CONGRESS has finally passed the new Philippines bill and must be credited with another business-like piece of work.

It would be a striking result if the birth of the republic of Cuba should be quickly followed by the republic of Spain.

AS LONG as the Senate allows Tillman to be more than a match for the parliamentary troubles of that body are likely to be numerous.

EACH Day develops a new string tied to the bargain-counter offer of the Panama canal. An enterprise that is a huge failure as it stands is apt to have plenty of complications.

FOUR of Uncle Sam's battle ships have been ordered to Columbian waters as a safeguard of American property interests. They may also be regarded as a first-class guarantee of peace.

CONGRESSMAN WHEELER is badly cut up by a venerable Kentucky's gift of peach brandy to Prince Henry. This is the supreme compliment in Kentucky and several notches ahead of the freedom of the State.

CUBA will begin to govern itself without a public debt and in receipt of customs revenues amounting to $10,000,000 a year. With this start the island will make both ends meet unless it plunges into extravagance.

THE House unanimously passed the bill to repeal the remaining war taxes and the Senate has unanimously passed the bill to devote to irrigation works the proceeds of public land sales in the sixteen Western States and Territories. This is something of an era of good feeling after all.

THE capture of the English General Methuen, the killing of 35 men, wounding of five British officers and 72 men, and with a British officer and 200 men still missing, all in one little skirmish, leads people to doubt seriously the oft-repeated statements from English sources that the Boers are whipped and the war is over. The event has caused great consternation in London.

THE biggest, shrewdest insurgent of the bunch, Senator Wm. Flinn, has pulled himself out of the camp and out of politics entirely, having resigned his place on the civ and county committees, and his seat in the State Senate. Flinn was the brains of the insurgent camp, and without his leadership what is left of the outfit goes to pieces. He blamed his withdrawal from politics on a pressure of private business, but the probability is that he recognized the uselessness of further attempts to disrupt the Republican party, and got out at the earliest opportunity. Selah!

In this issue of the REPUBLICAN appears the announcement of Hon. Joseph C. Sibley as a candidate for Congress in this district. Undoubtedly the Republicans of Forest county will welcome the day when they can give Mr. Sibley a boost in this direction. They have been his near neighbors for many years, and have had an admiration for the brainy statesman which they will take pleasure in showing by their votes when the proper time arrives.

MR. BRYAN is buying a lot of blooded cattle to inhabit that new ten thousand dollar barn which stands in the rear of that new twenty thousand dollar house just erected on his thirty thousand dollar farm. In 1893 Mr. Bryan told us that if Mr. McKinley was elected the rich would become richer and the poor would become poorer. Mr. Bryan was poor then and his present prosperity is the best answer to his specious argument. —Terry Haute Tribune.

At the Republican County Committee meeting held in Forest county, February 24, the date of the primaries was fixed for Saturday, May 10, and "the custom of peddling cigars by the candidates," says the REPUBLICAN, "was again condemned with emphasis." Are we to infer from this that the average Forest county voter smokes tobsacs, or would he prefer something for his stomach's sake? Candidates must have some way of making themselves agreeable besides giving people the glad hand and cordial grapple.—CONGRESS.

May seem like a mighty hardship to you people over in Jefferson, but it's the edict of the Republicans of Forest county, and it stands like unto the laws of the Medes and Persians. Only the "glad hand" goes over here.

It was regarded as a sensational episode and so treated by the newspapers that a rich woman should land in New York one day last week, bringing $75,000 worth of Paris finery, on which she promptly paid duties amounting to over $31,000. It does not appear that she complained of delay or mistreatment at the hands of the customs inspectors. People who honestly declare their dutiable articles seldom find any reason for complaint. But isn't it curious that the newspapers should treat as a sensational episode the fact that a rich woman voluntarily obeyed the law and paid the duties that the Government was entitled to receive? Is it because the difference between this rich woman and many other rich women is that this one paid?—American Economist.

