

1902 SEPTEMBER 1902. Calendar grid showing days of the week and dates from 1 to 30.

Republican Ticket.

STATE. Governor—SAMUEL W. PENNYPACKER, of Philadelphia. Lieut. Governor—WILLIAM M. BROWN, of Lawrence county. Secretary of Internal Affairs—ISAAC B. BROWN, of Erie county.

Dates to Remember.

The last day for payment of taxes will be Saturday, Oct. 4th. Election Day will be Tuesday, Nov. 4th.

The barometer of the crops indicates that another year of prosperity is ahead, and the new Congress to be elected November 4 will fit into the situation.

PATTON'S elections are always followed by Democratic Presidents. If elected this year he is to pose for President, with Col. Guffey's second barrel on tap.

ONE crop is a total failure this year. Reference, of course, is made to tariff tinkers. They plowed a great deal of ground early in the season, but the seed was bad.

BYANISM was reaffirmed in Ohio and came within a few votes of another endorsement in Iowa. It is not losing ground in the Democratic party as a factor for 1904.

If ever there was a time when Pennsylvania needed to renew her loyalty to Republicanism and the doctrine of protection, which has made her great among the States, this fall's that time.

The United States has had a Jackson and a Johnson for President, but, judging from the general caliber of Cleveland's mayor, the country is in no immediate danger of too much Johnson.

THE Democrats have been looking for something on which they "can get together." The New York Sun has suggested a "genuine, all-around-convention-approved war on automobiles."

THE Democratic plan of campaign is to purchase labor union endorsements, wherever possible. The men who thus seek to pervert their organizations to partisan politics will have short lives as labor leaders.

THE Pennypacker band-wagon now contains Col. A. K. McClure, ex-Senator Dave Martin and numerous other prominent Democrats and ex-kickers. They know a good man and also know when to support him.

DON'T forget that a voter must have paid a county tax inside of two years and at least thirty days before election. If you don't have the receipt now you must pay tax and get one before the 4th day of October. Don't lose your vote by neglecting your taxes.

ERIE is lively this week with the State League of Republican Clubs in session there. The great event will last three days, having begun yesterday. Among the notable speakers who are there are Judge Pennypacker and Senator Penrose. Every section of the State is represented and it may be said to be the opening of the campaign for the Republicans.

SENATOR DAVID B. MARTIN, who has declared for Pennypacker, last year aided the Union party of Philadelphia in local matters. He realizes that the Republican nominee for Governor will meet every proper independent thought, and that as governor he will represent the entire people irrespective of politics. Senator Martin has thousands of followers, and all are in line for Pennypacker.

HON. J. K. P. HALL, who is supposed to be the Democratic candidate for State Senate from the 38th district, seems to be a little backward about coming forward with his little boom. What is he waiting for? Can it be possible that he lost his sand in his fight with Col. Coarwater? Where is all his much boasted strength and bravery now? It is whispered that he is afraid to take the nomination unless the Republicans will give him something easy to run against. Poor fellow! He should take Dr. Chase's Nerve Pills. They are good for timid people.—Ridgway Advocate.

THE deadlock which has existed for some time over in the Warren-Venango Senatorial district came to a happy termination last Friday evening at a conference held in Oil City, by the voluntary withdrawal of Gen. Willis J. Hulings, the Venango candidate. The nomination of Capt. H. H. Cummings of Tidonville, was then made by unanimous acclamation. Gen. Hulings' reasons for withdrawing were given in a letter to the conference, important business interests which would make it impossible for him to accept the honor were to be elected, and which came up unexpectedly, being the cause of his retirement from the contest. This action simplifies matters and makes the talented and able Senator Cummings his own successor.

Our President.

He has his faults. Who has not? He is impetuous. His words cut farther and faster than men always like. Prompt energetic, headlong, if you will, he is often intolerant of other ways of men as sincere and patriotic, but more circumspect.

