THE Panama Canal Commissioners will not sail for the isthmus this month as announced, but will wait till title is obtained. It is then proposed to keep at least one on the ground all the time, Senator Cullom says "there will soon be a vacancy on the board." The climate is too deadly for a long spell of good health.

THE three Kentucky juries which convicted Caleb Powers as an accessory to the murder of Goebel and sentenced him to death were wholly composed of Democrats except the last one on which there was one Republican whose wife was informed that he would be assassinated at once if he did not agree to a verdict of guilty. THERE is a serious bitch in the canal negotiations if Senator T. C. Platt's comment on the dilemma covers the ground. About Associate Judges.

Some years ago the late Dr. Towler wrote an able article on Justices of the Peace, which was replete with instruction and interest both in a legal and historical point of view. Afterward thinking of associate judges, I noted for several years whatever I could find about their duties and powers, as I knew they were considered by many well informed people, as of little value to the public, but have found this to be a grand mistake-finding that they are of more use to the people in vacation, when there is no court than they are during the sittings of the court. Out of the 57 judicial districts in the state only seven have associate judges any more, Forest county being in the 37th district.

Their duties when there is no court in session, are many, and their powers multifarious, as will be seen by the following brief synopsis, under rules of court as fol-

Rule,6 empowers them on cause shown, in vacation, to enlarge the time for filing affidavits of defense in all acion of assumpsit and Scire Facias on mortgages and judgments. Rule 9, to approve bail on attachment cases, and stay of execution on notice and application. By rule 14, Sec. 2 and 3, to grant an allocatur or allowance, requiring bail in any case, and by Sec. 8, to approve of bail which has been substituted or ustified and administer oaths. By rule 17, to stay proceedings by special order, on cause shown, on the appeal from the taxation of costs, and to shorten or extend the time for the taking of evidence or depositions. In divorce cases to grant leave to attorneys to issue subpoenas and papers.

But the most important of all is under rule 22, on stay of executions, to prevent rule 22, on stay of executions, to prevent Cheney & Co., doing business in the oppression or correct mistakes or frauds, on City of Toledo, County and State aforeapplication to suspend any writ in the sai and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for hands of the Sheriff on reasonable notice until the next Court when the case can be heard by a full bench. Under rule 23, associate judges have power on cause shown to both enlarge the time for pleading or filing specifications. Under the Habeas Corpus act, have full power at chambers to grant relief, remand to jail, reduce excessive bail or discharge from imprisonment. Also under act of Assembly to set or fix ball in criminal cases where justices have no jurisdiction. By act of 1887, P. laws 198, to approve bonds under the fraudulent debtors act and grant relief. Again where the body of a citizen is seized by a tax collector, by virtue of his warrant, for the non payment of tax, and claims irregularity or oppression, he may apply for relief to an asssociate judge in vacation, by staying the collection of the tax upon his giving bond until the matter can be determined by the

It is also worthy of mention that an associate judge is a "free horse" in the acknowledgement of deeds, mortages, leases

Under the new replevin act of 1903, P. L. 40 and 41, the duties of an associate are quite important. It provides the Court or judge thereof, at chambers in vacation may allow and grant a longer time than 72 hours | the 28th Congressional District, and a resin which to file and perfect a counter bond olution by the Republican Committee of by the defendant, and 2nd, the judge may on motion increase the plaintiff's bond, and alter the amount of bail if he considers of Forest County meet on it insufficient etc.

These are only some of the numerous powers of an associate judge in vacation. His duties on the bench are of minor importance as compared with those in vacation, such as advising the President Judge of petitions for roads, election places, liquor licenses, appointment of township officers merely advisory.

While the associate judge is not generally learned in the law, in questions of doubt in vacation he can always consult at Amicus Curia, or friend of the Court, who is some lawyer not interested in the case, who freely and cheerfully advises him and does not dare to give him false counsel. The above is not written at random, but is the result of careful research, as stated, so that the people generally might under-stand their servants, the associate judges, and what value they are to them.
