PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has defied the trusts.

MR. BRYAN puts the old saying in this way: "You seratched me and I'll scratch you.

MINISTER BOWEN's diplomacy has compelled Germany to show herself in her true colors in the Venezuelan case.

ANYONE who has the patience to read the Democratic speeches in the Congressional Record can learn some of the surest ways of destroying the prosperity we are now enjoying.

during his life.

WITH George B. Cortelyou, aged 41, a member of the cabinet and Robert B. Armstrong, aged 29, Assistant Sacretary of the Treasury, the administration is demonstrating its belief in young men.

SECRETARY ROOT's statements that negro suffrage has proved a failure and that labor unions put a premium on slothfulness could have been uttered only by a brave man, one not afraid of pub- gage master will accompany each train lic critleism.

avoided. It is an evidence of a small mind to criticise the generous hospitality of President and Mrs. Roosevelt because it causes a slight increase in White House expenditures. The greater part of the burden comes from the President's pocket. He is not rich. His salary is not half that of the petty potentates of foreign countries, but he is unstinted in hospitality and bounteous in charity.

SURVIVORS of the scenes of the civil war cannot fail to draw comparisons when they witness the venerative treatment accorded the name of Abraham Lincoln at this time by the members of the same organization which heaped oblouay upon him while performing the public acts which have given undying ustre to his memory. Uttering some of the sentiment that must occasionally assert itself on the subject the Brooklyn Times says: It is gratifying, in a degree to listen to the chorus of praise that arises every year from Democratic throats to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. It is very gratifying to know that the venom of partisan malice has been many another happy birthday from all exhausted, so far as Lincoln is concerned, 1:22 and that the memory of that great statesman, loyal, patriotic and good man has risen above the clouds of malice and detraction.
