A 3000-barrel gusher struck in the Wezel county, W. Va., field last week knocked a nickel off the price of oil in short order. Our stock of groceries is constantly changing, hence we have no stale goods in stock. Call and get the best. White Star Grocery. The weight of snow caused the collapse of the porch roof on the north side of Robinson's store Monday. No one was injured and the damage will not be large.

Wanted, Active men to sell Tea, Coffee, Baking Powder, Spices and Extracts. Liberal commission. Allowed. Apply to Grand Union Tea Co., 32 Long Ave., DuBois, Pa. The "wrecker" was kept busy at this station all day yesterday boosting the engine of the morning local right onto the track, the bursting of one of the pony wheels causing the trouble.

John Beck, who has had the tools fast in No. 40 on the Beck, Cooper & Co. lease, Cropp hill, for the past six weeks, succeeded in extricating them on this lease so far, this being the fourth well.

Hon. C. W. Amsler, Forest county's Representative in the legislature has been made a member of the following important committees by Speaker Walton: Forestry, Judicial Appointment, Pensions and Gratuities, and Public Roads.

The calendar for 1903 gives these facts: St. Valentine's day comes on Saturday, Washington's birthday on Sunday, Memorial Day and Fourth of July on Saturday, Christmas on Friday, Ash Wednesday on February 23rd, Good Friday on April 10th, and Easter on April 12th.

An exchange gives the following as a good prescription for those who are suffering from a cold or cough: "Two teaspoonfuls of essence of peppermint in half a cup of maple syrup; sip it often throughout the day and night. Put a plaster on chest and between the shoulders."

Monday of this week closed the seventh consecutive week of excellent sleighing in this latitude. For a steady winter this may be called a success, whether we have much more of the same sort or not. The snow in some parts of the county is said to be between three and four feet deep on the level.

Ellsworth Fitzgaid, a son of the late Elmer Fitzgaid, whose home is near Golliza, cut the third and fourth toes of his right foot completely off while scoring ties in the woods near his home Monday. The lad suffered considerably from loss of blood before Dr. Dunn, the attending physician, reached him, but he is now coming on all right.

And now a minister has evolved the idea of holding church services in absolute darkness, in order to shield those who cannot afford to dress well. The scheme will hardly prove a success because those women who dress fashionably will not attend. But the innovation might prove attractive because of the young people, who would be enabled to play love in the dark. That's what the Oil City Blizzard thinks.

Landlord Weaver is adding some very noticeable improvements to the interior of his hotel. In the large office the ceiling has been replaced by a steel ceiling of handsome design, and the walls will be frescoed and paneled. The hall and gentlemen's waiting room will also be put through a course of rejuvenation and made to shine like a new pin, and patrons of this popular hostelry will scarcely know the place when the last touches have been made by artist George Davis.

Capt. C. W. Clark, one of the veterans of the civil war, was made happy a few days ago by the receipt of a certificate from Washington informing him of an increase of pension to $24 per month. The increase was made by a special bill introduced by Congressman Hall before leaving the House, and was furnished by Senators Quay and Penrose in the upper branch of Congress. The Captain deserves well this recognition by his country for which he fought valiantly for four years, entering the service at the beginning and remaining to the close of hostilities.

The latest scheme to raise the wind, by impudently people who are fond of "two go" and who have not the means of purchasing it, is to borrow a dime; go to a 10 cent store and buy a ring and then sell it to some one from the rural district after telling a "hard-luck" story, for about five times the amount paid for it. This leaves capital on hand for another purchase and also to buy a quart of undrunk whiskey.—Ex.

Orion Siggins, a prominent citizen of West Hickory, Pa., who is engaged in the lumber business largely in the northwestern part of the State, is a firm friend of the Oil City hospital. On Saturday last, meeting a director of the hospital on a train, he spoke very highly of the work being done by the hospital and backed his praise by a voluntary gift of his check for $25, being his usual annual donation to said hospital. May his timber always cut in full lengths and of "clear stuff."—Derrick.

