- -A woman is usually balf afraid to enter a bank. She does not know what she wants, whether it is a check or a draft. She signs her name with a trembling hand where she is told to sign, and does not know just what the paper means and whether she is being robbed or not. There are lots of such women. Everyone should know these methods of ordinary business proceedure and in the school is the place to learn them.

  - know whether it's so or not:
  - I find it sometimes at the door, I find it at the gate; I find it twisted into curls, I find it laid out straight,

  - I find it laid out straight,
    I find it wrapped around the knob
    I find it in the snow;
    I find it forty feet away
    From any path we go.
    I find it often on the walk,
  - I find it on the lawn; Sometimes I find it (i), your mind) That is, I find it gone. I find it in the entry way,

  - I find it in the hall;
    I find it tucked before the screen,
    I find it not at all.
    I find it sometimes in the rear,

  - And sometimes out in front; I always find that ere I find, I find I have to hunt.
