PRINCE TAKES LEAVE.

Henry of Prussia Sails On the Deutschland For Hamburg.

Lincoln Farm in Indiana—Small Reserves of Wheat — More Libraries Boston Strike Settled — General Methuen Captured and Released Frightful Railroad Wreck.

Prince Henry sailed for Germany on the steamer Deutschland at 3:45 p. m. Tuesday and thus ended his first visit to the United States. The day was perfect, being warm spring-like and sunny. The prince's last day in America was spent entirely on board the Deutschland, he having decided not to make a number of social calls which had been arranged for the forenoon. He breakfasted at 8:30 and immediately retired to his cabin, where he spent several hours writing letters.

About 10 o'clock he began to receive farewell visits from members of the party which accompanied him and various officials of Germany in this country and of the United States government. Mr. Low was one of his latest callers and the prince, in bidding him farewell, gave a hint that he had some intention of returning to America for a second visit. The prince in replying to the mayor said: "I thank the citizens of New York for all their kindness to me which I appreciate deeply. If I should return to America I should feel when I reached New York that I was once more at home."

Encouraged by the fine weather immense crowds had steadily gathered about the pier during the day and when the ship sailed all approaches and the pier house were filled with a crowd estimated at 10,000 people. The Deutschland's sailing time was 3:30 p. m., but it was 3:45 when Captain Albers gave the signal to start. The crowd gave a mighty cheer and the prince appeared on the bridge and bowed. The Deutschland backed out into the North river amid the footing of vessels and all kinds of craft. As she passed down the river she received the same noisy ovation. She passed the Battery exactly at 4 o'clock and the great crowd which had gathered there cheered as the vessel steamed on down the bay.

Small Reserves of Wheat.
Breadstuffs report for the week says: The swelling tide of spring demand is reflected in the reports of exceptional activity at leading Eastern textile markets, of large distributions of dry goods, clothing and kindred lines in the West and Northwest, and by improved jobbing trade reports from such cities as St. Louis and Kansas City.

Wheat was buoyed up by the report of the smallest reserves in farmers' hands by the government. Bradstreet's calculations, based on the above, pointing to a very small increase in the visible and invisible supplies in view of the record-breaking crops in this country and in the world at large. This steadied prices for a time, but they weakened later on the report of the breaking of the drought in the Southwest and adequate supplies of moisture to winter wheat in other sections.

Corn and oats for the first time in a long while broke loose from the premier cereal, reports of heavy rains checking receipts aiding the government report of the smallest corn reserves in 70 years and limited farm supplies of oats.

Old Lincoln Farm in Indiana.
The old Lincoln farm in the heart of Lincoln city will be sold for delinquent taxes. For years the taxes on the farm have not been paid and the county officials decided to offer the farm for sale. Attempts heretofore have been made to turn the farm into a park and to secure from congress an appropriation for this purpose and this may be done after the farm shall pass into other hands.

The old cottage that stood on the farm, in which Abraham Lincoln lived, was removed to New York many years ago and was sold for several thousand dollars. The commissioners of Spencer county have received many letters from people all over the country wanting to buy the farm and bidders will doubtless be numerous when the tax sale shall be held.

The mother of Lincoln is buried on the farm. The burial lot is kept in good condition by the commissioners. The county received a deed for the lot several years ago.

The late Governor Mount of this state advocated turning the farm into a park and brought the matter to the attention of the legislature, but nothing was done.

Mr. Carnegie Gives More Libraries.
Andrew Carnegie was the chief guest and principal speaker at the seventh annual dinner of the New York Library club. Among the other guests were 300 librarians of New York city and vicinity.

Mr. Carnegie, on being introduced, plunged at once into the subject of libraries for rural communities and said: "I have been much gratified by the many applications of small communities in the West for libraries. And in this connection I will say that as I knew I would have the pleasure of dining here tonight I felt I ought to do something to deserve that pleasure. I have dealt with about 60 of these applications today and am glad to say that in all except perhaps two cases I have seen my way to grant them."

OUTFLANKED BY BOERS.

Lord Kitchener Gives Particulars of Methuen's Defeat.

Rear Screen of Mounted Troops Overwhelmed at Dawn—Two Guns Left Unprotected, But Continued in Action Till Every Man Was Killed. Protecting the Wagons.

London, March 17.—The war office has received the following communication from Lord Kitchener at Pretoria: "Lord Methuen has sent me a staff officer with a dictated dispatch, from which it appears that certain particulars previously given are inaccurate. The rear screen of mounted troops was rushed and overwhelmed at dawn. There was a gap of a mile between the ox and the mule convoys. The mounted supports to the rear of the screen with General Methuen, immediately reinforced by all the available mounted troops and a section of the 38th battery, maintained themselves for an hour, during which the convoys were closing up without disorder.

"In the meanwhile two hundred infantry were being disposed by Lord Methuen to resist the Boer attack, which was outflanking the left of the rear guard. The Boers pressed that attack hard, and the mounted troops attempting to fall back on the infantry, got completely out of hand, carrying away with them in the rout the bulk of the mounted troops. Two guns of the 38th battery were thus left unprotected, but continued in action until every man, with the exception of Lieutenant Nesham, was hit. Lieutenant Nesham was called on to surrender and upon refusing to do so was killed.

"Lord Methuen with 200 of the Northumberland Fusiliers and two guns of the Fourth battery, then found himself isolated, but held on for three hours. During this period the remaining infantry, namely 100 of the Lancashires, with some 40 mounted men, mostly Cape police, who had occupied the kraal near the wagons, also continued to hold out against the repeated attacks of the Boers.

"By this time Lord Methuen was wounded and the casualties were exceedingly heavy amongst his men. Their ammunition was mostly expended and the surrender was made at about 9:30 in the morning.