A Butler special says: "The Biddle play, 'A Desperate Chance,' was billed to appear at the opera house here, but did not, Burgess David Campbell refusing to allow the show to be given. He further told the manager that if he tried to put on the performance each person would be fined $50 and be confined two days in jail. The reason for the Burgess refusing to allow the play to be produced in that town is said to be because two of the Soffel girls are living there with their aunt, Mrs. George Smith.

The lovers and breeders of fancy poultry in this community have about completed arrangements for holding a show in Tionesta within the next three weeks. Their premium list and program will be issued within a few days, which will show up in good form for the first attempt. This community has a number of fanciers who have made poultry breeding a study and have gained considerable notoriety at the prominent poultry shows of the country by their prize winings. The show here looks like a success from the start.

George Craig, a former well known citizen of Tionesta, died at his home near Braden, Ohio, last week. We are without particulars but understand that death was sudden and unexpected. Mr. Craig had not been in robust health for some time past. He had charge of and was pumping a lease, and falling to reach home at the supper hour his wife went to the boiler house where she found her husband dead. Heart failure is supposed to have been the cause. Besides the wife the deceased is survived by five children. He was aged about 47 years.

The automatic telephone without "Hello girls," without slot machines and without party lines, is about to be installed in Chicago. This is the way the device works: You find the number you wish to call, say 572, and you take down the receiver, turn a ratchet to the three numerals successively; then you press a button, and presently you will get 'phone 572. The ratchet designates the number required, just as the cogs work in operating the safe. If 'phone 572 is busy a buzzing like the ordinary "busy signal" is heard, and the meter of the calling 'phone does not register.

Frank Songer, who has been engaged at teaming on Will Gillespie's job on Salmon creek branch, near Kellettsville, was found dead in a barn on Whig Hill Monday. He had been sending there a load of hay and while loading same it is supposed was seized with an epileptic fit, to which he had been subject for a number of years, and expired. James Lightner, who was passing and noticed the team standing without an apparent master investigated the cause and found Mr. Songer's dead body on the hay mow. It is thought he must have been dead two or three hours when found. The remains were conveyed to his late home from which the funeral takes place today, the burial to be in Town Line cemetery. Deceased was aged about forty years and leaves a wife and three children. He was an industrious man, well thought of by all who knew him.

Relative to the quarantine of the Oil City hospital on account of smallpox, the Derrick says: The quarantine has been lifted from the hospital, that decision having been reached last evening by the directors and members of the Board of Health at a meeting held on Friday evening, and on and after to-day patients and visitors will be admitted as usual. The quarantine was decided upon as a matter of precaution and largely to allay the fears of those who had relatives and friends undergoing treatment, when it was learned that Miss Franklin, a pupil nurse, was suffering from smallpox. On Friday 18 days elapsed since that young lady showed symptoms of the disease and no other cases having developed since that time the management of the hospital and the members of the Board of Health were satisfied that there was no reason why the quarantine should continue any longer. Miss Franklin had the disease in its mildest form and her condition is practically normal. Bryan Nelson, from whom she contracted the ailment, is well and is only being held under the quarantine regulations concerning convalescents. Both of these cases were removed to the contagious disease annex before the disease had reached a communicable stage.

Mrs. George Dawson and babe returned home to Franklin last Thursday. Mrs. Waldorf has returned home from Tionesta, where she was taken very sick, but she is now improving. Mrs. Fred Dryer has been ill for several days. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dawson visited Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Range Friday. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Carson were Pleasantville visitors Friday and called on Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bryner while there. Where is the man who wore a cap, with overcoat on his arm, and predicting an open winter? We think he had better put on his overcoat and change his song. Samuel McKee and wife are recovering from their recent illness. Fawn Wiles and wife are staying at Mr. Waldorf's at present. Bailey and Orion Carson spent the Sabbath at home. Measles have made their appearance again in this section. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Osten mourn the death, from measles, of their little baby, which occurred last week. Dick Zaver and family of Pleasantville are slowly recovering from typhoid fever, having lost two of their children by that disease recently. News Box.

