NOBODY but the copperheads ever credited that yarn about the complicity of the United States in the Panama revolution.

THE death of Miss Ruth Cleveland, eldest daughter of ex-President and Mrs. there's not one in the lot that will cure a Cleveland, occurred at the family home in Princeton, N. J., on the 7th inst. She had suffered for several days with an attack of quinsy, which turned suddenly to a virulent case of diphtheria. The young lady, a bright, winsome girl, was aged 15 years, and her sudden death has been a great shock to her distinguished parents,

On the same day that the President's convincing message on the Panama treaty appeared ex-Senator David B, Hill made a speech in which he said citizens "see just patented a Thinkometer. THE Fifty-Eighth Congress resumed its session on January 4th, at noon. Not more than half the members were present and the movement was sluggish. The House will wait for the appropriation bills to be reported from committees and Republican leaders discourage other legislation. Smoot's case will have to be decided in the Senate, and the Panama canal treaty will be given a tiresome discussion. Senator Lodge's speech eulogizing the President's action as necessary and even conservative, was followed by Senator Morgan who is always prepared to speak in behalf of the Nicaragua route. It is probable that not much will be talked about but the Panama canal in either House for some weeks.
