Up in McKean and Potter counties a number of fishermen have been fined $10 each for catching trout less than 6-inches long. If the baskets of some of the local fishermen were to be examined by game and fish wardens it is very likely that similar fines would be imposed here and very frequently too.—Titusville Courier.

The oakum house connected with the lower Nebraska barge yards took fire Sunday afternoon, and before assistance came the flames had gained sufficient headway to make the saving of it impossible, and with it were consumed several dozen bales of oakum. Some boys playing with matches about the building are said to be responsible for the fire.

Photographer Calkins has our thanks for a very pretty new picture of a portion of our town. The picture is from the top of the court house and takes in that portion of Tionesta which was photographed nearly thirty years ago by the late M. Carpenter, well remembered by many of our citizens. The contrast in the two views is surely quite striking.

"But," observed the editor of the successful monthly, "it seems to me that we should increase the size of the magazine. This month we have one hundred and fifty-six pages of ads. That leaves but four pages for other matter." "Is that so?" exclaimed the proprietor. "Well, that's good. Oh, no; we won't think of enlarging. Why, half of our readers won't even get through the ads."—Brooklyn Life.

The word "toward" was given out and the children were requested to put it in a sentence, in order that the teacher might be sure each child understood the meaning. One little tot put up his hand and flourished it about wildly, at last attracting the attention of the teacher. "Well, Johnny?" The little figure jumped up beside the seat and a triumphant voice announced "I toward my pants."

Last evening, at Pleasantville, Harry Buck of Doughton was fined $10 by Esq. J. A. Hume, on a charge of cruelty to animals preferred by Patrick Burns also of that place. The complaint alleged that Buck had snipped two barrels of a shot gun loaded with No. 6 shot into the body of a cow owned by Mr. Burns. The animal, it was stated had invaded the accused's garden and he took the law into his own hands with the result as above stated.—Titusville Courier.

Under the new law forbidding the use of Flobert rifles, air or spring guns, or any device for throwing missiles of any kind, for the first offense a magistrate may fine the offender $5, for the second $15, costs of prosecution and from 10 to 30 days' imprisonment in the county jail. Parents of boys owning guns will prefer to forbid their using any of the forbidden arms in towns, villages and boros and thus save themselves from paying fines or seeing their offspring sent to jail.

Harry McIntosh, of Nebraska, whose severe injury by an accident on the S. & T. Ry near Hastings was chronicled last week, has been obliged to submit to another operation, which involved the amputation of his right foot at the instep, leaving about one-half that member. His physicians found this necessary when a close examination was made last Wednesday, since which time they have found no unfavorable symptoms, and it is hoped Harry will not get along without further trouble.

The Clarion Republican offers this little protest, which holds good in this as well as other well-ordered communities: Complaint has been made of the careless manner in which waste paper is thrown about the streets and sidewalks. It is both an annoyance and a nuisance to the property owners who keep their lawns in good order. At this time of the year the wind blows the paper about in every direction and the man who has taken pains to clean up his yard does not feel particularly good natured when he finds that his work has been to no purpose. Burn the waste paper.

Warren is making a strong bid for Fourth of July patronage and judging from the splendid amusements promised the town will be crowded as never before in her history. The Columbian Athletic Club of that city, having a membership of nearly 200, proposes conducting a grand carnival from June 29 to July 4th, inclusive. What is considered one of the best carnival companies has been engaged and this attraction carrying over 150 people will be a principal attraction. In addition there will be scores of open air attractions during the day of the Fourth and a grand fireworks display will prove a feature of the evening program.

Matthew Wertz, who recently moved from Green township into his new house in the borough, met with very painful injuries and narrowly escaped death in a runaway accident last Saturday. He had his horse and wagon in the woods above Vine street doing some hauling, when the animal took fright and ran away. Mr. Wertz was thrown off the wagon, sustaining a fracture of the left shoulder blade, numerous cuts and bruises about the head and face, and a dislocation of the left ankle. It was several hours before he regained consciousness, and although his physician, Dr. Dunn, rendered such surgical aid as was necessary to make him as comfortable as possible, he is still suffering much pain, and his age, being upward of 70 years, will necessarily make his recovery slow and tedious.

Healthful Hints From Board of Health. Complaint has frequently been made that persons hauling refuse to the dump scatter it along the river bank, rods from the proper place. The place to unload refuse is now marked by an iron post. It is a violation of the ordinance to throw it at any other point. When it is scattered along it costs taxpayers much more to have it burned. The health officer has been directed to make information against any person violating the rules. Attention is called to Rule 45, "Cells and Yards to be Cleaned." The health board will soon make an inspection of premises, and it is hoped no nuisances will be found. Good health is more important than wealth. At this time great care should be taken in burning refuse, avoid dangerous fires.

Loleta Company Sells to Penn Tanning Company.

Messrs. C. W. Amisler and J. C. Campbell, who have been operating the large lumbering plant at Loleta, Elk county, five miles from Marienville, closed a deal with the Penn Tanning Co., of Sheffield, whereby the latter becomes the sole owner of the extensive operations in that section. The plant is one of the most complete in all respects in the State, including a large band saw mill, shingle mill, lath mills, electric light plant, store, etc., and numerous buildings, a veritable little lumber city, in fact. Also all the standing timber, estimated yet to be 135,000,000, hemlock and hardwood. Amisler & Campbell will finish the cutting of the timber of last year's peeling, which will require about three months time, or until the first of August. They have also made provision for the retention by the purchasing firm of all the employes, jobbers, and contractors connected with the firm for so many years past. In fact about the only change in operations there will be that one firm steps out and another steps in. While the consideration in this deal is not made public it is supposed to involve between $300,000 and $400,000.

