MOON'S PHASES table showing moon phases and times for the month.

Republican Ticket.

STATE. State Treasurer—WM. L. MATHUES, Delaware County. Auditor General—WM. P. SNYDER, Chester County.

RECENT events suggest that much costly missionary work has been wasted in Turkey.

REPUBLICANS should remember to pay their taxes and be entitled to vote November next. Next Saturday is the last day.

TAMMANY'S experience will be different from that of former years, if it can show the name of McClellan to be identified with victory.

A TRUST among flower growers has been discovered. It is the sunflower which botanists tell us sucks up 145 pounds of water during its growth.

MR. CLAY'S explanation relieves us of the apprehension that a member of the United States Senate could under any circumstances be guilty of profraternity.

THE dangers of Mormonism are not religious, but political. Already the Mormons are in a position to dictate terms to the political parties in several States.

AS THE Kaiser led every cavalry charge in the recent German manoeuvres, and as the empire didn't dare declare the imperial forces defeated, the Emperor naturally won.

THERE are some people who are never satisfied. Now Chicagoans, just because their dairy supplies come from cows fed on distillery refuse, are demanding pasteurized cows.

THE amount of money now in circulation in the United States is $2,382,000,000, or nearly $30 per capita. In 1896 the sum was only $1,506,000,000, showing a gain of over 60 per cent.

BOSTON negroes are denouncing Booker Washington and his theories and methods by resolution, but the negroes are not the only people who fail to recognize their best friends.

THE public will be relieved to know that George Fred Williams is going to do some studying before he does any more talking. Too bad George Fred never thought of that before.

EVERYWHERE Speaker-to-be Cannon goes in Washington he is followed by a troop of newspaper men, but he only tells them funny stories and declines to say how he will organize the House.

COLUMBIA will be remembered as the nation that blocked the construction of an isthmian canal because it wanted the earth as compensation for allowing the United States to spend $200,000,000 on the work.

CARROLL D. WRIGHT'S decision that when employers are deprived of the right to discharge their employees their employees will be deprived of the right of quitting, is just and logical, but that will not prevent complaint against it.

TOM JOHNSON'S candidate for Senator, Clarke, declares that "this country is on the verge of a financial and industrial collapse." As Mr. Clarke thus predicts Democratic success next year, let him give a list of States he expects his party to carry.

TWO COLUMBIAN politicians, who have just arrived in New York, ascribe the defeat of the Panama canal treaty to local partisan, or rather factional, strife. They say that even men who favored the treaty voted against it because they wished to repudiate the Marquon administration. But that fact doesn't help matters a particle.

THE indictment and arrest of State Senator George E. Green, of Birmingham, N. Y., chairman of the county committee and an influential politician, furnishes the most doubting Thomas with the most incontrovertible evidence that the President and Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow are in earnest in the postoffice investigation.

DANIEL WEBSTER said on February 24, 1837: "I insist that the protective policy of the United States is aimed point blank at the protection of labor."

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in the air, but which is carried beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and can cure bruises and like injuries to head without medication and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by Dr. J. C. Dunn.

SENATOR HANNA denies that he intends to resign from the national Republican Committee, but refuses to give any assurance that he will retain the chairmanship. It is more than probable that the state of his health will largely govern Mr. Hanna's decision in this respect.

SLANG expressions, though in common use nowadays, do not sound well at any time, but when they are employed by girls and women they have a jarring effect which is most unpleasant, very truthfully says the Blizzard. The use of slang by educated young women, however, is said to be steadily on the increase, a fact that is greatly to be deplored. Bishop Potter is quoted as having referred to this subject at a girls' alumnae luncheon, pronouncing slang to be the greatest danger to which our language is subjected. Urging the young women to abstain from it, he said, earnestly: "Believe me, that on the testimony of young men themselves, you can wear no charm greater than that of reserved, cultivated speech. Use your eyes, your mind, your lips to lift up the great tongues, Shakespeare's tongue, which we all inherit."

The Conspiracy Against Roosevelt.

