AFTER Bryan's first nomination, in 1896, David B. Hill wrote to a triend thus: "I am still a Democrat-very still." He has been stiller yet since the recent election. Nobody knows now even if he is a Democrat.

Is the Democratic party is as greatly opposed to trusts as it would have the the duty on anthracite coal. Do protecvoters believe why did it fight all antitrust legislation which the Republicans introduced in Congress? Will some hon- as soon as possible, and then, if it curbs est, convisient Democrat kindly answer those trusts, let us apply the same remthe question ?

CLEVELAND, of course, was right when he said three weeks ago that if the Democrats wanted to carry the country two years hence they would have to win Con- erage free trade reason. It reminds one gress this year. They tried to do this, but ailed. Every same, unbiased person Buster: "Sir, the Greeks! Sir, the Roknew they would fail. Yet Griggs, the mans! Sir, I have lost the clue of my arhead of the Democratic congressional gument and will go way back and sit campaign committee, kept on claiming down," Congress for the Democrats for twentyfour hours after the polls all over the country had closed,

It has been fi, used out that 68 votes were cast for the ballot reform ticket in Mercer county. As there were 140 names on the petition to have this column printed on the official ballot, SI of these bogus reformers are revealed in their true light, even assuming that the 68 who voted the ticket were all -igners of the petition. As stated in a previous issue of the Eagle, it is dark tricks of this kind that makes true ballot reform an absolute necessity. The next session of the legislature should amend the present election law making it impossible for a handful of malcontents to have a mongrel ticket printed on the the ballot in order to, perhaps, fool some unsuspecting voters .- Sharon Eagle.

THE Republican party keeps an open door for all its wandering children. The moment they discover their folly and take a step in the direction of their old home they are warmly welcomed. Ostracism is not a Republican principle. The errors of youth, the resentments of momentary disappointment, the delusions which visit some of the best of men at times, are characteristics of human na-

What an Awful Superstition?

The Philadelphia North American exhorts Republicans to cast aside their superstitious reverence for the Dingley ties on trust goods. What a splendid ides ! First of all, let us take off the duty on the great trust, hoary with age, Rock efeller's oil trust. Second, let us abolish tionists dare to take off the duty on these chair. two mammoth trust articles? If so, do it edy to a couple of other trusts. By the way, come to think of it, there is no duty whatever on either oil or anthracite coal, but the above argument is full as good, sound and logical as the avof the famous maiden speech of Senator

Pennypacker's Plurality 142.340.

The official returns of the recent election have all been received at the State department at Harrisburg. The tabulated statement shows that the total vote cast for Pennypacker in the Republican and Citizens' column was 593,317 : while Pattison's total in the Democratic, Antimachine and Ballot Reform columns was 450,977. Pennypackers plurality over Pattison is therefore, 142,340. The total found in our stock. Largest variety in vote for all the candidates was as follows: town.
