Dastardly Attempt at Robbery.

Last night a dastardly attempt at sneakthieving of the lowest order was made at the home of Mrs. S. J. Swanson, near Jamleson station. Since the death of Mr. Swans in, which occurred about two weeks ago, Mrs. Swanson's daughter-inlaw, Mrs. John Swanson of Washburn, Wis., has been staying with her, and and can insure you against loss at lowest rates obtainable. We are home, having advertised the sale of the household effects. Some time during the night the thieves entered the house and ransacked the lower rooms completely, ty and township officials. Also tearing up the carpets and rifling bureau drawers, evidently expecting to find some money hidden away. The two women were sleeping up stairs and heard at a nominal fee. A nice line of the maranders but were too frightened to make any outery or disturbance. Nothing of value was taken that they are aware of.

Local talent was undoubtely implicated in the affair, as Mr. Swanson was known in the community to be a frugal man, who would in all probablity have some money about the house.

-Audrew Jackson McCray, of Titusville, was doing jury duty at court last week. He is 73 years old. There is nothing remarkable about either circumstance, but over 50 years ago he served on jury from Titusville, at the February term in 1853, and that seems a good while ago. Mr. McCray removed to Forest county in 1887, and was associate judge there one term. He returned to Titusville last year. At the time of his first jury service, he came on horseback, and there was a foot of snow on the ground, He stopped at the Crawford house, which is still standing, but will soon be torn down to make room for the new Baptist church. These things were displayed against the back ground of a beautiful Navajo blanket.

The chief exhibit made by the Junior Aris and Crafts Guild were flowers and vegetables from their individual gardens which have been the special care of these boys and girls since last spring. An Ad. With a Moral.

The mission of a watch is to keep time. What kind of time do you think a cheap watch keeps? Now, to a greater or less extent, all clothes look alike. Some dealers would have you believe that cheap clothing wears as well as our kind of clothing. They might just as well claim that an 85c watch will keep as good time as a $25 one.

The mission of a suit or overcoat is to make a man look well and feel To do this for a satisfactory length of time, it must be shaped by hand and manipulated all through by adepts in the art of tailoring. It costs more to make a reliable watch than one that goes helter-skel-

Now for the Moral-buy your clothes as you would buy a watch. Buy the best you can afford - not necessarily the most expensive. Our suits at from $7 to $25 have all the virtues of correct style and long wearing quality, although the first-class merchant tailors, because of their limited facilities, have to ask $25 to $40 for duplicating them. The best is always the cheapest.
