It's a wise worm that stays under cover and deprives the early bird of his breakfast. Get your winter cap of Hopkins and you will be the best suited. Faint heart never won fair lady with out a lot of strenuous assistance on her part.

Our stock of coats, capes and skirts is complete. All new and up to date and the prices are a great deal lower than most places. Heath & Felt. It is easier to judge a woman by what he doesn't say than by what she does. In shoes we always have the best to be had, and sell them at the lowest figure. Hopkins.

A woman has more faith in some patent medicine than she has in her husband. Buy your furs at Hopkins' where they have the finest. It is easier to imagine the world owes you a living than it is to collect it. Still a fine selection of furs to be seen at Hopkins' store, although they have sold a large number already this season. Look them over.

Probably a good way to kill a falsehood is to let it lie. Gold seal rubbers are the best that can be made. We have them in all kinds. Heath & Felt. The secret of popularity is always to remember what to forget. Ask to see the Wooltex when you are at Hopkins' store. It is never too late to learn unless you think you know it all.

The purpose of the Postal Progress League is a most laudable one if the following brief statement covers the points: Its purpose is to procure legislation for a complete parcel postal service within the country, and the promotion of the parcels post treaties with foreign nations.

The express companies already complain that the Government encroaches upon their field, but their own service is not universal and their charges are little short of highway robbery. The League believes that the distinction between third and fourth class mail should be abolished and packages should be carried by the postal service at charges ranging from one cent for three ounces and five cents for one pound to 25 cents for 11 pounds, service being extended to all offices, and free delivery being supplied wherever there is a wagon delivery.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse. Perhaps you have never thought of it, but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effect, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of them. For sale by Dr. J. C. Dunn.

A Man Can Buy a Suit at Any Price-- But, Barring Goods that come through some one's misfortune, one gets no more than is paid for. Far less in many cases. Might as well try to beat the county fair fakir at his little game with three shells as to beat a store. It's the merchant's game and he has all the power.

Think it over. Isn't it true, whether or not you like to believe it? Isn't one store better than another? Haven't some stores a better code of ethics than have others? A safe rule: Choose a safe store or tailor; then pay all you can afford for suit or overcoat.
