It doesn't spring eternal, but comes around in many of our campaigns.

LET every Republican put his shoulder to the wheel and give the whole ticket his best efforts from now on still the polls close on the 4th day of November, The Republican ticket is a good clean one from top to bottom. Not one of the candidates but that is in every way worthy the support of a united party. Let us elect them without the loss of a man,

APATHY has more than once brought disaster to the Republicans. Overconfidence should be properly guarded against. An active intelligent canvass should be put up, and every vote which can be had should be brought to the polls. A Republican setback this year would give courage to the Democrats for the campaign of 1904, as well as hamper the Republicans in the second half of the Presidential term.

"Ir I be elected Governor of Pennsylvania, and there shall be submitted for my approval any bill in the passage of which there exists ground for the belief that there has been corrupt dealing, it will not become a law." This was the emphatic statement of Judge Pennypacker made to the Republicans of Erie. He made the pledge with all the earnestness fulfill his official obligations to the pub-
