Oil market closed at $1.55. Oil and gas leases at this office. Hopkins sells the Douglas shoes. If you want to be fitted out with a nice new fall hat, come here. Health & Feet.

The Epworth League held a social at the home of Sheriff Nobilit Monday evening. See that you are registered on or before Sept. 24, or you may lose your vote this fall.

The St. Louis Ladies vs. Tionesta on the ball field here next Friday. Game calls at 3 o'clock.

Straw hats must move out. $2 hats for $1, and all $1, 75c and 50c straw hats now 25c at Hopkins' store.

A young man named Rickerson had his right wrist dislocated by falling off a car at Endeavor Monday last.

Right in the midst of the canning season, as we are, you should go to the White Star Grocery for all things needed in that line.

The girls from St. Louis will play with the home team at the ball grounds next Friday. It's bound to be a good game. Don't miss it.

Anyone desiring to purchase a team of draught horses will do well to take a look at the fine team of grays that Liverman Canfield has for sale.

Harry Harp of Marienville was down yesterday with a load of honey, the production of his fine apiary. Mr. Harp is a successful bee keeper and makes it pay.

Strength and vigor come of good food, duly digested. "Force," a ready-to-serve wheat and barley food, adds no burden, but sustains, nourishes, invigorates.

Monday's Oil City Derrick says: Kenneth Normile, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Normile, Seneca street, fell off the porch Saturday evening, dislocating his shoulder.

Ice cream sandwiches are welcome additions to the summer luncheon menu. To prepare them, take sponge cake and slice it rather thin, placing thin layers of cream between the slices.

Mrs. Rhodes, widow of the late Rev. Henry Rhodes, has been granted a widow's pension of $8 per month which was secured through S. D. Irwin, Esq., in the remarkably short time of three months.

The Hoff Business College, Warren, Pa., opens for business Sept. 1st with the best advantages for students of any school in the country, having new methods and equipment lately adopted for future use.

People who owe taxes in Tionesta should pay this month if they want the benefit of the five per cent. discount. The tax collector has posted his notices as the law requires, and Sept. 1st is the last day for discount.

Lester, the ten-year-old son of Ira M. Fox of Nebraska, fell out of the 14th mill at that place last Friday and broke the bones of his left forearm just above the wrist. The fracture was reduced by Dr. Bovard, and the lad is doing well.

Squire William Thomas has taken a contract of sawing the remaining timber on a tract on Hunter near Osgood & Jamieson, and will move his mill as soon as the bridge repairs are sufficiently along to admit of hauling the same across.

All indications point towards a successful year at the Clarion State Normal School. The faculty has been increased and strengthened and the standard of efficiency has been made equal to that of the best schools of this or any other state.

There will be a meeting of the Forest County Poultry Association at the furniture store of S. H. Haslet's Sons next Friday evening, August 21st. All interested are cordially invited to be present and take part in the business of the meeting.

According to the Corry Leader, Judson Woodward, of Sheridan, lost a flock of 75 chickens Saturday in a peculiar manner. He fed the fowls with meal mixed with water which had been used in washing butter, and 30 minutes later the fowls were dead.

Every column of a newspaper contains 5,000 to 25,000 distinct pieces of metal. The displacement of one of these means an error. Is it any wonder that errors sometimes occur? Still some people are shocked to see a letter upside down or a wrong letter in a newspaper.

The Franklin News says: "It must take unadulterated nerve to come into a newspaper office to sell tickets for an entertainment when a paper has given it $50 worth of advertising." And the News might have justly added: It requires cheek equal to that of a brass monkey to hand the editor two 25 cent tickets in payment for $10 worth of local, and, if he happens to see them, call him a "dead head."—Clarion Democrat.

The facilities at Edinboro Normal are the best. The best Normal School Library in the state, the Chemical, Zoological and Geological Laboratory second to none, climate delightful, scenery beautiful, an ideal place for study. Why not come to Edinboro and prepare for life's work? John F. Bigler, Principal. It

Howard, the four-year-old son of F. A. Keller, had his face quite badly scorched by the explosion of a shot-gun cartridge which he had mysteriously come in possession of last Saturday. His eyelashes were burned off and his hair considerably singed, making his escape from serious injury rather remarkable.