"The party in the kraal still held out and did not give in till two guns and a pompan were brought to bear upon them at about 10 o'clock, making their position untenable.

"It is confirmed that most of the Boers wore khaki uniforms. Many also wore our badges. Even at close quarters they could not be distinguished from our own men.

"It is clear the infantry fought well and the artillery kept up the traditions of their regiment. In addition to the 40 members of the Cape police already mentioned, a few parties of imperial yeomanry and Cape police continued to hold their ground after the panic had swept the bulk of the mounted troops of the field.

From other dispatches it appears that General Methuen was shot while riding to bring up the mounted troops, and that his horse was killed. After the surrender General Delarey rode up and treated General Methuen with the greatest courtesy and consideration. He ordered his return to Klerksdorp under the care of his own nephew and a medical officer.

According to a Klerksdorp correspondent of the Daily Mail the burghers were so angry at this that a party of them went out and brought General Methuen back. General Delarey, however, overruled the objection of the burghers.

Allotment of Seneca Lands.
Washington, March 18.—A delegation of three Seneca Indians from Western New York called at the White House and informed the president that their tribe did not desire representation on the commission to allot their lands. A bill is now before congress providing for the allotment and for three commissioners to carry it into effect, one of whom must be a member of the tribe. The delegation thought the selection of one of their number to serve on the commission would result only in friction. They favored the selection of three white men instead of two white men and one Indian.

Governor Favors Davis Bill.
Albany, March 18.—Governor Odell last evening said that he favors the canal appropriation bill of Senator Davis which appropriates $21,500,000 for the improvement of the Erie and Champlain canals. He said: "The only canal measure that I am for is the Davis bill. That carries into effect the improvement plan I recommended to the legislature and that is the one I am for."

Buried Under Cave-In.
New York, March 18.—Four laborers were buried under a cave-in of a sand bank at Forty-eighth street and Eighth Avenue, Brooklyn, Monday. Louis Tremaine was taken out dead; Carlo Cenate died on the way to a hospital; Tony Castori was injured internally and may die; and Angelo Montellibo had three ribs broken.

PATRICK TRIAL.

Witness Testified to Seeing Rice Sign the Will in Favor of Patrick.

New York, March 18.—Morris Meyer, a lawyer and notary, testified that he was employed as a clerk in Patrick's office. Patrick sent him to see Rice on business and he was shown into Rice's room by Jones. Six months later on June 30, 1900, he witnessed a will made by Rice. Rice signed on each of the four pages of the will and asked Meyer to do the same. The witness said he saw David L. Short also sign on each of the four pages. This will is the one known as the 1900 will, which gave Rice's residuary estate to Patrick. Meyer said that he likewise witnessed Rice's signature to the general assignment to Patrick, the Fifth Avenue Trust company and the safe deposit assignments, on Sept. 21, two days before Rice died.

Meyer was being cross-examined when court adjourned.

EVANS TO RETIRE.

No Decision Reached as to the Commissioner's Successor.

Washington, March 18.—There is no longer any doubt that within the next few months, at the latest, Pension Commissioner Evans will sever his connection with the pension bureau to accept a position from the president which will be substantial promotion, but which has not yet been definitely selected. It is well known that Mr. Evans has the entire confidence of the president; the latter will not consider the question of his retirement until a position entirely satisfactory to the commissioner has been provided. No decision has yet been reached concerning a successor to Mr. Evans nor will any action be taken until the president is thoroughly convinced that he has found a man of the same high character and sterling worth possessed by the present commissioner in so high a degree.

UNDER CARE OF A HEALER.

Mrs. Sherman Died Without Attendance of a Physician.

Baltimore, March 18.—Coroner McCarthy and Coroner's Physician Royal made an autopsy on the body of Mrs. Sarah W. Sherman, wife of William H. Sherman, village clerk, who died Sunday after a brief illness without the attendance of a physician. She was a believer in Christian Science and was visited on Saturday by a healer who it is said assumed full charge of the case.

The coroner signed the required burial permit, finding that the cause of the death was heart failure arising from inflammation of the bowels. He will hold an inquest Wednesday to determine whether any one was culpable.

Army Post Near Manila.

Manila, March 17.—General Chaffee has signed an executive contract for the purchase of a site for an army post at a point seven miles up the Pasig river. The site is a mile and a quarter wide by two miles and a half long. It is bounded on one side by the Pasig river and on the other by the La Guna de Bay. It is on high ground and overlooking Manila. Building on this site will commence as soon as the purchase has been approved by congress.

Letter From Miss Stone.

Salonica, March 17.—A representative of the Associated Press has received a letter from Miss Stone, the American missionary, in which the former captive of the brigands expresses her surprise and gratitude at the universal manifestations of joy at the release of herself and Mrs. Talika. ## Vermont Maple Sugar.

Pownall, Vt., March 18.—In the past week roads have been broken into the maple sugar groves in Southern Vermont. The bad condition of these roads delayed the work of tapping the trees to some extent but the season is now in full swing. An excellent run of sap is reported, the camps being far busier than at any time during the past five years. From the present outlook the crop will probably exceed that of the last two years.

Deadlock in Conference.

Washington, March 18.—At the close of the arbitration conference on Cuban tariff Chairman Payne authorized the statement that there was no change in the situation and no agreement and the conference had adjourned until this afternoon. The conferees said privately that the situation in the conference amounted to a deadlock and that they were no nearer an agreement than they had been at the outset.

Miss Stone is at Salonica.

Boston, March 18.—A postal card from Miss Ellen M. Stone, the missionary to Bulgaria, was received by her mother Monday. It being the first message by mail from her since her release. She writes from Salonica, under date of Feb. 28, saying that she, Mrs. Talika and Mrs. Talika's baby are pretty well.
