SOUTHERN mills added 1,119,284 spindles and 31,867 looms to their equipment during the year just ended.

TRUST legislation which will prove efficacious seems to have more terrors for the Southern Democrats than any other clique in Congress.

THE Republican party can be relied upon for effective trust legislation, but it refuses to enact a buncome measure merely for political effect.

Some of the Napoleons who fix up corners are proud of their achievements, but the authors of the coal famine are skulking out of sight.

Cuban treaty by the beet sugar producers | ing but two or three absentees. proves how excellent a treaty the Administration has negotiated. AT first glance Attorney General

Knox's recommendations appear practical and the Republican leaders in Congress are hoping they will prove so on closer that time, but there can be no loafing. examination.

It is a large undertaking to hold up 76,000,000 people for one of the necessities of lite. The coal trust has roused the wrath of the people and must take the consequenses.

No one can tell what is in store for us. There is Croker, the ex-ward boss, spoils politician and debaucher of votes, settled down to the semi-respectable life of an English 'squire.

THERE is a wine cistern in Sonoma county, California, that holds a half million gallons of grape juice. It is 84 feet long, 34 feel wide and 25 feet high. What a pool to fall into.

A SCIENTIST estimates that the quantity of solid matter escaping from Mont Pelee on August 30 was 11,520,006,000 cubic feet It would not take long to build an isthmian canal at that rate of activity.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has espoused the interests of the people as opposed to to the interests of corporate wealth. It remains to be seen if the people will stand by him or will bow down to the golden calf.

In 1902 we raised more than a billion dollars worth of corn, nearly half a billion dollars worth of wheat and $135,000,-000 worth of potatoes. In fact all our crops were good, but we did not raise enough coal.

PRINCE CUPID, the new delegate-elect go at any price. Heath & Feit. to Congress from Hrwail, is on his way to Washington. So much gold coin is piled up in the United States treasury to redeem gold certificates never presented that the director of the mint suggests that the accumulation of gold hereafter be held in the form of bullion. The $500,000,000 of gold coin now in the treasury might as well be | Feit's Thursday, Friday and Saturday. in bullion, as it simply secures the more popular and convenient gold certificates.

WHEN such men as Senator Vestarrive at the opinion that the one issue that the Democratic party should make is tariff | 38c, 25c ties 19c, linen collars 10c each. It smashing, the paucity of Democratic campaign material becomes apparent. Ever since Cleveland the party has been floundering hopelessly. It has run after Bryanism and has flirted with free silver and so-called "imperialism," and has even dabbled in anarchy. The amusing spectacle is now presented of the party getting back to the old doctrines and theories of Grover Cleveland, policies which, when tried, brought the country to the verge of disaster. And all that Senator Vest can recommend in the way of a Democratic Issue is a return to disaster.

New Governor Inngurated.

GOVERNOR PENNYPACKER was duly inducted into office at Harrisburg yesterday, taking the oath at high noon. The ceremonies were unostantatious and without any show of pomp or great splendor, as per the wish of the plain and unassuming man. The weather was beautiful and the crowd large and briming over with enthusiasm. Mr. Pennypacker will disappoint more people than any man who ever entered upon the duties of Governor if he does not give the people the cleanest and best administration of that exalted office they have had in many years. But he will not disappoint them. The Governor's cabinet is as follows: Secretary of State, Frank M. Fuller, Fayette: Attorney General, Hampton L. Carson, Ph ladelphia; Adj't General, Thos. J. Stewart, Montgomery; Supt. Public Grounds, J. M. Shumaker, Cam-

Humility.

The disease known as "swelled head" s more common, and a thousand times more fatal, than is dreampt of in the ordinary philosophy. It is "a malady which slays more than are numbered in the lists of fate.'

What is it but a blind and imbicile selfimportance that prompts young men, who have a world of usefulness and honor before them, to drink intoxicating liquors, to swagger, to talk fight, to smoke cigarettes and to strut? It is idiotic vanity.

What induces the coxeomb with the high color and low brow to ogle at every female vampire he meets and imagine ship will hold their primaries Saturday that he is a combination of Don Juan and Apollo? Pure self-admiration.

What leads youth from the sweet and haunts of idleness and sin? Simply wish you and your country every pos swollen and putrid self admiration.

Humility is a positive virtue. It is the beginning of wisdom. It has been truly said that it was pride that first changed angels into devils; it is humility that makes men as angels. We must stoop to rise. Humility does not mean a groveling spirit, but is merely the exercise of a prudent care not to overestimate ourselves. Only the humble can be truly exalted. Humility is strength, for it is a recognition of the fact that lotty character must be built upon a solid foundation. Plutarch tells us that Epaminodas, finding himself lifted up on the day of his public triumph, the next day went drooping and hanging his head. Being asked what was the reason of his so great dejection be made answer : "Yesterday I felt myself transported with vain glory, therefore I chastise myself for it to-day." Before we can amount to anything, before we can even begin to fit ourselves for creditable citizenship of the world, we must first realize our insignificance, and that we can have nothing in us that we should ask 'he world even te tolerate, much less praise, until we have builded by toil and right action, and proven our selves to be men who can defy the temp tations of idleness and sensuality as the oak defies the tempest and the thunder-

The true attitude of a youth whose futuce promise- a glorious manhood of usefulness and honor to his kind, is to stand with bowed head, hat in hand, ready and eager to serve. - Punx sutawney Spirit.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained ner very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by Dr. Dunn, Tionesta, W. G. Williams, West Hickory.

Another body was found on the bank, supposed to be that of Elmer Moyer, who is thought to have been killed by the same train.
