It is noticable that those newspapers that have been urging tariff reform upon the Democrats as the chief issue of the Congressional elections, says the Lancaster Examiner, are being annoyed with letters from business men asking them to explain what the matter is with the business situation at present. This is a very irritating inquiry because of the NERVOUS IRRITABLE SLEEPLESS. extreme difficulty of framing a satisfactory answer to it. Why should present commercial and industrial conditions be unsettled? Is the country not prosperous and are the inhabitants suffering from tariff burdens? These are questions which every Democrat who advocates tariff reform on the stump this fall will have to meet and he does not look forward to the encounter with exurberant loy, so far as we are able to detect. We are not, as the English woman said, "argying the question, but only a-tellin' yer."

THE country will hear with surprise and regret that Speaker Henderson has written a letter to his constituents in the Dubuque district declining to be a candidate for re-election. THE Republican State Committee is in receipt of a number of protests from members of the Legislative Committee of Railway Employes, who were out-voted in the effort of certain political agents paid by the Democratic corruption fund to secure an endorsement of Pattison. All of the protests show that it was simply a secret and unlawful march stolen upon the minority, who were not posted and had no time to get the bulk of the committee together.
