Oil market closed at $1.71. New hats, new hats at Feit's. Oil and gas leases at this office.

Hopkins sells the Douglas shoes if you like to buy dress and waist patterns just arrived at the Joyce millinery.

April 2nd and 3rd are to be observed as Arbor days throughout the State.

Uniontown has secured the Pennsylvania State Prohibition Convention, The date selected is June 8.

Do you want to prepare for teaching? Attend the Clarion State Normal School. Spring term opens April 5.

A dollar saved is a dollar made. You can save many a dollar by purchasing clothing at the New York Clothing Co. sale at Kelleysville, Pa.

Eighth, ninth and tenth grades as well as high school pupils are invited to attend Edinboro Normal. Next term begins March 28th. John F. Bigler, Prin.

Republicans should not neglect the primaries next Saturday afternoon, but should turn out to a man and cast their ballots for candidates of their choice.

New goods are arriving daily at the Joyce Millinery and preparations are being made for a grand Easter opening, the date of which will be announced later. It

Over in Indiana county they elected a woman a poor overseer at the February election. She was nominated by the Republicans, endorsed by the Democrats, and the Prohibitionists didn't dare oppose her.

Following is the list of letters lying unclaimed for in the Postoffice at Tionesta, Pa., for the week ending March 16, 1904: Miss Martha Byers, E. A. Wheeler & Co. card, A. E. Bardsley 2 cards.

D. S. Knox, P.M. The price of oil seems to be somewhat on the slump, though for why does not seem to be plain. A drop of three cents on Saturday leaves the price at $1.71, and operators fear a still lower price as the spring approaches.

Our readers should not neglect to keep run the new advertisements, and all weekly changes in advertisements. The advertisements in a country paper are often just as important as the reading matter, and sometimes even more so.

At the regular meeting of the borough school board Monday evening the tie which occurred at the February election between A. C. Brown and W. J. Campbell was decided by drawing lots, as the law directs, the choice falling to Mr. Brown.

Ready to wear clothing costs much less than made to order, and we can fit you just as well. We will take your measure. Our ready to wear stock of clothing is much larger this season than for several years. All splinter new and up to date. Come and see. Hopkins' store. It

The only contest at the Republican primaries in Indiana county this year is for president judge. The candidates announced are Samuel Cunningham, S. J. Telford, and Harry White. Judge White has been on the bench nearly twenty years, and is almost seventy years of age.

Although it is not generally known, the last legislature passed a bill increasing the amount counties must allow for the burial of soldiers, from $35 to $50. This must be given in all cases for the burial of honorably discharged soldiers who do not leave enough property to bury them.

A course in cooking lessons will be given in Tionesta by Prof. Ed. Dettels and wife, beginning April 1st and continuing five days. Those who have not already subscribed to be pupils are cordially invited to send their names to Mrs. Sule M. Sharpe. The price of lessons is $1.00 for the course.

It is reported that the Standard Oil Co. is going to build the largest oil refinery in the world at Kansas City and pipe oil from the Kansas field, nearly 200 miles distant. The refinery will be located on the Missouri river, ten miles south of the business centre of Kansas City, where 120 acres of land has already been purchased. The plant will employ 1,700 men.

The total production of petroleum in the United States, since Col. Drake struck the first well near Titusville in 1859, and up to the end of 1902, has been carefully computed at 1,163,280,727 bbls. That means that if two and one-half feet were allowed for the height of a barrel, and if the barrels of oil were laid so that their heads touched they would encircle the earth two and one-quarter times. Of the total amount, Pennsylvania and New York produced 33.9 per cent; Ohio 24.3 per cent; West Virginia 11.3 per cent; Indiana 3.9 per cent; leaving 9 per cent to be supplied by the States of Kansas, Colorado, Louisiana, Illinois, Missouri, Indian Territory, Wyoming, Michigan and Oklahoma.—Spectator.

The inmates and all others in the Memorial Home suffered greatly on account of the gas being cut off by the falling of the Pickering street bridge. The building is heated and lighted by gas, and when the supply failed it was very chilly and dark. They had to resort to all manner of expedients to keep warm. The case was made worse by reason of the fact that there were so many old people in home.—Brookville Democrat.

