Republican Ticket.

STATE. Governor - SAMUEL W. PENNY-PACKER, of Philadelphia. Lieut. Governor - WILLIAM M. BROWN, of Lawrence county. Secretary of Internal Affairs - ISAAC B. BROWN, of Erie county.

NEITHER BRYAN nor Cleveland seems to have been successfully reorganized.

THE business world is heartily glad there will be no tariff tinkering, in any form, during the present session of Congress.

WYOMING Democrats have reaffirmed the Kansas City platform. Perhaps it is of no consequence, as the state changed to the sound money side two years ago.

THE Boer war lasted thirty-two months and cost the British 7792 killed in action and 13,250 victims of disease, a total of 21,042. If the Boers lost half as many the conflict was one of the biggest little wars in history.

SOMEONE has calculated that if a man made $300 every day beginning with the year one and continuing to the present day, containing none of his earnings, he would just about have as much as Mr. Rockefeller has to-day.

THE wage earner in this State does not want the tariff tinkered with, understanding as he does that hard times and the soup houses come from disturbing the conditions of trade, and that the wages paid in this country are much higher than elsewhere.

A NEW political organization in New York calling itself the Radical Democracy is announced to be "opposed to almost everything." If this is the whole platform, the regular Democratic party may justly complain of an attempt to steal its thunder.

WHEN the "faithful" go to a convention they have to pay their own railroad fare and buy their own fluids, which doubtless accounts for the sobriety that marked the Erie pilgrims.—Tiusville Courier.

SEEMS there ought to be some better incentive to keep the "faithful" sober on such occasions.

"COL." GUFFEY tossed the Erie convention as completely as a king could boss his subjects. Little fellows and big alike heard and obeyed the crack of the whiplash implicitly, and they always will so long as Col. Jim is willing to pay the freight. When he heads up the bar things may be different.

THE commercial supremacy of the United States continues. At present the excess of our export trade over our imports is over one million dollars a day. And this is in spite of the fact that the unprecedented home demand in the iron trade has not only prevented exports to a great extent, but has actually necessitated gigantic imports.

RECENTLY Pension Commissioner Ware received a letter from an Ohio man who said he was getting a pension of $50 per month, but as the Lord had unrequited him, he thought he ought to relinquish it. Mr. Ware wrote to a special agent in Ohio about the matter, and in a few days this reply arrived: "I have found the pensioner. He is in an asylum, hopelessly insane."

THE Indiana county Gazette, General Eikin's home paper, in a recent issue made the following comment: "The smartest thing Senator Quay has done in years was his listening to the demands of the insurgents that a non-factional candidate be named Governor and providing such a man. In so doing he has wiped out faction, at least for a time, and has provided a standard bearer who will surely lead to victory."

PATTISON for Governor, George W. Guthrie of Pittsburg, for Lieut. Governor, James Nolan of Berks county, for Secretary of Internal Affairs, and a platform with the usual language about Republicanism is the size of the Democratic outcome at Erie last week. The Pattison pitcher thus goes once too often to the well. The people of Pennsylvania are not taking kindly to three-termers, especially where the candidate once held in esteem has degenerated into a mere politician, just like the rest of 'em.

THE district conference of this Congressional district, composed of Mercer, Venango, Forest, Warren and Elk counties, will meet in Warren to-day to nominate a candidate for Congress. The re-nomination of Hon. Joseph C. Sibley, our present brainy representative is an assured fact, all the counties having instructed for him except Mercer county, which has complimented one of its citizens, Mr. Waldman, with instructions. Mr. Sibley selected as his conferees from Forest county, Dr. W. G. Morrow of West Hickory, Gus R. Evans of Endeavor, and Leon Watson of Kellestville.

ROBERT E. PATTISON is the only Democrat who has held the office of governor of the State of Pennsylvania since the civil war. The conditions which prevailed at the time of his former election were exceptional, nevertheless there are many Democrats who have come to regard him as the special favorite of fortune, and the only Democrat who can be elected governor of the State. Possibly Mr. Pattison himself has come to cherish the same idea. This is not one of the exceptional years, however, when the Pattison destiny is to be latterly forecast.—Kane Republican.