Forest Fires Not Yet Ended. In many portions of this county forest fires are still on the rampage, and much valuable property is being destroyed and much more in danger. At and around Bowmanville it was especially severe last Saturday and Sunday, burning several car loads of bark, and destroying many thousand feet of logs for the Bowman Lumber Co. The Forest Lumber Co's mill and considerable lumber, located at Maple Creek siding, in Jenks twp., was burned Monday. We were unable to ascertain the amount of loss. In this vicinity the fire has been quite severe, but aside from burning up some ties and the timber has done no material damage during the past week. People out toward the Cropp Hill oil field have had considerable difficulty in fighting off the fire and have thus far succeeded in keeping it off the several leases in that section. Thomas Mays of the borough, who had taken out a large lot of ties during last fall and winter, on the hill above Hunter run, lost a good share of them in the fire yesterday. He estimates that four hundred dollars worth went up in smoke, which is a pretty tough stroke, just when he was about to realize on his winter's work.

A Pretty Home Wedding. Married, Wednesday evening, May 6, 1903, at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, 100 Jackson ave., Bradford, Pa., Elnora Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McIntyre, to Mr. Fred W. Neilly of Bennett Brook, Pa. The bridal party marched into the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, Miss Lena Neilly presiding at the organ, the bride leaning on the arm of her father. Rev. E. Miller of Sawyer City, assisted by the Rev. Edward Blews of the Free Methodist church, performed the ceremony. The bride was prettily gowned in cream crepe de chene, and wore white roses and lilies of the valley, and her ornaments were pearls. The bridesmaid was Miss Mae Neilly sister of the groom. She was attired in blue Lonsdowne, wearing pink roses. The groom was attended by Herbert McIntyre, brother of the bride. The house was decorated with white lilies, carnations and smilax. About ninety guests were present and partook of a sumptuous feast. Out of town guests were Mrs. Brant and Mrs. Walters, of Titusville. The presents were numerous and valuable, consisting of silverware, cut glass, china and furniture. The bride is well remembered as a former Forest county girl, and attended school in Tionesta for several terms, and where she has many young friends who will be much interested in this pleasant announcement.

Grandville. Miss Blanche Lohr, of Mannington, W. Va., was a recent visitor at C. T. Burns'. Mrs. W. W. Callen left Saturday for a visit at Clarion, her former home. Misses Verna and Gertrude Potter left Saturday for an indefinite visit with friends at Delight. The senior class of the Warren high school spent one day last week at W. A. Talbot's summer house and a number of the young people visited the mill and other points of interest here. Miss Katherine Nelson will complete a successful term of school here Thursday, and expects to take a normal course during vacation. She will be missed from our midst and will be welcomed back by many. Wm Burns and Miss Mina Burns, of Youngville, visited relatives here Sunday.

The ladies of this place expect to observe children's day by having exercises in the school house next Sunday, and for that purpose have purchased a new organ. There is no question but the best scaffold fellows have the preference with the young ladies, and said young ladies are not one bit backward in making a public demonstration of their affections when taking leave. Forest fires have broken out again with renewed force and a large force of men were out Monday fighting and it looks very bad at this writing. An accident, which fortunately did not result seriously, but which appalled the spectators, occurred at the P. & E. R. R. station Wednesday afternoon. Robert, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Allenson, of Mayburg, Pa., had accompanied his mother to Warren and they intended returning at 3:45 o'clock. While waiting in the station a freight train approached and the child, aged two years and 8 months, was playing on the platform. It had escaped the attention of the mother and was caught by the locomotive and carried a distance of about 600 feet, being rolled over and over. Fortunately he was not ground beneath the wheels and the escape from sudden death was a miraculous one. The child was picked up in a stunned condition and removed to the Emergency hospital, where Dr. Pierce was summoned. An examination showed that the injuries consisted only of bruises, no bones being broken.

Eyes Examined Free. Prof. C. Block, the eye specialist and optician, will be at the Central Hotel, Tionesta, for two days—Friday and Saturday, May 15 and 16. Kindly remember the dates.

Timber Lands of Washington.

Thinking that possibly some news from this coast might interest you or some of your readers I send you a little information regarding some of the timber that is to be found in our state. During my trip east last fall, while closing a timber deal with Mr. Fisher, of Cleveland, Ohio, I met many old friends that are in the lumber business and formed several new acquaintances, which made my trip profitable both from a social and business standpoint, as we have made some good sales to some of those people since my return. One of the purchasers was W. W. Bowman, of the Bowman Lumber Co., located at Bowmanville, Forest Co., Pa. He secured over 5,000 acres. It is not sixty days since the deal was closed, and we could sell his tract at the present time at an advance of $5.00 per acre, which would be a nice profit if he cared to dispose of his holdings. Eastern lumbermen are quite numerous here this spring and are making several purchases, for they are aware that the price is certain to increase steadily on account of the demand for lumber. We have been fortunate in securing control of some very desirable tracts in this State and in Oregon, from 500 to 50,000 acres, that we can deliver at reasonable prices. I expect to take another trip East in the near future and will be in Tionesta to see my old friends. We send you under separate cover a publication called the Pacific Northwest, that may interest you. It is published monthly by our Bureau of information, and contains some interesting information pertaining to our State. Hoping you will pardon me for taking up so much of your valuable time, I am Yours respectfully, A. MEALY, Seattle, Wash., May 5, 1903.