Mrs. A. C. Urey left last Friday for a few weeks' visit with her parents at Sandy Lake, Pa. Miss Verelie Freund of Franklin was the guest of her friend Mrs. J. B. Muse over last Sabbath. Herman Hyde of Buffalo, N. Y., is here on a visit to his father-in-law, Robt. Mealy, of the Township. Mrs. Anna Hassey and son, James, of Oil City, were guests of Tionesta friends over last Sabbath. Miss Sarah Morrow was a guest of her brother, Dr. W. G. Morrow, at West Hickory, over last Sabbath. Messrs. S. J. and W. L. Wolcott and Geo. W. Holeman are attending court in Meadville as witnesses this week.

Mrs. Hannah Siggins and granddaughter, Miss Leona Scowden, were guests of friends in Tidouate over last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carner, of Hamilton, W. Va., visited at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Robert McGarvey, during the past week. Fred C. Howell, of West Hickory, and Bertha Watkins, of Tidouate have been granted a marriage license by Clerk of Courts Geist. Joseph Walter, of Tylersburg, was in Tionesta a part of last week, a guest of his son and daughter, Curtis and Dona, at the Central House.

Rev. B. F. Feit will be in Franklin over Sunday to assist in the dedication of the new Evangelical church of that place. He will preach on Sunday evening. George McGarvey, of Siverly, son of Rev. Mr. McGarvey of this place, left for Phoenix, Arizona, last week, accompanied by his wife, who goes for the benefit of her health. Hon. J. W. Kepler, one of Centre county's efficient representatives in the legislature, was here over Sunday to visit his wife and children, who are here on a visit to his sister, Mrs. J. D. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stroup, Mrs. Fred Glaser and young son, and Ernest Sibbe, of German Hill, left on the afternoon train Monday to pay a visit to friends and relatives at Lancaster. Rev. Archie Zahniser, of Port Allegheny, N. Y., who has been assisting in a series of revival meetings at Tylersburg, visited his father, H. M. Zahniser here last week on his return home. A sleighload of Tionesta's nicest young ladies had a jolly ride to Leeper last Saturday afternoon, where they were entertained for a few hours at the home of Miss Clara Kuhns, the lead consisted of the following Misses: Etta Swanson, Kate Arner, Alice Arner, Edith Hopkins, June Herman, Evelyn Clark, Bertha Thomson, Edna Agnew, Florence Fulton, Bertha Vought, Nellie Carson, Myrtle Nickle, Elva Larson, Dora Gerow. This is another instance of a lot of funkey boys, and the girls taking the lead. The latter are beginning to think the boys should soon take a tumble unto themselves.

Grandville. What do you suppose all those little black tents are for on the ice between here and Warren? Alvin Thomas and Clinton Chapel have returned to their homes at Tionesta and Pittsburg, and some young ladies have been weeping big briny tears since their departure. A sleigh load of fourteen attended a surprise party at Theo. Schuler's Friday evening. W. G. Klepfer, E. D. Harding and Jerry Black were nominated for school directors, and Samuel Hepler for auditor, in Pleasant twp., at the primaries last Saturday. One of the Company teams narrowly escaped drowning last Friday while hauling ice. Driver, horses, sleds, load and all went into four and half feet of water, but after warming up were none the worse for their cold bath. Recent business visitors to our town were D. Offerle, Henry Acks, Hugh Gray H. C. Johnson and Jas. A. Aaron of Warren.

We are now able to cross at this point H. T. Smith, A. E. Southworth and others having swung a cake of ice 453 feet long across the river, which makes it more convenient than ferrying. Four Score and Seven. From the Palo, Mich., Post of the 23d inst., we take the following account of a pleasant birthday event in that city. The subject of the article, Mr. J. C. Percival, is still pleasantly remembered in this section by many of our old citizens, who will recall of his continued good health and spirits with much joy and satisfaction.