But he is an American. He has our faults, but he has also our abundant virtues. We love him for the very blunders he makes. He is as dear to our national faith as for our national virtues. Judge him, back him, support him as men should be judged who are always trying to do their level best.

Had untoward fate snatched him yesterday the land would be swept with sorrow, unstinted praise and deep-lived regret. He lives. Give him the benefit while living of what men would have felt had he gone. Not for narrow issues or commonplace achievements is a man like Theodore Roosevelt called to be the President of the United States.—Phila. Press.

Patton for President.

People who are trying to make themselves and others believe there is something in the Democratic howl about national issues not being involved in the coming election, will, if they are honest, and consistent, disabuse their minds after reading the following paragraph taken from an editorial that is going the rounds of the Democratic press at this particular time. Will Republicans allow the pulling of any more wool over their eyes after reading this?

"Whether elected or defeated, providing the Republican majority in the State is reduced and Boise Penrose can be prevented from succeeding himself, Robert E. Patton of Pennsylvania will undoubtedly be the Democratic nominee for President. Pennsylvania leaders in the National Democratic Party have received reports from a number of States showing that all hope for the party is centered on the Pennsylvania Democratic candidate for Governor, Bryan of Nebraska and Hill of New York are greatly interested in the result of the Pennsylvania election, and the leaders of Pennsylvania are making a more vigorous canvass for that reason. If Patton makes any kind of a showing the Pennsylvania delegates will go to the convention to support him scoldily. Colonel J. M. Guffey, member of the Democratic national committee, sees Patton's success in the Democratic National Convention. He said yesterday that the prospect of the party in the State meant exactly as much to the Democrats all over the country. He considers Patton the available candidate around whom all feelings of Democracy will flock. Hill is boasting the Pennsylvania man, and Bryan, who declines to enter the Presidential race again, will be for him."

THE UNION PARTY ROW

Attempt of Democracy to Steal the Party Opens Eyes of the People.

If ever the so-called Union Party had any standing before the people of Pennsylvania it was irrevocably lost by the bare-faced attempt of the Democrats, with Democratic money in its pocket and black-jacks and ax-handles in its hands, to capture the party at its Philadelphia convention.

That this political hybrid is dead is shown by the action of the principal men in its councils to organize another party called the "Ballot Reform Party." Papers have been filed with this object in view. The same men who helped the Democracy in its attempt to capture the Union Party convention have signed their names to the papers of the "Ballot Reform Party."

On this subject the Pittsburg Commercial Gazette has this to say about the Union Party and its rowdy Democratic members:

"The riotous proceedings of the Union Party gathering at Philadelphia are a commentary on the present lack of unity of an eastern sentiment that plasters itself with large reform labels. Riotous doings in political gatherings are never to be commended, but the disorder in this case is a useful straw showing that real reform can't be headed off by machine workers wearing a reform mask. The Union Party as an organization was financed a year ago from the same barrel that supplied the back-bone for the Democratic ticket. The net result of the operation was to wreck the Philadelphia Democratic organization."

"Undeterred by this boomerang, the same financial power this year again undertook to control the real as well as make-believe reform sentiment embraced in the Union organization. Hence there is a Union split that promises to make business for the courts and the lawyers. The first round ends in a knock-down, flurriedly and literally, of the Democratic barrel faction. It is probably at the same time the beginning of the end of the Union Party."

"Whatever may happen to the Union factions in their contest in the courts, the differences revealed furnish proof that the tide of public sentiment runs strongly in the direction of a largely increased Republican majority as compared with last year."

Quay, Penrose and the Ticket.

Senators Quay and Penrose have an earnest sympathy for the men of the anthracite region. It was this fact, coupled with the receipt of nearly two thousand letters by the United States senators, that led them to visit President Boer, of the Reading Railroad, in the hope of bringing the trouble to a speedy termination. Thus far all efforts have failed. Governor Stone took up the matter, but he, too, has failed to bring about any change in existing conditions. Miners and operators seem determined to grant no concessions and the settlement of the strike now seems a long way off.
