

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN.

J. E. WENK, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1903.

BRYAN will probably endorse Gorman on the Booker Washington Dinner platform.

THE "peerless leader" of the Democrats is having great difficulty in saving his reputation from the revelations made in the Bennett Will Case.

THE "whirlwind canvass" has whirled Tom Johnson so far out of sight that a political telescope magnifying 10,000 diameters will not be able to bring him to view in 1904.

THE Democratic Senator from Maryland declares, "The race question has been raised and no one can tell where it will lead." He hopes it will lead Gorman to the White House.

THE scandal over the Bennett will case has expelled Mr. Bryan's projected trip to Europe. Yet he can't say that he needs the $50,000. In fact he is fast becoming a millionaire, if not a plutocrat.

STATISTICS tell us that the average Englishman consumes, in one year, two bottles of wine, 175 bottles of beer and six bottles of spirits. The prohibition party and the W. C. T. U. can not be very active in England.

IN Centre county the Democratic candidate for jury commissioner was elected by a majority of one vote. It is not probable, however, that his elect will be contested. The Democratic State ticket carried the county by a majority of two.

OVER in Venango county the Prohibitionists have practically swallowed up the Democratic party. In the fight for district attorney the former had 3,259 votes to the latter's 639. The Republican candidate was elected by a majority of 257.

A GREAT microbe farm has been established by an American outside of London, where a dozen or more chemists are employed in manufacturing the most dreadful diseases known to mankind and experimenting with remedies to cure them.

THROUGH an oversight the Virginia Democrats in Buckingham county elected a negro as overseer of the poor. His name was printed on the ballot by mistake. Senator Gorman will probably cite this as another instance of negro domination.

DOWIE should take lessons from the New York minister who talked $1,400 from his congregation in half an hour. He said to them, "You can't serve God and Mammon at the same time, but you can serve God with Mammon, and here is your chance."

IN a speech in Massachusetts last week Senator Hoar said: "I have no doubt of the patriotic purposes of many of our Democratic brethren. I dare say that some time they may be trusted with power in this republic without repeating the mischief which they did when they last enjoyed it. But the time has not yet come." The senator does not expect to see another Democratic administration until the party is born again, an event not in sight or indicated at the present time.

BROWN, the cotton plunger, it is said, refused to greet Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, when the latter was in New Orleans, Brown's home. The secretary the other day had occasion to criticize Brown for something, and the cotton cornerer "got even" in this way. Of course this is a terrible blow to the Roosevelt administration. Secretary Wilson can not stay in the cabinet or anywhere else in public life unless he recovers in some way the regard of the great speculator.

THE convening of Congress in extra session on Monday caused little stir, as matters and things were pretty well cut and dried for the occasion. Joseph Cannon, of Illinois, was easily elected Speaker, and the affable Alex. Medowell, of the Messer diocese, was readily re-elected Chief Clerk of the house. The session is called for the consideration of the Cuban treaty, but may take up many other matters before adjournment. You never can tell what Congress will do in its day.

IN Clearfield county Judge Cyrus Gordon was defeated for re-election by over 2,200 majority, while the county gave the Republican State ticket a majority of about 600. It was evidently a personal fight in which the great popularity of the Democratic candidate, Allison O. Smith, counted for much. It is a pretty hard proposition to down a Smith who has an "O" for his middle initial, as we have observed by watching the editor of the Punxintown Spirit, Congressman William O. Smith's paper.

Light Vote in Forest County.

AN analysis of the vote cast in Forest county at the election yesterday a week shows that less than 40 per cent. of the vote of last year was polled, when the total was 1,959 as against 806 this year, counting the vote for the heads of the tickets. This condition was due entirely to a lack of anything like a local contest in the county, thus relieving the election of practically all interest to the average voter. The relative strength of the two principal parties was shown to be about the same, the Republicans, if any difference, having turned out the stronger. The prohibition vote which was probably up to its average, was somewhat augmented by votes from both the old parties, who doubtless felt they could afford, in an off year like this, to compliment their friends without doing any perceptible harm to their own party. Judge Irwin, who was unopposed on the ticket for District Attorney, scored the largest number, his vote being 191. Mathews was next with 478, and Dr. Morrow a close third, with 477. Every precinct in the county held an election, although the vote in some of them was quite light, but generally on the right side. The result of the election is a reminder of old times, back in the seventies, when the total vote of the county hovered around the 700 or 800 mark, and when about every voter was out.

Governor's Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Following in the wake of President Roosevelt, Gov. Pennypacker has issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

"In conformity with a custom so long regarded that it has become law of conduct, and in expression of the will of the people, I, Samuel Whitaker Pennypacker, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby set apart Thursday, November 26th, as a day for giving thanks and praise to the Lord for His infinite goodness and mercy.

"The dearth and scarcity which afflicted our forefathers He has turned to plenty. He hath blessed the land so that it is fruitful and brings forth whatsoever is needed for the life of men. He hath saved us from the hands of our enemies and has hitherto preserved us from all perils. He hath permitted no plague, pestilence nor famine to destroy us. In good measure He hath delivered us from hatred, malice and uncharitableness. He hath so directed and prospered the consultations of our rulers that peace and happiness, truth and justice are established among us.

"Let us then meet in our churches and places of worship, and offer up our prayers, for the maintenance of our health and prosperity and the increase of our virtue and piety under His guidance and care, and let us not forget to comfort the sick, to clothe the naked and to feed those who are in hunger and want.