WRITERS are sometimes given to drawing on their imaginations for facts. Here are divergent statements relating to a prominent character, probably neither of which is absolutely correct. The Richmond Times says: Colonel Henry Waterson, the veteran journalist, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, is one of the hardest working men in the newspaper profession. Though well advanced in years, he goes to his office every morning at 7 o'clock, which necessitates very early rising, as he lives 20 miles from Louisville and drives to his office behind a spirited pair of Kentucky mares. The New York Press adds: "One who has known him all his life says: 'Here is the beginning of a very interesting legend. The truth is, however, that Waterson probably hasn't seen 7 o'clock in the morning for 40 years, and if there is a newspaper man on the face of the earth who does less work it would be important to know who it is. For a quarter of a century I would be willing to bet that Uncle Hank has not averaged an editorial a week.'"—

ABOUT Roads and Road Officers in Forest County.

Having had occasion lately to examine concerning the validity of the election recently of a road master (called path master also) I was surprised to find that the Venango county road law, which was extended to Forest county by the Act of April 2, 1899, was repealed by the last Legislature. This will be found on page 291, pamphlets at 1901, and the repealing Act reads as follows: "An Act extending the road laws of Venango county over the County of Forest, and fixing the wages of road commissioners and laborers. Act of April 2, 1899, P. L. 692." Repealed June 4, 1901. At first I thought the repeal was a nullity because it is in the midst of about 100 repealing Acts, and the act was not indicated by the title as the constitution of the State requires, the title relating to the subject of collection of taxes, but soon found my error, by finding decisions to the effect that this principle only applies to original bills, and that under Art. 5, Sec. 6 of the constitution, the Legislature may repeal a statute by reference to its title only, and so decided in Com. vs. Evans, 5 R., page 145, and I found the same doctrine of construction in Evans vs. Phillips, 117 Pa. Repts., and other cases.

So it is quite clear the Venango Road Law extended to Forest, is now a thing of the past. With it falls, of course, the office of Road Commissioner, as well as Road Master, or Path Master, and road district system all go down together. Persons elected in the different townships last February as Commissioners of roads, are no commissioners at all, as the office has no legal existence any more. Neither are they Supervisors, for they were not elected as such. What are they? The old road commissioners, of which there are two in the township, might serve out their terms of office and be "the last of the Mohicans," but that is doubtful, as their work is totally different from supervisors, besides they could not be aided by the Path Masters who were elected in February last, contrary to the statute of repeal as stated. In short, no such officer exists any more as a Road Master in Forest county. When the props are removed a superstructure falls. The best road out of the dilemma it seems to me would be for the citizens of the respective townships to petition the court, which meets the 21 Tuesday of April next, to appoint the Road Commissioners as supervisors. This I believe would be the remedy.

How to Cure the Grip.

Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed and a quick recovery is sure to follow. That remedy counteracts any tendency of the grip to result in pneumonia, which is really an oily, serious disease. Among the tens of thousands who have used it for the grip, not one case has ever been reported that did not recover. Sold by Killmer Bros., Tionesta, W. G. Wilkins, West Hickory, Pa.

—There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the mucous and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. La Grippe Quickly Cured. —In the winter of 1898 and 1899 I was taken down with a severe attack of La Grippe," says F. L. Hebert, a prominent druggist of Winfield, Ill. "The only medicine I used was two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It broke up the cold and stopped the cough in the morning, and I have never since been troubled with Grippe." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can always be depended upon to break up a severe cold and ward off any threatened attack of pneumonia. It is pleasant to take, too, which makes it the most desirable and one of the most popular preparations in use for these ailments. Sold by Killmer Bros., Tionesta, W. G. Wilkins, West Hickory, Pa.

Bring your dinner basket and a loaf of bread and we'll give you a loaf of feed, if you like, while here. Remember the old adage, "Seeing is believing." There is a vital difference between pure corn meal and pure corn hulls. No doubt you would rather have chop made out of pure corn and pure oats, instead of oat hulls, corn hulls and barley hulls. LANSOW BROS.

Danger of Colds and La Grippe. —The greatest danger from colds and la grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which is a serious disease that is a certain preventive of that dangerous malady. It will cure a cold or an attack of la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is a safe and reliable remedy. Sold by Killmer Bros., Tionesta, W. G. Wilkins, West Hickory, Pa.