In the absence of other grounds for hostility against President Roosevelt, his enemies are evidently determined to work the Miller case for all it is worth and a great deal more, if they find that the people of the United States can thus be imposed upon. The conspiracy to defeat Mr. Roosevelt by representing him as an enemy of organized labor is a most subtle one. It is being conducted by Wall street interests whose plans have been carried by the enforcement of the National laws. These interests dare not attack the President on their real grounds of opposition, for were these grounds generally known there would go up from the country a practically unanimous demand for his renomination. The plotters know this very well, and they have therefore seized upon the Miller case as a cover for their hostility, and hope to arouse opposition to the President among the working classes because Mr. Roosevelt ruled that a man's non-unionism should not be a bar to his employment in the Government printing office.

Mayburg.

G. Brown and family have moved into the Johnson house.

J. G. Richards and family and J. Lindsey returned from Nebraska Saturday. We missed Ralph very much.

Free Methodist revival meetings at Kellettsville this week.

N. N. McManigle returned to Mayburg with his bride. Nick was married the 4th of July. Lived at Loleta, Elk county, awhile and now comes to work for Wm. Richards. He is O. K. on work.

George Hartman was laid up with a sprained ankle a few days.

One of the good things of town is to see those that have been sick, on the streets again. Frank Parker is around, first on crutches, then a cane, but nearly ready to work now. Harry Whitehill is on the streets looking much better.

Mr. Croop moved into town.

Lewis Hunt has taken a contract of hauling wood for the Cook Oil Levee.

Thos. Gifford met with a painful accident on Thursday by getting three fingers into the drawhead of one of the cars of the log train. It is a pretty bad smash, and will lay him up for a while.

Rev. A. Smith goes to conference at Titusville on Tuesday. A number of our people expect to go.

MORE ANON.

Meeting of Presbytery of Clarion.

The Presbytery of Clarion held its stated fall meeting on Tuesday, September 22, in the church at Knox, Pa. The Rev. Mr. James was elected moderator for the next six months, succeeding Rev. H. Chisholm, who preached the opening sermon.

The Rev. R. W. Illingworth was enrolled as a member, from the Presbytery of Arizona. A call was placed in his hands and accepted to become pastor of the church at Tionesta. The Rev. Mr. Bird was released from the pastorate at Johnsonburg and dismissed to the Presbytery of Huntington.

The evening meetings of the Presbytery were devoted to popular addresses, and steps were taken to begin work among the foreign population of the Presbytery. Much routine work was done, and reports read bearing upon the religious work of the Presbyterial field.

The session closed on Wednesday evening to meet in April next at a place selected.

The local church was represented by Elder G. W. Robinson and Rev. R. W. Illingworth.

Case of Lockjaw.

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in the air, but which is carried beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is roused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and can cure bruises and like injuries to head without medication and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. It is for sale by Dr. J. C. Dunn.

Forest County W. C. T. U. Convention.

The 17th annual convention of the Forest County Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held in the M. C. church at Clarion, Sept. 16th and 17th, Mrs. Sula M. Sharpe, presiding officer.

Owing to the long drive necessary to reach this most distant part of our county, some of the officers and delegates were late in arriving, but 3 p. m. saw a goodly number assembled. A delegation of seventeen ladies from Loleta, Elk Co., added to the pleasure of the meeting. Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Ida E. Small, after which the president declared the meeting formally opened.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Euphemia Meehling, of Clarion, and the response by Mrs. Margaret Beck, of Marquette, followed by the annual address of the president, Mrs. Sula M. Sharpe. A paper of merit, and very acceptable to the union. The report of the treasurer, Mrs. Augusta Kelly, of Tionesta, showed the society to be in a good financial condition. Mrs. Alice H. Siggs, Rec. Sec., reported an increase in the membership for the year and a new union organized at Lamona Wednesday evening. The praise service was led by Mrs. J. H. Derickson. Mrs. M. D. Ellis, of Washington, D. C., was unable to meet her appointment as lecturer and her place was supplied by the Rev. H. D. Potter, of West Hickory, a graduate of Allegheny College, and a very able speaker. The lecture was full of humor, eloquence and common sense arguments. He made a statement, that "if the amount paid out yearly for liquor in the United States were given to one man he could build homes for 200,000 families at a cost of $2000 per home; furnish them each with $1000 worth of furniture and then be able to give every man, woman and child a dollar each." The Rev. J. P. Hicks, pastor of the church, made a few timely remarks and introduced the always timely subject of the collection. The amount was liberal and gratifying to the society. The service closed with prayer by Mrs. Kelly.