At Warren, Friday, Claude Baker, convicted of highway robbery in holding up and robbing Richard Collins, on February 17, was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs of prosecution, and to be imprisoned in the Western penitentiary for a term of eight years. Sheriff Brown and deputy came down from Warren Monday evening and yesterday started with Baker and Snyder for the penitentiary. The latter goes for six years.

The editor of the Oil City Blizzard is annoyed with the following apprehension: Sophie Smith has 21 boys and 21 girls in his domestic five-ringed circus. Were the boys to emulate the example of their illustrious sire, and each take five wives, and were the same polygamous proportions maintained in other families, there would not be girls enough to go around, and something like what is known in the oil country as "crowding of lines" might follow.

It is said that the body of John Feiburg, who was drowned in Tionesta creek at Sheffield on the evening of September 18 last, was found last Wednesday a mile below the point where he met his death. He walked into the stream from the bridge, which was very high. Lee Mumford, who was fishing in the creek, brought the body to the surface. It was very much decomposed. The unfortunate man leaves a mother, his father having died since the fatality.

"John," said James, "Where are you going?" "I am going to Kelleysville. A clothing sale is going on there, and it is said that a fellow can buy real cheap there." "You mean the New York Clothing sale. You bet they sell cheap. I am just coming from there and here is what I have bought: An overcoat, a suit of clothes, two shirts, a hat, four pair of hose, and I honestly believe that for the price I have paid for all I could not have bought the overcoat in any other store. Let me tell you they are a godsend to our community." It

A private letter from John W. Solly states that his father, James Solly, Esq., died at his home in Parkersburg, W. Va., on February 13th, last. This will be sad news to many old friends of Squire Solly still residing in Forest county, where he had made his home for many years, and where he was held in high esteem by those who knew him. He was aged 85 years, and kept his health remarkably well up to within a few hours of his death, which came from mere exhaustion, or a silencing of the heart beats. Mr. Solly was a justice of the peace in Tionesta nearly 50 years ago.

That this has been a strenuous winter no man will dispute who has been at all mixed up with it, but there have been others. In running over the files of the REPUBLICAN, in a search for something that might compare with it in a measure at least, we find that on the 17th of March, 1883, St. Patrick's day, (which, by-the-way, occurs to-morrow) the thermometer registered 12 degrees below zero, and three days later, March 20th, first day of spring, the mercury dropped to 22 below. That year the river was frozen over solidly for nearly its entire length, and the ice did not pass out at this point until the 7th day of April. So it will be observed that the winter of 1903-4 is not the only winter.

The Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company, whose main offices are kept at Williamsport, Pa., is "no small potatoes" in the lumber business, says the Ridgway Advocate. "This company now owns all the vast tracts of timber and bark lands formerly belonging to the Penn. Elk and Union Tanning Companies. They have in the neighborhood of two hundred square miles of timber lands, located in twenty counties of Pennsylvania. Their possessions extend from Pike county on the east to Warren and forest counties on the west. They have nine saw mills, several of them each large enough to turn out 150,000 feet of lumber each day." Roy G. Brownell, a former well-known Tionesta boy, is secretary of this extensive corporation.

A Sunday or so ago, while conducting religious services at the county jail, one of the speakers in the course of his remarks, mentioned the fact that he observed a couple of strange faces among the inmates. Frank, honest appearing countenances, that he had not seen on his former visits to the bastille. He didn't know what they "were in for," but hoped, and judged from their appearance, it could not be for a serious offense, but in any case he trusted they would receive mercy and pardon from the Great Judge of all flesh, and that they would lead better lives in the future. It developed later that Sheriff Brown and Commissioner Hegberg, of Warren county, having official business with Sheriff Noblit, had come down on the Saturday evening train, and were taking a view of the inside of the jail on Sunday afternoon, when the good people arrived to conduct the customary worship there.

To Stop The Evil of Intemperance. Becoming thoroughly alarmed at the hold strong drink has taken upon young men, and even boys, of this vicinity, the members of the Sons of Temperance of Tionesta desire to do everything within their power to withstand the work of that great demon that has power to cast both body and soul into hell, and have therefore resolved:

First, That a call be made upon all Christian people to unite in earnest prayer to Almighty God to awaken the minds and consciences of all who have anything to do with the legal or illegal sale of intoxicating liquors, either by application, petition, or the granting of license for such a traffic.

