-The body of Mrs. Calista Grunder, wife of Edward Grunder, of Warren, Pa., drowned in Chantauqua Lake on the 9th and was a boarder in the building inst., was recovered on Friday last, and at was given burial in Warren on Saturday. She had been out on the lake in company with three friends in a small sail boat, when big waves upset the slight craft. All but Mrs. Grunder were saved.

-I. B. Gerow, whose serious accident was noted nearly three months ago, was sufficiently recovered to permit his removal from the Oil City hospital to the home of his sister in Warren, last Saturday. His right limb was amputated above the knee, and he will be provided with an artificial limb as soon as one can be fitted. The left leg, which was also badly crushed, was saved and has healed very nicely. -From a barrel of seed potatoes and a

The barrel of seed potatoes was essential as the stock of the concern, but not more necessary than was the oneinch advertisement, according to the statement of the head of the establishment. He increased his advertising at the same ratio as the stock.

-Mr. J. M. Bemis, of Warren, met with quite a painful accident Wednesday at his new mill that is being built at Parrish. He was walking along on some loose planks, and one of them tipped and he fell to the floor below sustaining injuries that rendered him unconscious for some time, and at present writing is not able to give a description of how it happened. He came up on the T. V. train, at its best, which is now, at White Star and was accompanied to Warren by Dr. Gass. An examination disclosed a brok--"Our Majesty" corset is the latest en rib and some internal injuries .- Shef-