Thursday morning service was a purely business one, and the prompt and orderly manner in which it was conducted would be creditable to any organization, the principal feature being an excellent paper by Miss Francis Judson—"Mothers, Old and New." A memorial to Mrs. Marion Hunt, written by Miss Nancy Morrow was read by one of the members. Mrs. Lucy Jacobs, an Indian woman, who belonged to Nebraska union, was also among the honored dead of the county W. C. T. U.

With resolutions of thanks to the people of Clarion for their kindness in entertaining the convention so graciously and to the pastor for the use of the beautiful new church, the meeting closed.

Letter to Adam Emert, Tionesta, Pa.

Dear Sir: "It costs as much to put-on poor paint as good"—a common saying and true—it costs much more to put-on poor paint; more gallons.

Poor paint is paint and barytes or paint and sand or paint and lime or paint and chalk or paint and benzine or paint and water; these are the usual cheats; there are others.

It takes more gallons of paint-and-a-cheat than of honest paint; and the cost of the labor of painting is so much a gallon—one gallon costs as much as another, for labor.

This is the way to reckon your costs for this year; but how about next year?

Paint Devotee, and next year costs nothing; year after next the same; the same for several years.

Paint anything else, and your costs recur according to what you paint with. Some of the mixtures wear one year; some two; some three.

It costs twice, three times, four times, five times, as much to paint with a cheat as to paint with Devotee.

Yours truly, F. W. DEVOTE & Co., S. New York.

P. S.—Jar. D. Davis sells our paint.

Report of Tionesta and Newmansville Circuit.

for the year closing Sept. 30, 1903:

Last year we reported 63 members. The conference took one appointment away from this circuit which reduced the number to 58. We lost one by death, two removed without letter, one by request and we have received 12, which makes the present number 67. Salary $400 including house rent paid in full. Repairs on parsonage, $24.75; money raised for missions, $55.88; Conference claims, $56.64. Two Sunday schools, with a membership of 120 in all. The work is on the up-grade. It has been a year of test, but the Lord has given victory. Our two year's stay in Tionesta will always be remembered with pleasure.

R. McGARVEY, Pastor.

Tragic Joking.

Oswald's friends were always on the lookout for some ruse. He once notified them that on New Year's day he should get the best of them all in some joke, and New Year's morning each received this notice, "Remember." They were on their guard.

As they were leaving a house where they had breakfasted Oswald slipped on the steps and fell on his back on the sidewalk. His friends rushed to his assistance, but paused before they reached him.

"This is his ruse," some one said. Clearly the man who was so proud of his talent for mimicry was bent on deceiving them all into thinking him a dying man, for he lay there moaning pitifully, his face drawn and twisted as if with terrible pain.

His friends stood around and made jokes and puns and lugged lines of comic songs, assuring him all the while that they were not deceived by his act. At last he gave a hoarse, mournful cry, looked at them sadly and then ceased to moan or writhe.

In a never to be forgotten moment of horror and sorrow his friends realized that Oswald was dead. — "Souvenirs d'un Vieux Libanais."

Magnificent Colors of the Toucan.

People who have only seen stuffed toucans in a museum can have no proper idea of the astonishing magnificence and beauty of their rainbow coloring in a state of nature, for the most delicate and most iridescent of all their hues are those of the big beak and the soft, naked parts of the face and body.

Here blue and green, crimson, orange and yellow pass quickly into one another by dainty gradations. Unhappily the tints of the soft parts are so very evanescent that they disappear altogether within a few hours after death, and without them to harmonize the general effect of the whole the gaudy coloring of the permanent plumage is apt to strike one in a museum as positively garish in its crude reds and yellows.

A living toucan, on the contrary, though almost barbaric in its magnificence, can never be accused of vulgar, bad taste. It is like St. Mark's at Venice or the Moorish decorations of the Alhambra at Granada, polychromatic to the last degree, yet always beautifully harmonious.—Cornhill Magazine.

A Common Occurrence.

Mr. Hones—Did you read about a woman who married one man thinking he was another?

Mrs. Hones—Don't get excited over that. Lots of women do the same thing every day in the week.