"Given under my hand and the great seal of the State in the city of Harrisburg, this fifth day of November, year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and three, and of the Commonwealth, the one hundred and twenty eighth."

Pennsylvania's Plurality 285,151.

Complete, although not official, vote cast on Tuesday for State treasurer gives Mathews, R., 513,735; Hill, D., 228,603. Mathews' plurality, 285,151.

For auditor general, Snyder, R., 500,411; Dewalt, D., 236,505. Snyder's plurality, 263,906.

The vote for judges of the superior court is relatively the same as that for State treasurer.

The following table gives the complete, but not official vote for State treasurer:

THROUGH the intervention of the War Department the President has just pardoned a military prisoner who committed murder over forty years ago. He was imprisoned for life but escaped and has since led such a respectable life that the War Department did not care to take advantage of the discovery of his identity.

—There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

MILLIONAIRES' POOR STOMACH.

The worn-out stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far more tortures than the millionaires unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower cures the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring regular digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. WILLIAM L. ELKINS DEAD.

Had Become a Multi-Millionaire in Street Railway Business.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—William L. Elkins, the multi-millionaire traction magnate and financier, died at his summer home at Ashbourne Saturday night. He was 71 years old. Mr. Elkins' illness dated from last spring, when a heavy iron girder which was being hoisted to the top of a new office building at Broad and Chestnut age, later going to New York, where he engaged in the produce business. He then took up the oil-producing business in Venango county, this state. In 1875 he formed a partnership with streets, fell to the ground, just grazing him. The shock seriously affected his nervous system. The immediate cause of death was blood poisoning, added to which were kidney trouble, rheumatism and rheumatic gout.

Mr. Elkins was born near Wheeling, W. Va., but came here at an early date. The Standard Oil company which bought his interests five years later. In 1879 Mr. Elkins became identified with the development of the street-railway service with P. A. B. Widener. Mr. Elkins was one of the incorporators of the Union Passenger Railway and Transfer company of New York in 1885 and in 1886 was among the promoters who gave Boston an overhead trolley system. The following year Widener, Elkins and the United Gas Improvement company bought the Chicago Gas Light and Coke company. Later the Widener-Elkins syndicate secured control of the street railway systems of Chicago, Pittsburg, Baltimore and Buffalo. In 1889 Mr. Elkins was elected a director of the Savannah Traction company. In the same year, with Messrs. Widener and William C. Whitney, Mr. Elkins incorporated the Illinois Electric Vehicle company, a New Jersey corporation with a capital of $25,000,000.

Despite his many business interests, Mr. Elkins in 1889 accepted an appointment as a member of the art commission which supervised the decoration of the national building at the Paris exposition. Mr. Elkins was deeply interested in the development of art. He was a member of many clubs and societies.

DROWNED WHILE HUNTING.

John Smith Was Thrown into the River by Boat Overturning and Could Not Swim.

Ford City, Nov. 7.—John (Bud) Smith of Garretts Run was drowned in the Allegheny river opposite the home of J. W. Glenn, the florist, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Smith was duck hunting on the river in a boat and was accompanied by Squire U. S. Hobaugh. Smith had just fired a shot while standing on the back seat of the boat. The concussion of the shot made him take a step to the side of the boat, or else he stepped aside in his excitement, overturning the boat and throwing both men into the water. Neither of the men could swim and before assistance could arrive Smith sank and was drowned.

Hobaugh got hold of the boat and was saved. The body of Smith was found near the place he sank at 11:30 o'clock. He leaves a wife and two small children.

Steel Men Accept Wage Reduction.

Connellsville, Nov. 7.—The new scale for the coming year has been signed by the employees of the American Sheet Steel company, at Scottsdale. It goes into effect the first of the year and carries a reduction of 20 per cent in the wages of the tonnage men, rollers, heaters and shearmen. Laborers will not be affected. The new arrangement was submitted to the men the first of the week and they signed it yesterday. The No. 1 plant went on steady this week and it is anticipated that the Old Meadow mill will go on full next week.

Court House Fight Continues.

Greensburg, Nov. 7.—Controller John H. Brown has refused to make payments to William Miller & Sons of Pittsburg for work done preparatory to the construction of the new court house. It is said here that suit will be brought against the custodian of the county funds. Controller Brown gives as his reason for non-payment the fact that the contract entered into with the Pittsburg contractors was approved by only one of the judges of the common pleas court. The bill presented amounts to $108.

Shot as She Left Home.

Latrobe, Pa., Nov. 3.—Mattie Armstrong of Loyalhanna came to Latrobe Sunday evening and stationing herself a short distance away kept a close watch on the residence of William Schall, a well-known business man, who lives on Thompson street. After a short time Anna Anderson, a domestic employed in the Schall home, came out of the house and started down the street. Miss Armstrong drew a revolver and opened fire upon Miss Anderson. The woman turned and ran screaming toward the house.

Water Company Settled Suit.

Kittanning, Nov. 7.—The equity suit of Kittanning borough against the Armstrong Water company was settled at a meeting of the council Wednesday night, by the defendant company agreeing to pay all costs and to comply with the demand of the borough. The action was instituted to compel the water company to furnish good water to the consumers.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. Arthur Chapman, writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Dr. J. C. Dunn.