The largest train of Pullman cars that ever passed this place went down the river last Wednesday evening, consisting of twenty coaches. They were brought from Buffalo over the River division of the Pennsylvania R. R., enroute to the seashore, where they will be used for travel between Pittsburgh and Atlantic summer resorts.

The sixth annual reunion of the Osgood Family will be held this year as usual at the old homestead, near Starr, on Saturday, Sept. 5th, and a pleasant time is anticipated by those who will be fortunate enough to be there. As the business meeting is to be held at 11 o'clock, it is hoped all members of the family will be there at that hour.

The death of William H. Osterhout, one of Ridgway's most prominent citizens, on the 11th inst., has caused most profound grief in that city, where he had been identified with about every important industry for the past thirty years. He leaves a widow but no children. He would have been 71 years of age had he lived till the 17th inst.

Archie Porter, of Grand Valley, but who is working on a shingle mill near Endeavor, had his left hand badly lacerated by the boiler saw Monday of this week. A gash about six inches long and involving the knuckle of the index finger was cut in the back of the hand. Dr. Will Moorow, who attended him, thinks the entire hand can be saved.

Again it may not be out of order to call attention to the fact that the sidewalk leading from the river bridge to the Fisher lot, on the most traveled street in Tionesta, is the worst walk in town, and the most dangerous and disgraceful that the town has ever permitted to thus remain. If there should be an accident at that point who would be responsible?

Commissioner Ware, of the Bureau of pensions, has notified the G. A. R. Posts throughout Pennsylvania to be on the lookout for a smooth swindler who is working a clever scheme, seeking pensioners as his victims. He represents himself as a physician in the employ of the government, and makes what purports to be medical examinations. His fee ranges from $3 to $10.

Mrs. G. H. Agnew, a returned missionary from South Africa, will lecture in the Free Methodist church this Wednesday evening, giving her experience while in that benighted country. Accompanying her is a young man whom they call Peter, a native of Zululand, and a convert to the Christian religion, who will also speak to the audience, and who will be worth hearing. Everybody is invited.

There's promise of a lively time on the Tionesta ball field next Friday, when the Ladies' Base Ball club of St. Louis are billed to play with the home team. This aggregation is said to be a very strong one, and has defeated most all the amateur clubs against whom they have played, so it is calculated there will be a fine game, possibly the best that has been pulled off here this season. Don't fail to see it all.

The annual reunion of the Northwestern Association, G. A. R., Dep't of Pennsylvania, will be held at Conneaut Lake on Wednesday, August 23th. Oil City people are trying to arrange for a special train and if successful it is expected the attendance from this section will be very large. It all depends upon how much of a guarantee the railroad companies will insist upon as to whether a special will be run.

For the benefit of those desiring to attend the State Camp of Pennsylvania, Patriotic Order Sons of America, to be held at Lancaster, Pa., August 24 to 28, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell round trip tickets to Lancaster and return, August 24 to 27, inclusive, good to return until August 29, inclusive, from all stations on its lines in the state of Pennsylvania, at reduced rates (minimum rate, 25 cents).

One of the bugbears of old time people is night air and there is little exaggeration in saying the superstition against night air has killed more people than the free circulation of it has ever injured. There is abundance of proof that night air is injurious to no one. On the contrary, people who sleep out doors under the mere protection of a tent are the healthiest of all people, and the practice has largely gained in popularity of late years, under wider knowledge of hygiene, for people in delicate health to go out in camping parties and breathe the balsam of the night air.

Many counties in the State are discussing the good roads law and preparing to take advantage of it, but few have as yet complied with the conditions, which are somewhat exacting. The greatest stumbling block seems to be the requirement that applicants shall file maps showing all the roads in each county. Commissioner of Highways Hunter, who is now napping out plans to put the new law in operation, will take no action on the application of any county for State aid until all have been heard from, in order to get the length of miles, each county wants improved, and then the allotment will be made in proportion until the appropriation is exhausted.

