FOURTEEN hunters, mistaken for deer, have been killed in the Northwest this season, and football fatalities number thirteen. Fun has its carpage no less renowned than war.

THE silver dollar is now intrinsically worth 37 cents, with a strong tendency to a lower value. Mr. Bryan has long looked like 30 cents and is only quoted in his own home as "Par."

Turn railroads having given their em-of Congress the Republicans will have control of all departments of the government. That is the reason expectations of continued prosperity are so strong. Last year 125,542 men applied for enlistment in the United States army, of whom only 37,461, or 30 per cent, were accepted. The army standard maintained in this country is unquestionably the highest in the world.

Or that he rmashed his nose! The trouble is that most young men are not willing to work hard enough to break the Sabbath."

"ALARKA needs a good land law." says the President, "and a ch provisions for homesteads and pre emptions as will encourage permanent settlement." An army of landseekers will turn to Alaska instead of Western Canada as soon as Congress gives the people a definite chance in the big to energ.

THE President speaks wisely on the the present system of waste and extermination shall cease. Only a hunter could have written this sentence: "It is, for instance, a serious count against our national good sense to permit the present practice of butchering off such a stately and beautiful creature as the elk for its antlers or tusks."

COLUMBIA's constitution, it is said, forbids the alienation of any of that country's territory, and therefore the United States cannot get that perpetual lease of land through which the Panama canal would pass if we should build it. But what is a constitution in such a country as Columbia? Such a little impediment as that is never allowed by a president of a country of that sort to stand in the way of his wishes. If the president of that country feels like doing it, he can grant the perpetual lease, no matter what the constitution says. Morcover, constitutions are easily pulled down and set up in most of South America.

It is figured out that according to the vote cast for Pattison at the late election there will be 436 delegates in the next Demogratic State convention. This will be an increase of 119 over the number in the last convention. Nearly one-half the increase is in Philadelphia alone, which will have seventy-one delegates, about which there will be no such dispute as ber of delegates it would have if all the votes for Pattison had been cast in the Democratic column. As seets in the party State convention are about the only honors the Democrats of Pennsylvania can look forward to the increase in their number is a matter of interest.

The next day Hart took the hunters to what is known in that section as the "beaver meadows," a reminder of the time when these rare furbearing animals were to be found in large numbers by the old pioneer hunters. The meadows are four miles from the Martin M the Hart camp; the journey was through slashings and brush that obstructed the hunters at every step and made them wish for another visit to the pleasure parties of the night before. After the party had clambered over rocks that were as high as mountains, through tree tops that were matted and overgrown with underbrush and terry bushes that were from six to ten feet high, they reached the one conclusion that was expressed by one of the most outspoken members of the party: "This is a good place to TRESPASSERS on public lands have fair | die in, for I know the devil and all of his imps would consider this the last place

It is certain to be need-ed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be warded off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures.