THE Lewisburg News, Senator Benj. Focht's paper, has this to say about the Republican candidate for Governor: "The independent element in the Republican party cannot oppose Judge Pennypacker unless it is for the fact that he repented and became a stalwart. In 1882 he was chairman of the Independent committee in Philadelphia. While he has since become a regular Republican he is nevertheless a man of his own mind. As a Judge he has stood above reproach. His past record is sufficient to indicate what his future will be. He will be his own boss and no one will dictate to him. If any one should attempt to it will amount to nothing."

By the attitude of William J. Bryan towards the men who are endeavoring to reorganize the Democratic party, the Democratic Philadelphia Times says: It may be gathered from the published remarks of Mr. Bryan that he does not like Mr. Cleveland. Furthermore, he does not like Mr. Hill, nor the Eastern Democracy in general, and if the Democratic party is going to move out of a graveyard, it is not the party for W. J. Bryan. The esteemed Nebraska has not often displayed quite such ill temper as in this interesting deliverance, though it has the unquestionable merit of frankness. Waterson's outbreak against Cleveland was merely personal, but Bryan really believes in the issue which Cleveland spoke of as "killed by the decrees of the American people" and resents an invitation to abandon them as he would an attack on his religion. He prefers to be "faded on the husks of defeat."

In his criticisms of the address of ex-President Grover Cleveland before the Tilden Club, Mr. Bryan demonstrates the extent to which he assumes the exclusive privilege of interpreting Democratic principles and supervising for Democratic convictions. The following extract from his comment would be a complete presentation of his assumed position if the word "Bryanism" were substituted for the words "principles" and "convictions." He says of Mr. Cleveland: "There can be no such thing as harmony between men like him and those who believe in Democratic principles, and he is frank enough to say so. He spends no time looking for 'middle grounds' upon which to gather together discordant elements. He boldly called upon the members of the party to abandon their convictions and accept the construction which he placed upon Democratic principles. He even taunted the party with being sort of a prodigal son and invited it to give up its diet of husks and return to his father's house."

FOLLOWING the passage of the bill providing for the construction of the Panama canal the Philadelphia Inquirer, referring to the periods of agitation for an inter-oceanic canal says: In 1850 there was a demand for the immediate construction of a canal so as to render access to the gold fields of California easy. It was thought impossible to construct a railway across the continent, and a canal was the next best thing. Then some enterprising engineers discovered that a railway could be built, but that it would go through Mexican territory. The Gadsden treaty was the result, whereby we purchased what are now the southern portions of New Mexico and Arizona. A railway was projected, but before it was undertaken engineers began to talk of a road across the Rocky Mountains, a proposition then considered as now a bridge across the English channel—a possibility, but expensive beyond all warrants. There are now a number of transcontinental lines, and for thirty years, from 1850, the canal project dwindled. It was in the Harrison administration that it was revived and has been kept alive to the present time, with the final triumph of the Panama route.

FOR our part we cannot for the life of us discover the necessity for such frequent defending of the American soldiers as representatives of various States are making in Congress nowadays, says the Philadelphia Inquirer. Beyond question there were cruelties and what appeared to be such in both the civil and the Philippine wars, but General Sherman told us in blunt enough language what war was and is, and he told the truth. That there were individual cases of cruelty in the Philippines is easy to believe, but it is not singular that this should have been the fact when atrocities of the natives are recalled. The average soldier would not be inclined to think more than five or six times if he came suddenly upon a man engaged in mutilating the dead body of a comrade. The course of the assaltery of the army, of course, is easy of comprehension. Out of all other arguments against the Republican party they have seized upon the few instances reported without any too much authority, as dying men sometimes clutch at the air, but as a matter of fact they are having their labor for their pains. The notion of the people, as we gather it from the newspapers of the State and Nation is that while the defense of the American soldier furnishes a theme upon which orators naturally grow eloquent, there is actual no occasion for its repetition. The American soldier is fighting for the American flag as American soldiers always have fought. That is the only defense they need.

DEAFNESS Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

THE Best Remedy for Strains. Mr. F. H. Wells, the merchant at Deer Park, Long Island, N. Y., says: "I always recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm as the best liniment for strains. I used it last winter for a severe lameness in the side, resulting from a strain, and was greatly pleased with the quick relief and cure it effected. Sold by Killmer Bros., Tionesta, W. G. Wilkins, West Hickory, Pa."