Warren Horo will be sued by D. E. Lynch and wife, of Bryeton, N. Y., but who lived in Richland, Pleasant twp., last winter. Mr. Lynch being employed in J. E. Blair's store. Many of our readers will remember the sad accident when about 6 p. m. of a winter's day when the 5-year-old boy and his mother were crossing the suspension bridge to meet the father, when the boy's foot slipped on the icy walk and he fell through the bridge into the water, his body being found under the ice a few rods below the next forenoon. Negligence is claimed and damages to amount of $10,000 are wanted. The bridge, we are glad to note, is now in safe condition, side rails being added and the holes closed.—Mail

A correspondent writing from Brocton, N. Y., says that "there will not be more than 40 per cent. of a full grape crop this fall. This means a little less than 60 per cent. of last year's crop, which was only about 70 per cent. of the full crop. On the basis of about 7,000 carloads for a full crop, the entire output this year will be less than 3,000 cars. About one-third of this fall's crop will probably be used in the cell by the various wine and grape concerns, leaving not more than 2,000 cars for shipment." This will be sufficient however, to plug up all the vintiform appendixes within the scope of the grape belt delivery, and no one should be seriously alarmed at the reported shortage of the crop.

Robert Harger of Golina, attended the Pleasantville camp meeting last Sunday, returning home Monday morning on his bicycle. Coming down the steep grade near the Temperance House he ran into a batch of stones that had been pounded into the road and partially obscured by sand, and his wheel got the better of him, throwing him headlong over the handle bars onto his face. He lay unconscious for some time and when he "came to" he had a pretty bad looking countenance, but he was able to continue his journey, although a little belated. Bob had to explain to his friends that he wasn't Corbett, but had the appearance of having gone through a similar experience, and that too without getting any share of the gate receipts.

A change has taken place in the firm of Scowden & Clark, hardware merchants and carriage and wagon makers, the latter retiring and disposing of his interest in the business to his partner. This substantial firm has done business in Tionesta uninterruptedly for over seven decades, during which period it has, by fair dealing and strictly honest work, built up a fine trade, and which Mr. Scowden will continue, adding to the business as the trade may demand and depending on the same course of fair dealing and honest work to merit the continued patronage of the public, Mr. Clark, the retiring member of the firm, has not determined on his course in business as yet, but will doubtless branch out in other lines in the near future. The best wishes of all our people for continued success goes with both gentlemen.

A Serious Affair. Word comes from near Saigle, Jefferson county, of an affair that might have ended in murder. A man named King was having a quarrel with his wife one day last week, when two young neighbor girls, hearing the racket, went near the house to see or hear what was going on. The man seeing the children took a shot gun and fired at them, the shot taking effect in the arm of one girl and in the leg of the other. It is said both will recover. The girls were aged about 10 and 13 years respectively, and are children of Mr. Welsh, who, with his wife and other children, is at present staying at Grunderville, where he has a log-cutting job, and the little girls above referred to were left at home to look after the household affairs. King claimed that the girls were stealing his potatoes, but an examination of the patch failed to disclose any molestation of it.

More Burglaries Attempts. An attempt to burglarize the Tionesta post office was thwarted by the watchfulness of night policeman Wm. Hunter at an early hour Monday morning. When Mr. Hunter came down street on one of his rounds, about two o'clock in the morning, he discovered the front door of the office standing open. Suspecting something wrong he closed the door and awakened Postmaster Knox, who lives with Mr. Smearbaugh's family directly opposite the office. Before they got back to the office the burglars were gone, having been frightened away no doubt when the door was closed. An inspection of the premises by those who had by this time been aroused and gathered about, showed that the front door had been pried open with a pick, the same having been perforce from Will Hunter's barn, across the river, as was afterward discovered. With the same implement the inside door was pried open, and the thieves were evidently about to begin operations when watchman Hunter came upon them. A bottle containing some fluid supposed to be nitro-glycerine and alcohol, and wrapped in a piece of old damask table-cloth, was found standing on a chair near the large safe. A smaller safe in the office, but not locked, had been swung open, but it contained nothing of value. Nothing else about the building had been disturbed, and no valuables taken. A door in the rear of the office had been opened to permit of escape in case of surprise.