Second, That an offer of $25 be given for any evidence that will convict any person or persons selling to, buying for, or giving liquors to minors or men of intemperate habits.

Third, That an offer of $25 be given for evidence that will convict any person or persons selling or using illegally, intoxicating liquors for the purpose of securing votes at any primary or regular election.

By order of COMMITTEE. For that Graduating Dress call at Hopkins' store, 25, 35 up to 50 cents a yard.

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

J. G. Carson was down from West Hickory on business yesterday.

Miss May Clark was up from Oil City for a few hours on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Irwin were guests of friends in Franklin over last Sabbath.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Whitton, of East Hickory, were Tionesta visitors on Monday.

W. A. Connelly, of Hickory township, had business in Tionesta on Monday.

Miss Gertrude Stevens, of Eagle Rock, is a guest at the home of J. W. McCrea.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frampton were guests of friends in Oil City over last Sabbath.

Gas Childs returned Friday from a month's visit with friends in Townville, Crawford county.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ledebur, of Starr, spent last Sabbath at the home of their son, Amos F.

J. A. Brough and Clarence Gorman, of East Hickory, were in the county seat on business Saturday.

Miss Nannie Morrow attend the funeral of her late friend, Mrs. Harry Fulton, at Lynch, last Saturday.

N. A. Calkins went to Warren Saturday to attend a military funeral with his company of the national guard.

Mrs. J. C. Bowman, Mrs. R. M. Herman and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Proper, were visitors to Oil City yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stiles and children, of Endeavor, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Abbott over last Sunday.

Miss Eulretta Proper is in Pittsburg this week purchasing new goods for the Easter millinery opening of F. Waltz & Co.

Mrs. G. W. Noblit was a guest of friends in Barnes and Saybrook, Warren county, during the past week, returning home Monday.

W. S. Widrig of West Hickory was down yesterday and took out letters of administration on the estate of his wife lately deceased.

J. B. Walters, of Newmansville, has moved with his family into a house near Gaston's mill, on which he will be employed the coming summer.

Miss Fay Klump, who has spent the past eight months with her aunt, Mrs. Will Hunter, of the West Side, returned to her home in Bradford county, last Thursday.

C. F. Felt has resigned his position as clerk in Dr. Dunn's drug store, and is succeeded by Paul Clark, one of our popular young men who has had considerable experience in the drug business.

Edward Scowden, of Geneva, Crawford county, was the guest of his brother, J. C., over last Sabbath. Mr. Scowden has just completed his rounds as mercantile appraiser of his county, which has been no small job, consuming about two months in its completion.

Our old friend Calvin Cleland, of Fleming Hill, Harmony township, dropped in to see us last Wednesday afternoon, and to renew his subscription to the REPUBLICAN. Mr. Cleland has been suffering some with impaired health during the past year, but we are pleased to note that he is improving of late.

Ray Parschal, of Tidoute, was in Tionesta last Saturday calling on the merchants, he having taken the place of his father, the late H. M. Parschal, as traveling salesman for a Philadelphia wholesale grocery house. We wish the young man success and hope he may attain the popularity enjoyed by his father.

Mayburg.

Chas. B. Richards went to Warren Monday.

Water was very high Monday and Tuesday, tearing out some of the S. & T. railroad bridges, but the boys made a quick job of the repairs and got to running on time again. The road bed is tip-top. I rode out some months ago, and then took two other roads to Tylersburg, and during that trip it forced itself upon me that the S. & T. had as good, if not a better and smoother road than any. And then the boys, both crews, are polite and accommodating, and there is some talk of new passenger coaches. If that's so it will be first class clean through.

Wm. Richards, M. N. Williams and the preacher are all on the sick list this week. All better now.

W. H. Harrison, candidate for treasurer was in town Tuesday, and Mr. Brown on Thursday.

Mr. Thompson of Buck mills is filling on the mill in Mr. Williams' place.

A. M. Hunter and wife were called away to the funeral of a sister last Saturday.

Mrs. J. G. Richards is on the sick list. The gas engine at the planing mill is going again.

