The 14th week of the anthracite miners' strike began Monday. Mr Mitchell is authority for the statement that the strikers are in good shape Contributions to the relief fund are coming in from mang quarters now and the dissatisfaction which was at first evinced over the distribution has now disappeared and the strikers have set tled down to what they believe is going to be a much longer slege than was first anticipated.

A $20,000 contribution from the Brotherhod of Railway Trainmen is expected by the strikers within the next 10 days. It is said 400 lodges will brotherhoods are expected to follow

A general review of the whole strike region shows that unless the operators can break the ranks of the strikers by starting up a colliery here and there the men will be inclined to remain out for some time yet. The amount of relief to be distributed will not satisfy all, but the miners seem to be willing to make some sacrifices from the abbey, he did so with a in that direction in the hope that eventually they will win.

Tracy's Wild Life Ended.

After baffling the officers of two states and after a wonderful flight of 400 miles across Oregon and Wash ingten. Tracy was hunted down by four citizens of the little farming town of Creston and a single deputy sheriff.

The posse surrounded a barn on the Eddy ranch on Lake creek, Wash., in which they had been informed the noted outlaw was hiding. Upon their approach Tracy left the barn and dashed for the brush, the pursuers firing as they ran. At the edge of a field he stumbled and fell, crawling into the grain on his hands and knees Night was approaching and the pur suers, now reinforced by Sheriff Gardner and 20 deputies, decided to sur round the field and wait for daylight The wheatfield was entered at dawn and Tracy's corpse found with his face turned to the sky, his left hand grasping his revolver with which he had taken his own life. Two bullet wounds in the left leg showed the cause of the desperado's despair. The reward of $5,600 will be divided among