PAINT Your Hazy for 75c. Beaver, Pa. June 30.—Judge J. S. Wilson has handed down an opinion which declares parts of the pure food laws in violation of the state constitution. The case involved was that of J. E. Ewing, a grocer of Beaver Falls, who was prosecuted three weeks ago for selling oleomargarine.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Ex-Governor Robert E. Pattison Nominated For the Third Time. Erie, Pa., July 26.—For the third time in 20 years ex-Governor Robert E. Pattison of Philadelphia was nominated for governor of Pennsylvania yesterday by the Democratic state convention, the vote being: Pattison 223; Kerr, 52; Guthrie, 32; Wood ward, 1.

George W. Guthrie of Pittsburg was the unanimous choice of the convention for lieutenant governor. James Nolan of Reading was nominated by acclamation for secretary of internal affairs.

The real contest was on the question of representation from Philadelphia. Sixty delegates were elected but State Chairman William T. Creasy ruled that that county was entitled to only 29.

The chairman's ruling was sustained by the credentials committee and also by the convention. During the debate on this question the speakers in the galleries interrupted. John M. Gorman of Luzerne with hisses and jeers. The police were called in by the sergeant-at-arms to restore order.

Robert E. Wright of Allentown was elected permanent chairman by acclamation. Ex-Judge Edwin M. Harvey of Lehigh reported from the resolution committee the platform, which was adopted.

After the adoption of the customary motions the convention adjourned.

Borough President Killed. Altoona, Pa., June 30.—John McKenna, proprietor of the Gallitzin hotel, and president of the borough council, was instantly killed and Thomas Gillespie seriously injured by the firing of a blast at the new Gallitzin tunnel of the Pennsylvania railroad. McKenna and Gillespie were sitting on the porch of the hotel directly in front of the opening of the tunnel when the blast was set off. A huge piece of rock struck McKenna on the head, crushing his skull, while Gillespie's jaw was broken by a smaller stone. Several other persons in the neighborhood were slightly injured by flying stones. Property near where the explosion took place was badly damaged.

Police Arrested For Shooting. Scranton, Pa., June 30.—Five of the men employed as policemen at the Glenwood colliery of the Erie company at Mayfield were taken into custody Sunday morning on the charge of shooting Joseph Quinn during a strike melee which occurred there at midnight. The prisoners were given a hearing and held in $500 bail each. General Manager May of the Erie company becoming their bondsman. The defendants claim they were attacked by a big crowd and fired to frighten off their assailants.

Principal's Salary Too High. Harrisburg, Pa., June 30.—Judge Simmentau has rendered an opinion in which he enjoins Superintendent of Public Instruction Schaeffer from paying any salary to Superintendent Stitzinger of Forest county until the difference between the payment of a $1,500 salary and the lawful salary of $1,000 shall have been made up. It was claimed that Stitzinger had no right to the salary of $1,500 and the court upholds the school board which brought the suit.

Drowned Seeking Bird's Nest. Cambridge Springs, Pa., June 30.—Friday 6-year-old Charlie Ford, while looking at a bird's nest in a tree on the bank of the Shenango river, stepped backward and fell over the high bank and was drowned. Then three other boys who were with him ran to town for help. A steam launch immediately went to the spot and raised the boy after about 10 minutes' work.

Five Persons Poisoned. East Liverpool, O., June 30.—Only prompt medical attention saved the lives of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Cunningham of Chester and their three children, who were taken suddenly and violently ill after eating their dinner. The physicians said they were suffering from arsenical poisoning. They suspect that the poison was in their coffee as a boarder who drank none was not ill.

Mother Jones Out. Parkersburg, W. Va., June 30.—"Mother" Jones and the other strike leaders who were on trial for violation of an injunction issued by the United States court, were released Saturday until July 11. They were given a lecture by Judge Jackson, who warned them against interfering with the men at work. He promised severe punishment if they attempted to incite strike again.

Killed by Falling Gate. New Castle, Pa., June 29.—Henry Lawrence of McKees Rocks, a Pittsburg and Lake Erie brakeman, was killed last midnight at New Castle Junction. He was sitting in the caboose of a train when a heavy iron gate fell through the roof and struck Lawrence on the abdomen, killing him. He was 36 years old and leaves a wife.

Black Eye For Pure Food Law. Beaver, Pa., June 30.—Judge J. S. Wilson has handed down an opinion which declares parts of the pure food laws in violation of the state constitution. The case involved was that of J. E. Ewing, a grocer of Beaver Falls, who was prosecuted three weeks ago for selling oleomargarine.
