New Public Fountain.

The new drinking fountain erected by the Women's Christian Temperance Union is a very pretty one. It is located on the corner of Elm and Bridge streets, in front of Arner & Son's building where it attracts much attention. It is pure white, emblematic of the society which erected it, stands nearly six feet high, has a basin holding several gallons of water for horses, and one lower down for dogs, both of which basins automatically fill themselves, wasting no water. Facing the sidewalk is a spigot where the thirsty man of temperance may slake his thirst at will. The familiar initials "W. C. T. U." in gold letters, grace the base of the fountain. The ladies of the Union request us to state that they hope the public may show its appreciation of their efforts by protecting the fountain from vandalism and misuse, and that parents will instruct their children that after getting their drink they will not litter about or in any way deface it, thus saving themselves from trouble or fines that might otherwise be imposed.

RECENT DEATHS.

Leonard A. Clary died May 12th, 1902, at the home of his father-in-law, Royal Scott, at Fagundus, Pa. He was born May 18th, 1818.

Mr. Clary was one of the youngest men to respond to the call for troops during the Civil war, enlisting at the age of fifteen, in 1863, and serving until the close of the war. He was known to most of us about Tionesta for a number of years, but to few of us was he intimately known, as he was of a quiet, unassuming nature and rarely became intimate with anyone. He was a member of the G. A. R., though of what Post we are not aware, and of the Pleasantville Lodge, I. O. O. F., who attended his burial and had charge of the exercises at the grave in Pleasantville cemetery, where he was laid beside his first wife, the funeral services being held at the house Wednesday morning at ten o'clock.

He leaves a widow by his second marriage, formerly Miss Julia Scott, of Fagundus, and four sons and one daughter by his first marriage.

Knowing him intimately both socially and in a business way for several years, remembering his many admirable qualities, believing in his faith in the creator, and knowing his habits when away from home as well as at home, we can only say he must have heard the "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

MATTHEW ELLIOT.

Matthew Elliot was born in Scotland, February 1818, and died at Stewart Run, Pa., May 19, 1902, aged 84 years.

Mr. Elliot came to this country with his wife in 1869, and first lived at what is now Endeavor, Hickory township, afterward moving to Newtown Mills, where he was employed for over thirty years with Wheeler, Dusenbury & Co., and which was his home at the time of his death. His wife died about 17 years ago leaving no children. He leaves to survive him one sister, Mrs. Thomas Wilson of Fleming Hill, Harmony township, and one brother, James, of Stewart Run, at whose home he spent the last month of his life and where he received every possible comfort in his last illness. About six weeks ago he experienced a severe attack of grip which developed heart trouble and caused his death. Mr. Elliot was one of the most thoroughly home-t and upright citizens of our acquaintance. Of a genial, even temperament he had a friend in every acquaintance and the longer that acquaintance lasted the warmer the friendship grew. In fact, it may be said of him as can be said of few people, he died leaving not an enemy in the world. The deceased was reared a Presbyterian, and all his affiliations in life were with that church.

Funeral services were held at the home of his brother yesterday afternoon, the remains being laid to rest in Riverside Cemetery, by the side of those of his wife. Rev. J. V. Stockton, D. D., officiating at the funeral.

"Old Ben."

"Old Ben," the faithful old dray horse, of recent years owned by Mrs. Wm. Thompson, has earned his rest for the balance of his days, and will be taken to the farm of Mrs. Thomson's brother, W. S. Clark, on Hunter Run, where he will be turned out to pasture and will take it easy in his declining years. Old Ben was known to every man, woman and child in Tionesta, and it might be said and perhaps as truthfully too, that he in turn knew them all. He made his debut in Tionesta in the early 80's, and has perhaps never been off on sick leave or a holiday since, but from early morn till late at night has faithfully traced his way to and from the station with loads of freight of every kind and size. Ben was brought here from Mercer county and was first the property of Holman & Hopkins, and in turn from that on his owners were, E. F. Shoup, Herman & Siggins, Geo. Kilmear, George Dunkie, Pittner, Agnew, and Mrs. Thomson. On Saturday last before leaving for his new home on the farm Ben was led up to the new drinking fountain and was the first to slake his thirst from the cooling draughts of that delightful adjunct—a fitting dedication of the new fountain. Ben is well up in the 20's, and his many friends heretofore hope he may live many years yet to enjoy his well-earned rest.

Court Minutes.

Court lasted but two days this week, all but two of the civil suits being continued for one cause or another.

Mary Caldwell vs. Brabanty & Healy and J. S. Caldwell, verdict for plaintiff.

J. R. Erb vs. Penna. R. R. Co., plaintiff takes a non-suit.

Richard Miller, who pleaded guilty to entering the home of George King at West Hickory and stealing certain articles, was sentenced to pay a fine of $10, costs of prosecution and undergo an imprisonment in the Western penitentiary of three years.

The grand jury, Dr. J. C. Dunn, foreman, reported that they found the county buildings in very good condition, and inmates well taken care of. They recommended that the bridge in Hickory township be built as per specifications of the artist and viewers. Also that the Road Commissioners of Jenks township have erected a railing on the road leading west Auguste, along the railroad track. And a similar recommendation was made to the Road Commissioners of Green township as to the road between Jug Handle and Nebraska along the railroad track.

Letter to C. A. Lanson.

Tionesta, Pa.

Dear Sir: You know a good paint when you see it. Devore lead and zinc is the paint that costs half as much as lead and oil because it wears twice as long.

But it looks no better, when first put on.

You must wait a little to see the difference.

The first summer takes off the gloss of lead and oil; the second summer it chinks; the third, it wants repainting. It probably spots in a month or six weeks; the gloss goes off in spots or in sections.

Devore lead and zinc oven holds its gloss longer than lead and oil wears. The loss of gloss marks the beginning of wear, but it keeps out water ten years, in favorable conditions.

Painters think three years is enough. It is, for lead and oil.

Yours truly,

F. W. Devore & Co.

Jacob Hood's Dwelling Burned.

The dwelling owned and occupied by Jacob Hood, located on the west side of Elm street near the cemetery, was burned to the ground yesterday morning. Mr. Hood and young son were away from home, and Mrs. Hood was alone in the house. She had left a lamp burning in the hallway leading to her room, and the supposition is that it exploded, setting fire to the building. She remembers being awakened by a sense of suffocation, and when she attempted to escape, the only avenue, the hall, was ablaze. Throwing a quilt over her she rushed through the flames, and in doing so was considerably, though not seriously, burned about the limbs. Before she succeeded in waking the neighbors the whole inside of the house was on fire, and practically none of the household effects were saved. When the hose were turned on the building was about falling in but good work was accomplished in the saving of the house occupied by Alex Swanson, located but a few feet from the burning building. All of the latter's household goods were carried out, but were returned with but slight damage.

Mr. Hood's loss will be about $1,000 only partially covered by insurance.