Will Hunter of the West Side found evidence in his barn that led to the conclusion that three men slept there during the night, and the fact that the pick was taken from there makes it pretty certain that the burglars had their rendezvous there. Watchers were stationed at different ways leading out of town, but no discovery of suspicious persons was made by any of the parties. Before this could be done, however, the burglars had time to make good their escape.

This sort of nefarious business is getting rather monotonous in this vicinity, and should be stopped. The trouble is that people are too easily lulled to sleep after one of these raids, while they should be more watchful. Catch some of the devils and put them out of commission. It will have a salutary effect on the rest.

Letter to Q. Jamieson. Tionesta, Pa.

Dear Sir: It's an old saying: the best advertisement is a pleased customer.

It happens to us continually in this way: A man buys Devoe for his house—he has painted it once in three years for a dog's age, and thinks he knows what he wants—buys 30 gallons and has 10 left.

He sees right off that 20 Devoe is as much as 30 anything else. He likes that; it comes quick; it is a surprise; and he tells of it. The best advertisement is a pleased customer.

Three years roll round. There isn't a sign that his house needs paint, he don't paint it. Next year he don't paint it. This comes slow; it is a surprise; but he has got used to it. Still the best advertisement is a pleased customer.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & Co., 2 New York. P. S.—Jas D. Davis sells our paint.

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

J. H. Robertson was a business visitor to Oil City last Friday. Howard Kelly was a guest of friends in Oil City over last Sunday. Miss Maude Butler is a guest of friends in New Castle this week.

Morrow attended the reunion of United Presbyterians of West-ern Pennsylvania and Ohio held at Conneaut Lake last Thursday, at which there was an attendance of 25,000 people.

Edwin Bevier, of the Brookville House, spent last week at Marienville, looking after his property interests there and superintending the harvesting of a good-sized hay crop.—Brookville Republican. Mrs. Laura Brown and daughter, Lucile, of Brookville, and Mrs. J. J. Henry, and daughter, Irene, of New Bethlehem, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown a couple of days last week while on their return from Chautauque.

Mayburg.

In my last letter I forgot to mention Sam'l Conner's new house on Cottage Hill. The large addition Sam. is putting on will make it very comfortable. Also M. M. McManigle has erected a substantial barn.

T. B. Gifford has moved into the house fitted up for him. The putting in of new drains around the Smith Bros. boarding house is an improvement that will count for the health of the town.

Wm. Hartman, George Deshner and Richard Sutton began on Thursday to clear ground for the compressor plant. The Cook Oil Lease is changing its method of pumping the wells, the idea now being to flow them with compressed air. There is a large plant at Russell City, in Elk county, where they flow 51 wells by compressed air and expect to put 375 to flowing within a year. Horton, Cray & Co., are putting in a plant at Sheffield Junction, Pa. John Goat of North Clarion, has a plant about ready.

The sheriff of Forest county was here last week. Clifford Babbs is much better. Frank Parker is about ready to get up. Wm. Carl, wife and son passed through town on Wednesday on a visit to his folks at Porkey. Wm. was gauger here for many years and was transferred to Grand Valley two years ago. He weighs about 225 pounds and is over six feet high.

W. Smith comes to town as assistant book-keeper to Brown & McManigle. J. G. Richards, Jacob Lindsay and Harry Springer left on Tuesday for Fox Creek, just above Nebraska, to pull out some old gas wells. A. M. Hunter hauled the bull wheel down on Wednesday.

The sand, brick and stone for foundations of the new church are on the ground. James Huling and John Saylor will commence work on the church Monday. Wm. Deshner has made a decided improvement to his house by putting in a nice bay window. It faces directly east so as to receive the morning sun.

George F. Watson, manager of the Salmon Creek Lumber Co., at Kelleysville, was up on Thursday to get a part of a feed works fixed which had broken down. Mr. Whisner left Thursday for Buck Mills, Mr. Reese being able to go to work. Later—Mr. Reese resigned his position. Myron Williams, of DuBois, takes his place.

