THE prosperity of the country is such that business people have no time to engage in a contest over the presidential nomination. The country was all right under the administration of the great McKinley, and it is forging ahead under the splendid direction of the youngest man that has ever occupied the Presidential chair. Toe people are more than satisfied to leave the management of their national affairs in such good hands. Penusylvania Republicans gave early instructions in his behalf.

THE demand for free coinage of silver | sel by the Missouri Democrat convention is a setback to the plans of the faction which proposes a reorganization of the TARRE CURE. party on hard money lines. They are confronted with the necessity for a platform so elastic that it may be construed to mean cheap money in Missouri, Arkansas and elsewhere in that section, while it is interpreted to favor sound money in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. It is a serious question what can be done to harmonize a party which is divided within itself as is the Democracy of the country at this time.
