MR. PAYNE'S REPORT.

The Committee's Bill on Cuban Reciprocity.

Mr. Payne Explains the Depressed Condition of the Cuban Sugar Industry—Planters and Business Men on Verge of Bankruptcy—Says Concession Will Not Hurt Uncle Sam.

Washington, April 1.—Chairman Payne presented to the house the report of the ways and means committee on the Cuban reciprocity bill, which the committee earlier in the day had ordered reported.

Mr. Payne explains the depressed condition of the Cuban sugar industry as due to the world's over production of sugar, and says: "This condition threatened grave disaster to this, the principal industrial product of Cuba. It is true that labor in Cuba is and has for the past three months been fully employed at fair wages, that there has been no distress, but a trustworthy writer and American not interested in sugar and a careful observer, says under the date of March 20th: "While the masses of Cuba are not actually suffering from lack of food, the planters and business men are on the verge of collapse and bankruptcy, and are anxiously hoping for concessions in the United States tariff in order that they may receive new life and hope."

Advances in Cotton Mills. Boston, April 1.—The posting of notices of advances in wages made Easter Monday a particularly pleasant day to tens of thousands of cotton mill operatives in southern New England. Some disagreements over the amount of the increases have arisen and the yarn mill operatives who have not been included are disposed to be restive, but on the whole the mill situation is much better than a week ago.

Mr. Reed and Mark Twain in Cuba. Santiago, April 1.—The American steam yacht Kanawha with H. H. Rogers, vice president of the Standard Oil company; T. B. Reed, ex-speaker of the house of representatives, and Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain) on board, has arrived here.

Didn't Give His Authority. London, April 1.—The charges brought by J. G. S. MacNeill, Irish Nationalist member of the House of Commons, that the execution of commandant Scheepers by the British at Graaf Reinet, Cape Colony, January 15, was attended by shocking brutality, have twice before been made by Mr. MacNeill in the House of Commons. He refused to name his authority for his allegations, and Mr. Beveridge, the secretary of war, declined to have the matter investigated.

Killed by a Runaway Train. Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 1.—Engineer Rouse Hoover was killed on a runaway train on the Central railroad of New Jersey. He stuck to the train and tried to stop it. It jumped the track at a sharp curve and the engine and a score of cars were wrecked. The fireman, George Kreidler, escaped with slight injuries.

DELAY IN PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

Difficulty of Communicating With Mr. Steyn and General Dewet.

The Hague, April 1.—Mr. Kruger, Dr. Leyds and the Boer delegates in Europe are expected to hold an important meeting at Utrecht, April 2, to consider the situation in view of Acting President Schalk-Burger's peace move.

Considerable surprise is expressed here at Schalk-Burger's delay in getting in touch with Dewet and it is thought that something unusual must be behind it. But even if the Orange Free State and Transvaal officials agreed to peace terms it would be necessary for both republics to call a general meeting of the commanders and submit the proposals to the burghers before they could be submitted to Lord Kitchener.

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED.

Revolutionists in San Domingo Capture a Town on the Coast. San Domingo, April 1.—The town of Barahona, on the south coast, was attacked and captured by the revolutionists after a severe fight in which 40 were killed or wounded. Later a government gunboat bombarded Barahona and landed troops, who retook the town. The revolutionists retired to a stronghold in the neighborhood. The Dominican minister of war has proceeded to Barahona with other troops and will take severe measures to re-establish order. This revolutionary activity is confined to Barahona for the present.

Advance in Cotton Mills. Boston, April 1.—The posting of notices of advances in wages made Easter Monday a particularly pleasant day to tens of thousands of cotton mill operatives in southern New England. Some disagreements over the amount of the increases have arisen and the yarn mill operatives who have not been included are disposed to be restive, but on the whole the mill situation is much better than a week ago.

CHANGES OF AMBASSADORS.

Rumor Connects H. Clay Evans' Name With Madrid Embassy.

Washington, April 1.—Henry White, at present secretary of embassy at London, is the latest and most formidable candidate for the vacancy in the Italian embassy to be created by the retirement of Ambassador Meyer. Mr. White is strongly urged by Senator Lodge and has a most enviable record in diplomatic practice. He was secretary of the embassy when Mr. Hay was ambassador and consequently he has a warm friend in the secretary.

Bellamy Storer, now minister to Madrid, is to go to Berlin as ambassador, to succeed A. D. White when that officer retires, which probably will be next fall. The only contingency which may defeat Mr. Storer's aspiration in this direction lies in the attitude of the Ohio senators towards his promotion; if they are jointly opposed they may defeat the proposed appointment.

Mr. Storer's retirement from Madrid will leave a vacancy there, which rumor connects with the name of H. Clay Evans, the retiring pension commissioner, though it is learned upon inquiry that this is not yet assured.

MRS. HAINES' TRIAL.

Defendant, Her Mother and Brother on the Stand. Mt. Holly, N. J., April 1.—Mrs. Mabel Fenton Haines, charged with murder of her 2 year old stepdaughter Gwendolin, just a year ago, was on the witness stand for four hours. She made a general denial to all the testimony offered by the prosecution. She positively denied having given the child arsenic, or having cruelly treated her.

She also denied ever having seen Mrs. John Palfrey, who testified last week that she visited Mrs. Haines and saw her kick Gwendolin in the face and otherwise maltreat her. She was cross-examined by the prosecution for an hour, but the state's attorney failed to shake her story.

Mrs. Haines' mother and brother, and a number of other witnesses testified in her behalf, and then the state began calling witnesses in rebuttal. The case will go into the jury's hands either today or tomorrow.
