> Secret of His Lavish Expenditures With Little Visible Means of In come - Sealed Instructions Left to Administrator-Provides For Mrs Burdick-Dispute Over Two Policies

Buffalo, April 7 .- The Commercia publishes the following story:

Arthur R. Pennell, who was accused of the murder of Edwin L. Burdick and who was killed in an automobile accident on March 10th, was a de faulter to the extent of $150,000 o. $200,000, according to authentic infor mation. He swindled estates of friends in the cast out of large sums of money He carried over $200,000 life insurance in order that after his death those as tates might be able to recoup the lesses which they had sustained through him.

This information comes from a re hable source, which, however, owing to a pledge which has been given, can not be divulged at this time.

Incidentally, it has been learned that Pennell made provision for the payment to Mrs. Edwin L. Burdick & $25,000 cut of his life insurance.

The means by which Pennell de rived an income that was sufficient to enable him to spend in the neighbor hood of $20,000 a year has been a mystery in this city for a long time Years ago, Pennell's most intimate friends, who were familiar with the legitimate sources of his income mar veled at the lavishness of his persona expenditures. Pennell was carryin; life insurance which was costing hin in the neighborhood of $7,000 a year His home was a luxurious establish ment. He owned an automobile, pat ronized a fashionable tailor, traveled ; great deal, and, in fact, lived like man of wealth.

Legal Business as a Side Issue.

He practiced law, but his legal busi ness was a side issue. He never seem ed to have any cases in the courts and was not known to be connected in a professional way with any large estates or interests of any kind that would require his services as an at

There had been a suspicion among a few of Pennell's most intimate friends for some time that a good part of his income had been derived through bogus investment schemes and that his wealthy friends and relatives in the East were the victims But there was no proof that that was so. Some time after his death it begar to be rumored that Pennell had swindled his friends and relatives in the east. It was stated that they sent money to him to be invested in bonds and mortgages and in various mythical enterprises at fancy rates of interest and that Pennell, instead of investing the funds, had used them himself and had averted disclosure of his crooked work by paying the interests on the fake investments.

This story now has been found to be substantially true, except that, so far and just demands for improvements as can be learned, he did not swindle any of his relatives in the East, al though it is understood that his wife's relatives are among the victims.

The story of Pennell's extensive swindles leaked out as the result of a legal dispute over two life insurance policies. It seems that there were two policies taken out by Pennell whiet were not handed over to the adminis trator of the estate. One of them was for $15,000 issued by the Prudentia Insurance company and the other was for $10,000 issued by the Mutual Life Insurance company. These two poll cies had been assigned by Pennel to Attorney Wallace Thayer in trust In one he was referred to as "Wallace Thayer trustee, and ir the other he was designated Wal lace Thayer as trustee." There is quite a difference between the tern "trustee" and "as trustee," and the insurance companies, which did not care to be held liable in the event that they pay the money over to the salls hanging from the deck over wrong person, took legal counsel in the matter and held up payments Mr. Thaver and the attorneys for one of the insurance companies talked the matter over. J. Frederick Pennel administrator of the estate, also was called in, and Mr. Pennell insisted or having more information before he would consent to the payment of any insurance money to Mr. Thayer as Plan to Commit Suicide.

It was then that the story of Pen nell's heavy defalcations and his plans to commit suicide were made known The $25,000 insurance money as signed to Thayer by Pennell in trust is supposed to be paid over to Mrs Burdick in accordance with the provisions of the bond for $50,000 which Pennell gave prior to his death. That is the bond which Burdick found in the box which his wife rented in the vanits of the safety deposit company Mr. Thaver won't talk about it. It fact, he has declined to give ever the administrator of Peanell's estate Herald, any information concerning it.

Mr. Pennell, the administrator went to Mr. Thayer for the purpose of finding out the nature of his trust, as it was his duty as administrator to do. Mr. Thaver wouldn't talk. He said Pennell had teft sealed instructions advising him as to how he was

Mr. Pennell urged that as adminis

ability is that the $25,000 will be paid into the courts unless the life insur ance companies take a chance on pay ing it either to Mr. Penney or Mr

The attorneys who are interested in the Pennells or the Pennell estate claimed that they knew nothing about Pennell's alleged defalcations. They did not deny that the story was true They simply said that Pennell's brother, who had been named in the will as administrator of the estate, har been given secret sealed instructions left by the dead man, and that the ad ministrator had properly refrained from giving any information relative to those instructions.