Wednesday evening after prayer meeting at the M. E. church it was learned that it was 'Uncle Percival's birthday. On being reminded of this several of the class of which he is leader accompanied by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Diehrich, called at his home and spent an hour or more conversing on his well spent life of 87 years and the still brighter future which is the comforting hope and expectation of those who have spent their lives in the Master's service. Very few who reach this age that 'Uncle Percival has enjoy such good health and strength as he does at this time. His eyesight is good and he writes with a good, steady hand and there have been but very few days the past year that he has not been seen on the streets of our village making his usual trips to the post office and calling on his most intimate friends.

The following letter from a former Marienville citizen, now of South Bend, Ind., under date of 29th inst., verifies an item which appeared a short time ago in this paper, but received only partial credence. It goes to show that when you see it in the REPUBLICAN it's so: "I noticed an item in your paper with reference to a citizen of South Bend, Ind., using beans as fuel and as near as I can find out, the report is correct. The use of beans in this way here has not been an absolute necessity, as there has not been a time that soft coal could not be secured for domestic consumption in sufficient quantities. The Tribune of this city claims that the Bostonians are highly indignant at the South Bend citizen for using beans in this way, and have called meetings to take decisive action in the matter. "The manufacturing plants are having considerable difficulty in keeping a sufficient supply to keep their works running full time, but within a year a coal famine will not affect us in the least, as there is a company constructing a dam and electric plant on the St. Joseph river, a few miles above the city, that is investing between one and two millions of dollars in its operations. This is going to supply power and heat to the city at a very reasonable figure. There are many good opportunities here, and anyone thinking of changing their business location will do well to visit South Bend. There are between four and five million dollars paid labor each year. "Yours truly, "A. E. STONECIPHER."

Among the many pleasant gatherings of the Ladies and Sir Knights of the Maccabees it was our pleasure to accept an invitation to visit Nebraska Tent and Hive Friday night, Jan. 23d. Did we have a good time? If you don't think we did just go to Nebraska some time and make the members of the Maccabees a visit. To say that the members of Forest Tent and Hickory Hive were royally entertained would be putting it mildly. The early part of the evening was devoted to the regular lodge work, the degree team exemplifying the beautiful ritualistic work of the order in a most impressive manner. The latter part of the evening was devoted to a social session of both branches of the order, games, etc., and a good time in general. Last but not least was the banquet. Ye gods! everything was there, and I think Hickory did full justice to the occasion. Say, boys, keep your eye on your auxiliary over there, or you will be the auxiliary and they the whole thing. E. L. G.

Every man knows how different he would act if he were some other man. Reductions on all winter goods at Health & Feit's. Pride makes one man ridiculous and prevents another from appearing so. Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine. Learn how to tell a story. A well told story is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sickroom. Learn to keep your own troubles to yourself. The world is too busy to care for your ills and sorrows. Learn to stop croaking. If you cannot see any good in the world, keep the bad to yourself. Learn to hide your pains and aches under pleasant smiles. No one cares to hear whether you have the carache, headache or rheumatism.

Thoughtful Nature. "How wondrous is nature!" sighed the dreamy eyed person. "You bet!" answered the practical man. "Why, you know how little love is lost between the Hibernians and the Africans, and just look how nature has arranged things so as to prevent the Irish potato from coming in contact with the blackberry."—Baltimore American.

Merey a Suggestion. "Man proposes and woman disposes," remarked the young man who gets quotations twisted. "Well," replied the beautiful blond on the other end of the sofa, "I'm disposed to do my part if some man will do his." Three minutes later she had him landed.—Chicago News.

Born With Them. "Mamma," said the little girl, her eyes wide with excitement, "I do believe the minister told a story!" "Why, the idea!" said her mother. "You don't know what you are saying." "But I do, mamma. I heard papa ask him how long he had worn whiskers, and he said he had worn them all his life."

"The nicest and pleasantest medicine I have used for indigestion and constipation is Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets," says Melard E. Craig, of Middletown, N. Y.
