> House Committee Taken by Surprise Rigidly Cross-Examined by Every Member But Doblin Held to His Re traction - Representative Lessler Present In the Committee Room.

Statements Were Untrue.

Washington, Jan. 27 .- Philip Doblin who testified before the house comfort at 4 o'clock at long range. At 6 mittee on naval affairs Saturday that he had approached Representative Lessler of New York with an offer of money to influence his vote on the submarine boat bill, and who made the further statement that he had been told there might be $1,000 in it for him, made the astounding statement before that committee yesterday that he had made statements Saturday which were not true and that he want ed to retract his statement that Lemuel E. Quigg had tendered a bribe to him.

> The statement came without any previous warning that Doblin intended making any such retraction. Members of the committee looked at one another in amazement as Doblin went on with his statement.

Gustavus Rogers, an attorney, arose in the committee room after the first witness had left the stand and said he appeared for Mr. Doblin, who had stated to him that he (Doblin) had made some statements Saturday which were true and some which were false and held in his hand a statement to which Mr. Doblin had sworn.

The committee was unanimous in agreeing that Doblin appear in person forthwith. He was called and made specific denial of all statements he had previously made wherein he alleged at tempts at bribery.

He was rigidly cross-examined by practically every member of the committee and pressed vigorously for an explanation of his action, but persisted that he was telling the truth then and adhered to his denials,

When Doblin had left the stand the committee's program, which contemplated calling Dr. W. R. Kerr to the stand, was abandoned and it went into secret session. Some of the members in view of the remarkable developments, favored dropping the investigation, but others urged that it be continued.

It is understood that Mr. Lessler sked that he be permitted to make statement and said that he had an other witness be would call, whereupon the committee decided to meet again today.

Representative Lessler was present in the committee room when Doblin gave his testimony.

Herran's Credentials Questioned. Washington, Jan. 27 .- Senator Morgan in the senate offered a resolution questioning the credentials of Thomas Herran, who as charge d'affaires of Colombia signed with Secretary Hay the isthmian canal treaty. An executive session was at once held and there Mr. Morgan, who is chairman of the inter-oceanic canal committee, contended that the Colombian government is practically in the hands of a dictator. He said that the Colombian congress had not been in session for three vital, for the reason that under the constitution of Colombia no power was vested in any authority except the congress of the country to enterinto a contract affecting the treasury, as the canal cession does. The resolution was referred to the foreign relations com-

CONFEDERATE VETERANS. Enlogies of Three Great Figures of the Civil War.

New York, Jan. 27.-The thirteentl annual banquet of the Confederate vet eran camp of New York held last night in the grand ball room of the Waldorf-Astoria, was made memorable by eloquent eulogies of the great figures of the South and North during the civil war, delivered by men who themseleves had fought in the opposing armies.

Charles Francis Adams of Massa chusetts, a so dier of the Union, res ponded to the toast of "Robert E Lee," and Colonel Henry Watterson a soldier of the Confederacy, paid s tribute to the character of Abraham Lincoln. The third toast in the trilogy of heroes of the civil struggle to "Jefferson Davis," was responded to by William Hepburn Russell, form erly of Missouri and now commissioner of accounts of New York city.

Upwards of 500 comrades of the camp and their guests were present and the presence of many women lent brilliancy to the banquet. Commander Henry Owen presided with Mayor Low on his right and Colonel Watterson

This was fol lowed by the toast to General Lee-"Nature made him and then broke the mold." Responded to by Mr Adams.

This was succeeded by the rendering of "The Bonnie Blue Flag," and songs of ante-bellum days by Mrs. Hollinsworth Watkins, formerly of Louisiana.

In responding to the toast to Abrabam Lincoln, "He was not for an ago but for all time," Colonel Henry Watterson made an eloquent address. Mr. Russell replied to the toast to

MONROE DOCTRINE.

New York Congressmen Uurged to Advocate Increase of Navy.

Albany, Jan. 27 .- In his opening prayer in the assembly last night, the Rev. A. L. Love invoked divine bless ing and comfort on Governor Odell whose sister, Miss Ophelia Odell, died Sunday He also fervently prayed that the "strife between nations" bc satisfactorily concluded.

The session was short. Speaker Nixon announced that a mass in memory of the late Senator P. F. Trainor would be celebrated at St. Mary's church this morning and that members of both houses would march from the capitol to the church preceded by the sergeants-at-arms of the senate and assembly.

Assemblyman McManus offered a resolution which was adopted without debate, declaring that "As the United States are irrevocably committed to the Monroe Doctrine and the present imbroglio between Germany, Great Britain and Venezuela discloses the danger to this government of a partial or total failure of its purposes to preserve the inviolability of its own domains and that of its kindred republics on this hemisphere, from foreign or four years and insisted that this was invasion or domination through a lack of sufficient marine power, therefore

"Resolved, That the senators and representatives of the commonwealth in congress be and they hereby are respectfully requested and urged to use their best endeavors to procure an enactment of such laws as will fully provide for the enlargement and betterment of the navy of the United States so as to enable this nation to maintain and preserve its principles aforesaid under any and all circumstances."

MR. HEARST'S ACTION.

Arguments on Application For Sulf Against Coal Company.

Albany, Jan. 27.-Attorney General Cunneen gave a hearing on the appli catton of Wilkam R. Hearst that action be commenced before the supreme court under the anti-trust law against 12 coal carrying railroads and the Temple Iron company.

The complaint alleges that by ar agreement with the independent oper ators the railroad companies have se cured control of the entire outpu of the anthracite coal mines and that in March, 1901, they increased the price of coal 50 cents a ton, thereby adding to their revenues $30,000,000 The railroad companies were repre sented by attorneys.

Ly granting the application Mr Shearn, for the applicant, urged that the attorney general would prevent the railroad companies from fulfilling their guarantee of the stocks and bonds of the Temp e Iron company and thus destroy the combination.

Lewis E. Carr, representing the Dol aware and Hudson, asked waether the Temple Iron company's contracts were not made in Pennsylvania, Mr. Shearr replied that the courts of this state could act, nevertheless. Mr. Carr said uniformity in the price of coal was not surprising for cost of production was practically the same to all and that if the charter of the Temple Iron company were annulled its 13 collieries would revert to the owner ship of the independent operators and the price of the coal they produce be increased. He questioned the motive which prompted the application, alieging it was for newspaper purposes. Mr Shearn objected and Attorney General Cunneen stated that the motive would have no bearing upon his decision; that he would decide the application upon the facts. A. H. Moot of the Erie railroad maintained that the Reading company produced the majority of the coa mined and practically regulated the price. The coal jobbers of New York city and not the rallroad companies he held, were the men who were vio lating the anti-trust law. He asked why they were not brought before the attorney general. An injunction under the Donnelly anti-trust law could do no more than drive the sales offices of the railroad companies from New York city to New Jersey or Pennsylvania Other counsel argued on the same lines. The hearing was closed, the attorney general reserving his decis ion and allowing counsel a week to file briefs.
