

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN. WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1903. THE ARNER AGENCY

Represents all the leading Fire Insurance Companies of the world... TITLE GUARANTY AND TRUST CO., HOTEL LICENSES, C. M. ARNER & SON, LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Lammers, Ad. Penn'a Ry. Local. Dr. Chase, Reader. Force Food Co. Ad.

Oil market closed at $1.50. Oil and gas leases at this office. Hopkins sells the Douglas shoes.

Dr. Rumberger and party of friends from Emulation, who have been camping on Ross Run for a week or more, raised the siege on the trout yesterday.

In the Presbyterian Banner of the 18th inst., appears a very pretty poem entitled "Thy Will Be Done."

John A. Hart, of Oil City, has purchased the timber on Selden Whitman's farm, in Tionesta township, and will remove it this summer.

If you expect to preserve any strawberries this season, now is your time to secure them. The White Star Grocery is the place to get the best.

Charlie Hood, of the township had the misfortune to sustain a severe sprain of the right ankle while running a fleet of boats to Pittsburgh last week.

Strength and vigor come of good food, duly digested. "Force," a ready-to-serve wheat and barley food, adds no burden, but sustains, nourishes, invigorates.

Can you? Did you? Ever find it in your heart to do good to those who hate you? Can you? Did you ever? Return good for evil?—Youngstown Vindicator. Don't all speak at once.

Edinboro Summer Normal prepares teachers for the best positions available. You can get work in all branches. Term opens July 8th.

In days of old the tinker bold, when called to mend a pot, would build a dam of moistened mud around the leakage spot.

A daylight robbery occurred near the station on the West Side, Thursday, when the freight car occupied by a number of Italians as a home was entered, during the absence of the men at work, and a number of articles taken.

William Carson, a former resident of this county, died at the Oil City hospital on the 14th inst., and was buried near his home on the Shaw Farm near Plumer, Pa., on the 16th.

The Punksatwney Sprit has donned a very pretty new dress of type, which now makes it the handsomest exchange that graces the desk of the REPUBLICAN.
