The early reports stated that 65 lives were lost and that many were badly burned and othrwise injured, but that the list of casunities is not yet definitely determined, the register having been burned.

TIONESTA, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23, 1902.

Among the first bodies recovered ere those of Captuin Wesley Doss of Cincinnati and Miss Marle Tissim of Cannelton, RL. There were 70 passengers and 70 all told in the crew. The aptain and clerk claimed in all eighty persons have been accounted for, leaving 60 people lost or unac-ounted for. Many passengers clung by finger tips to the burning boat with bodies ubmerged until overcome by fire or water, they sank to death.

Question of Friars' Lands. Archbishop ireland of St. Paul had conference with Secretary Root at Washington following a talk he has had with the president respecting the Philippine friars' land question. It was the Idea of Archbishop Ireland and Bishop O'Gorman that this complex question should be settled directly at Rome. The government here has come to accept their view as most business-like, and therefore Governor Tait will stop at Rome on his way back to Manila and endeavor to arrange the basis of an agreement for the transfer of the lands to the Philippine government in trust for the Philippine people. Mgr. Sharretti favored a seltlement of the question at Manila. The decision in favor of Rome will incalled, to positions actually in the volve a change in his plans. competitive class.
