Breezy Letter From Jim Shoemaker.

Aw I made up my mind to settle in the wild and wooly West, I came to Washington. I find things rushing here. Work is very plenty here. There are about four jobs for every man in the State. I got a good job the first thing. I den't think I was in Senttle two hours till there was a man got to talking to meabout nothing could be done to stay the flames. work, and he ask me what I worked at and I told him painting and paperhangings Heask me where I was from, I told him Pa. He said, I am from Pa. myself, and I want you to work for me, so I have just finished up a barn for him. I got $4.50 a day, 8 hours, and 75c an be much over $400. They expect to be our for over-time. The smallest wages in running order again in about two paid for laborers is $2.00 a day. Scattle is a fine rushing city. It is said that in 190I Scattle grew in pop. 25,000, and it is a sight to see how many people come in the city in one day. There are three difterent R. R's, in the city, from the East, South and North. There are two trains on each road called the over-land trains. ers, and so on. Each train has on an average of 14 cars and they are all loaded. There are on an average of 3,000 people come to Scattle every day, some go south some go north, and some stay in and around Seattle. I come as far as Seattle with L. J. Osgood, of Endeavor, and James Ross, of Hydetown, L. J. O good Jr. met us there and I bid them good bye and started south to paint the town called Kent, red, but when I sized it up I to come and inspect their fine millinery thought I had better leave good enough alone, and went to putting on the green,

Well the things are here about the same in price as they are in Pa, with but few exceptions. Clothing is a third higher here, milk is 12c a gal., potatoes $1.25 per sack of 100 ths., apples are $1.00 per box of one bushel, floor, the best, 85c per 50 lbs., ranch butter 20c lb., creamery 25c per lb., eggs 7c per doz. Every one burns wood and coal here except a few in the cities who burn manufactured gas.

I suppose some of the readers would like to know something about the lumber here. There is pinc, hemlock, spruce, fir, cottonwood, maple, and they have a tree, or several of them, here ca led alder, the same kind of alder that grows in the East, only there are trees codar trees in Vancouver, B.C., right near the line, which are very large. The largest one is in a garden there in the city park. It measures 22 feet in diam-ctor. The average cedar trees here are from 7 and 10 feet in diameter. They run from 2 to 12 feet through as a whole all over. There was one tree out near here the other day which, when cut into lumbe, measured 100,000, feet. Of course that is a big tree a little shove the average, but it is a common thing to gut 60,-000 and 70,000 out of a cedar tree.

Now I will tell you a little about huntug and fishing in the State as far as I can find out. (I suppose Jim Landers and Will Hunter will think, when they read this, of the time when I was on Little Tionesta fighting wild cats, There are times when you can go up the small streams, about the size of Tubbs run the REPUBLICAN a friendly call Monday. when high, and kick salmon out of the water with your feet. the year around, Well, now about the country as far as health goes, I can tell you all about it in a few words. An old pioneer told me that they had to kill an old man long ago to start a grave-yard. There are not many insects here. Nothing but fleas. They say they grow about the size of turkeys and that five of them will carry a man off. Ot course I have not seen any fleas yet, but you can see well, I think I have told all I have seen and heard so far, only that this is the country for a poor man.