"Drummers" are plenty. I don't mean those beautiful birds that will shortly sit on a log in our beautiful woods and drum for a mate, but that class of migratory birds that are constantly drumming up trade, and incidentally reaching out for your funds.

Mrs. J. C. Welch and Thomas Wolf were business visitors at the burg on Wednesday, on their way to sick friends at Whig Hill.

Shepardson and Lewis Nichols were in town this week.

Thomas Gifford has been laid up for a few days on account of a fall from a log train on Bobs Creek.

Mrs. Meabon of Tidoute is visiting her son, Foster, this week.

David Winans is up from Kelleysville, joining staves for a new tank at No. 35. Mone Anon.

New goods in every department this week at Hopkins' store.

RECENT DEATHS.

GEORGIA.

Albert W. Georgia died at his home on North Barry street Sunday afternoon, Feb. 28, 1904, at 1 o'clock, aged 72 years. For two years he had been in poor health from a bronchial trouble. His condition did not cause alarm until a day or two before his death, when his heart action became weak. Deceased was engaged in the lumbering business, having mills at Endeavor, Pa. He had been a resident of Olean for the past 20 years and was well known. Mr. Georgia is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. J. P. Aylesworth, of Endeavor, Pa., and Miss Alice Georgia, who lives at home, and one son, E. W. Georgia, of Chicago. Deceased was identified with all the local Masonic lodges, the Odd Fellows and the National Protective Legion. St. John's Commandery, of which he was a member, will have charge of the services, which will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the First Methodist Episcopal church. A brief prayer service will be held at the house before the services at the church. Rev. F. S. Howland will officiate.—Olean Times.

Mr. Georgia was very highly esteemed by all who knew him at Endeavor and vicinity, his popularity being especially marked among the employees, who sent a great profusion of beautiful cut flowers as a token of the high regard in which they held their friend. For this remembrance the surviving members of the family feel deeply grateful, and desire to here express their heartfelt thanks.

THOMAS.

Mrs. L. M. Thomas died at the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. A. R. Sjaugenhaup, Clarion, Pa., Feb. 22, 1904.

Mrs. Thomas, who was before her marriage, Lucretia Mays, was born at Clarion, June 11, 1857, and spent her early days there, but most of her life was spent in Kane, where she resided until March last, when she came to Clarion to help attend her sister, Mrs. A. R. Sjaugenhaup, whose death occurred Aug. 12, 1903. After her sister's death Mrs. Thomas remained at her brother-in-law's to make a home for him and his children, and while performing a good deed she was stricken down with the fatal illness that caused her death. Her condition was not considered serious until a week before her death, and therefore her death came as a great shock to all her friends.

The deceased was a daughter of the late E. C. Mays and Mrs. Clara Mays, and is survived by her mother, one sister, Mrs. S. A. Aber, of Snerridan, Pa., and two brothers, M. W. Mays, of Butler, Pa., and Wm. Mays, of Clarion, besides numerous friends and relatives, who mourn the loss of their friend.

The funeral took place at Clarion, Thursday, Feb. 25, from the home of her mother.

WAGNER.

Mrs. Wagner, widow of the late Jacob Wagner, died at her home in Tionesta township, on Sunday, March 13, 1904.

She had not been in good health for a long time past, and, together with her advanced years, made her recovery a matter of extreme doubt from the first. Mrs. Wagner came to this country from Germany along in the early fifties, and has resided on the farm which her late husband cleared, for nearly half a century. She was aged about 77 years, and is survived by five sons, Lewis, Adam, August, Henry and Jacob, and one daughter, Mrs. Stroble, of Lickinville. Mrs. Wagner was a life-long member of the Lutheran church. The funeral was held yesterday, her remains being buried in the cemetery at Lineville, by the side of her husband.

FULTON.