Mrs. W. A. Hartman and Miss L. V. Richards have made several trips to the woods for huckleberries. Berries are plenty. Mrs. W. A. Long and Miss Helen Long are both here preparing to move. I observe Jared Huling here on insurance business.

G. B. Armstrong, of your city, is here plastering Joe Richards' house. Camp meeting at Pleasantville took a number of our people. A. M. Hunter and family went Friday. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wynecop Thursday. Sorry to say that mother and child are very poorly, the latter hardly expected to live.

The planing mill at Mayburg, Collins & Krotter, does quite a large business. Frank Rayhorn and his boys do most of the work. Frank is a good workman. MORE ANON.

Grunderville.

W. W. Callen returned Wednesday from a business trip to Clarion, his former home. John Miller, of Washington, D. C., has joined his family at their cottage, across the river from this place. L. J. Hopkins, of Tionesta, was a visitor Monday last.

Miss Marie Southworth, is visiting at Columbus and attending the G. A. R. picnic. Miss Ruth Clark, of Tionesta, and Dr. C. P. Stahr, of Lancaster, Pa., visited friends here last Wednesday.

A jolly party spent last Tuesday at this place, coming over from Allegheny Springs, Mrs. Smearbaugh, Josie and Helen, Mrs. J. F. Proper and Curtis, Misses Margaret Miller, Pearl Grabill, Gussie Cook, Florence Fulton, Edna Agnew, and Evelyn Clark. Mrs. Callen got up a good dinner for them and Engineer Walker treated them to an excursion on the log train to the sulphur spring, and also being a little short on talk, they kept the talking machine pretty lively while at the office.

Mrs. F. E. Hunter and children came up Saturday to spend a few days with her husband. One of the "strong" points about this town is pole-cats. Very numerous, and so sociable, or bold, as to visit inside people's houses. Such visitors are "shooed" out with almost breathless gentleness.

A Hunter With a Famous Record.

The papers north and east of this locality are giving interesting sketches of Isaac Parmy, the last of a group of famous hunters, trappers and woodsmen of Northern Pennsylvania, who settled in that region when it was an unbroken wilderness, and who died in McKean county recently, aged 90 years. He was a hunter while elk, wolves and panthers were yet plentiful in the Pennsylvania forests. In a statement made by him a few years ago, he said he had killed 47 elk, 32 panthers, more wolves than he could remember, 400 bears, and more than 3,000 deer, all on the watersheds of the Allegheny and Susquehanna.

Parmy was fond of relating a certain wolf experience of his. One day he surprised two wolves devouring a deer he had killed, and he shot one of them, and shot one, and killed the other with a knife after a desperate fight. Parmy was in at the death, 40 years ago, of the last elk in Pennsylvania, which was followed in the headwaters of the Clarion river, and killed there by Parmy, Tottian Jim Jacobs, Seth Nelson and George Parker. —Franklin Spectator.

When a man wants to find fault he is willing to spend all his time looking for it if necessary.

It Never Fails.

Thompson's Barosma has never been known to fail to cure any disease of the Kidneys, Liver and Bladder; also Rheumatism, Sciatica, Palpitation of the Heart, Nervous Debility, and Female Weakness. Thompson's Barosma reduces all the inflammation, neutralizes the acid and dissolves gravel, carrying off all matter that is poisonous to the blood, stomach, heart, kidneys and liver. It is purely vegetable and pleasant to take. No opiate in any form is used in its manufacture. It can be taken by all ages and has cured many children of non-retention of bedwetting.

"I had been troubled with rheumatism ever since I was eighteen years old, and when I went into the drug store I had little faith in Thompson's Barosma. I have taken six bottles of Barosma and am better than I have been in twelve years. I can work every day, something I had not done in ten years. Thompson's Barosma regulates my whole system and I am stronger and better in every way, and am glad to bear this testimony. Thanks to Thompson's Barosma."—JOHNSON N. DUNN, Troy Center, Penn'a.

If costive, Thompson's Dandelion and Mandrake Pills should be taken with Barosma. They are purely vegetable and do not gripe.
