way were hours late. The country roads in every direction were blocked, scarcely passable even now. Snow drifts eight feet deep were a common sight, and in many places people declare they were ten feet high. The mail from Leeper did not reach here at all, and Route Agent West, who managed to get here from Kelleysville in a round-about way, was obliged to stay over till yesterday. The splendid record of the winter weather man was very seriously damaged, and no mistake.

-The last heard from Miss Nellie Platter, at the Oil City hospital where she suffered the amputation of her left arm, was to the effect that she was improving slowly and her physicians expect her to recover from the serious effects of her accident. It was feared at one time she could not get well, and friends will be much relieved to know of her improvement.

-Rev. Albert S. Stewart, of Newburg, N. Y., so pleasantly remembered by Tionesta people to whom he preached from the Presbyterian pulpit during the absence of Rev. Mr. McAdams last spring, has accepted a call to the church at Hillsboro, Weld county, Colorado, and has moved to that State. Mr. Stewart's many friends here will wish him a pleasant sojourn in his new field of labor, and will congratulate the people there on their happy choice of so able a minister.

-Liveryman Canfield's carryall took a party of Tionesta ladies out as far as Pleasantville Friday evening where they boarded the trolley car for Titonville and saw the "Power Behind the Throne" at the opera house. The sleighing was fine and the night comfortable making it an enjoyable outing. The following were of the number: Mrs. Chas. Amann, Mrs. E. W. Bowman, Mrs. J. H. Robertson, Mrs. Wm. Smearbaugh, Mrs. George Killmer, Mrs. A. M. Dunt, and Misses Edith Hopkins, Florence Fulton, Kattie Joyce, Helen Smearbaugh, Susie Huling, Mayme Fitzgerald, Mildred Horner, and Mary Morgan. Others who went in single sleighs were, Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Heath, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Gerow, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Weaver.

-P. S. Jas. B. Davis sells our paint. Persistent Advertising And Its Results. The semi-annual sales of The McCuen company (the announcement of their 23d appears on our first page) exemplify the striking results of persistent advertising, backed by the right kind of goods and business ability.

-From a small beginning 16 years ago, this firm, by steadily pursuing a settled policy of clearing out their stock at the end of each season, have made these sales popular throughout this whole section. People wait for them and come miles to take advantage of the reductions, which are bonanza in every instance.

ATTENTION FARMERS! Have Your Grain Clean When You Sow It, and Get A Better Price For It When You Sell It! I wish to say to the farmers of Forest county that I have taken the agency for the famous "Chatham Fanning Mill," which is a combined grain separator, grader, timothy seed saver, and fanning mill. It is adapted to separating and cleaning seeds and grain of all description. It has a bagging attachment which does away with the labor of one man. It has a capacity of sixty bushels per hour. It is especially adapted to cleaning and grading seed grain. It is easy to turn, and has nothing to get out of order. It will separate wheat from rye. It will take all chaff and chaff out of wheat, and will clean all other kinds of grain and seeds in proportion, and is sold under a guarantee that it will do the work as represented.

Any one desiring a mill will do well to confer with me, as I have a sample mill and am prepared to demonstrate the work this mill will do. A. W. ALBAUGH, East Hickory, Pa.
