LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Lammers. Ad. J. Horton. Local. F. E. Dick. Local. Penn's Ry. Local.

—The REPUBLICAN publishes on the first page of this issue the full text of the new road law passed by the legislature of Pennsylvania at its session last winter.

—Capt. Thomas Conneely, whose serious illness was noted in these columns a short time ago, and who is known to many of our readers, died at his home in Bradford at 1:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon from apoplexy.

—Every honest fisherman should paste this in his hat or bait-box: Open season for trout from April 15 to July 31.

—A child was to be presented to the Lord in baptism at one of the churches at Corry last Sunday. Said the minister to the father, somewhat far away, "The name of the child?" "Onyx," replied the father.

—One day last week, while Charles Weingard was taking out timbers for a new barn to replace the one recently burned on his farm on Cropp hill, he had the misfortune to sustain a complete dislocation of the left ankle.

—A license to wed has been granted to Frank Smith, of Nebraska, and Mamie Bradbraugh of Kingsley to wed.

—The forest fire which threatened such great destruction was gotten under control Tuesday evening of last week.

—Warren Beas, of Trunkerville, has taken a position as engineer at the Star Brick Works, and his family has been spending the past week at his brother-in-law's, S. J. Kiffir, while waiting for their house to be put in readiness.

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

—Geo. B. Robinson was a guest of Oil City friends over last night.

—Miss Marie Smearbaugh was a visitor to Oil City yesterday afternoon.

—Dr. J. C. Dunn, and daughter, Marie, were visitor to Warren yesterday.

—Miss Edith Hopkins returned yesterday from a week's visit with friends in Warren.

—Miss Maggie Kline went to Oil City yesterday for a couple of weeks' visit with friends.

—Mrs. Axel Aronson, of the West Side, is visiting relatives in Irvineton and Warren this week.

—Mrs. Lillie Gotham, of Oil City, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Chas. Hood, during the past week.

—Mrs. F. S. Cole and young son, of Meadville, are guests of her brother, W. H. Cropp, on Cropp Hill.

—J. M. Vanderlin was up from Butler county on a visit to his father-in-law, H. M. Zahniser, over last Sabbath.

—Prof. D. W. Morrison and family left last Friday for a couple of weeks' visit with friends in Clarion county.

—Chas. Amann was down from North Warren a couple of days last week shaking hands with Tionesta friends.

—A license to wed has been granted to Frank Smith, of Nebraska, and Mamie Bradbraugh of Kingsley to wed.

—Mrs. Sule M. Sharpe and Miss Nannie Morrow were guests of Mrs. N. P. Wheeler at Endeavor last Saturday.

—Mrs. Wm. Carbaugh and young son, of Golinza, left last Monday on a two weeks visit to friends near Franklin.

Strange Fatality by Falling Tree.

Joseph Young, son of J. J. Young proprietor of Hotel Marien at Marienville, met with a fatal accident in a strange manner last Saturday.

A fire had passed through the woods where the accident happened the night previous, and it was found the butt of the tree which proved the death of the young man was nearly burned off.

The company had goods to the value of about $50 destroyed in the fire which burned the P. R. R. freight depot at Warren Monday night of last week.

A rattlesnake three and one-half feet long and sporting nine rattles was dispatched by some of the log cutters Monday of last week.

Calvin Delo, of Dunkirk, formerly of Kelleitville, was here last Wednesday and met many former Forest county friends.

The forest fire which threatened such great destruction was gotten under control Tuesday evening of last week.

Miss Florence Kline, of Warren, visited relatives at this place over last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Belz, accompanied by Miss Stella Taylor, spent Sunday with Mrs. B's parents at Clarion.

Warren Beas, of Trunkerville, has taken a position as engineer at the Star Brick Works, and his family has been spending the past week at his brother-in-law's, S. J. Kiffir, while waiting for their house to be put in readiness.

Arthur Rudolph has moved into the house recently vacated by Erve Kiffer.

Some of our boys were up the other day and saw the game of ball between the Queen City club and a few boys from Tionesta.

Court Proceedings.

Court convened at the usual hour, 2 o'clock p. m., Monday with President Judge Lindsey and Associates Crawford and Dotterer on the bench.

S. T. Henry was appointed guardian of Mattie and Elsie Dunkle, grand children of Peter Heasley, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that the following accounts have been filed in my office and will be presented at the next term of Court for confirmation:

—A 10-cent argument often ends in a $10 quarrel.

—Preserve your house with Lawrence; sold by Dr. J. C. Dunn.

—The standard sewing machine is at the head of the list. For sale at Joyce's millinery.

—Consistency may be a jewel, but it is as scarce as hen's teeth.

—If a man is a little weak in the garret a white vest will not save him.

—Deuce Lead and Zinc costs a little more per gallon than mixed paints, but it takes fewer gallons to paint a house, and it wears longer.

—I ordered 15 gallons of your paint, thinking from experience with mixed paints, that it would require that amount to cover my house.

—On every job I have sold, Deuce Lead and Zinc has given good satisfaction and has taken a less quantity than expected.

—The people living in the upper part of town were surprised by the appearance about midnight of a drunk fellow who tried to have things all his own way.

—A small party of young folks met at J. J. King's Friday evening and tripped the light fantastic until early morning.