Clarissa Mason Fox, daughter of Chas. Franklin and N. Catharine Hills Fox, was born at the old Fox homestead, Foxburg, Forest county, March 13, 1876, and died at her late residence, at the same place, March 10, 1904. In 1893, she became the wife of Harry Fulton who, with two children—Narcissie and Franklin—survives her. Besides her parents, husband and children, Mrs. Fulton leaves three sisters and two brothers: Maude Livingstone, wife of Hon. J. E. Frost, of Ellensburg, Washington; Lena, wife of Bruce Crain, and Mertie, wife of Leonard Crain, both of Foxburg; Charles James Fox, of Henry's Mills and Edward Stabler Fox, at home. In her various relations of life, as daughter, sister, wife and mother, Mrs. Fulton was loyal, loving, devoted, true. The fine qualities of heart and mind which she inherited through a long line of honored ancestry, were well cultivated, and all who knew her learned to love the charming young woman whose tenderest sympathies were always extended, in a practical way, to those who were in need. She took an active part in everything which tended to the uplifting of humanity, and was especially helpful in the work of the Sabbath school. Her devotion and reverence for sacred things were enriched as the truth was presented, and her little children bear living testimonies to her faithful instructions as a mother. Her life work was short, and before her friends were aware, God's finger touched her and her barque reached the "unknown and silent shore." A few brief illness with pneumonia, and on the morning of the day set for her and her husband's departure for a western home, she went to be with God. Such is the uncertainty of life, even with the young and hopeful. Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, by Rev. Mr. Ellis, of the Methodist Episcopal church, of Sheffield, and the body was laid to rest in the family burial ground on a beautiful knoll overlooking the Tionesta creek. The beautiful floral offerings, the closing of all places of business and the large number of friends who attended the funeral from the surrounding country bore witness of the highest esteem in which Mrs. Fulton and the members of the family were held. Among those of her kindred from a distance, who were present, were Ernestus N. Lee, of Little Valley, N. Y.; Mrs. Adelle Hills, of Jamestown, N. Y.; Mrs. Henry Sowle and Mrs. Gay McKee, of Sheffield.

William Young Siggins was born in Tionesta, Pa., Dec. 15, 1831, and died at Marshallsburg Home, Pittsburg, Pa., Mar. 15, 1904. Four months ago Mr. Siggins was stricken with paralysis while living at Harmony, Butler county, where he had made his home with his son for several years past. He was immediately taken to a Pittsburg hospital, but was never again able to leave his bed.

The deceased spent the most of his life near the scenes of his birthplace, having owned and cultivated a farm at Stewart Run for many years. He was united in marriage with Miss Hannah Allender, who, with two children, Jacob Siggins, of New Bethlehem, and Mrs. J. C. Scowden, of Tionesta, survives him. He is also survived by three brothers, Patrick and John, of Bradford, and Isaac W., of Ohio, and one sister, Mrs. Peter Grace, also residing in Ohio.

Mr. Siggins was a devout member of the M. E. Church during the most of his long life, a genial, good-hearted man, whom everybody esteemed and respected very highly, and his death will be very generally regretted by a large circle of friends in this community. The remains will be brought to Tionesta, and the funeral will be held to-morrow, Thursday, at 1:30 o'clock, interment in Riverside cemetery.

Letter to T. F. Ritchey.

Tionesta, Pa.

Dear Sir: As your business is to get people into and out of trouble, suppose you consider their paint; it makes 'em almost as much trouble as money, except of course matrimony.

They buy poor paint a good deal; they don't mean to; they don't know any better; they buy without thinking. Bad paint isn't good. It looks good enough for a year; then begins to get rusty; but changes so slowly, one doesn't notice it.

Looking isn't all. The business of paint is to keep a house dry inside, the wood and iron of it; keep it from rotting and rusting. Takes good paint to do it.

Good and bad paint are sold at one price or about that. One can't get by the price at all; as with lawyers, the price has nothing to do with goodness or badness; and costs are worse yet; the painter and sheriff come in for their share.

But the probability is that a man, who paints Devoe, will come out on top.

Yours truly, F. W. Devoe & Co., New York.

P. S.—Jar. D. Davis sells our paint.

Pensions for Spanish War Soldiers.

The following special sent out from New Castle is going the rounds of the papers:

District Attorney Joseph V. Cunningham, who was a captain in the 16th Regiment in the Spanish-American war and later captain of the 43d United States volunteer in the Philippines, has just won a victory which will result in the distribution of more than $2,000,000 among the 42,000 United States volunteer troops. An Act of Congress in 1901 gave two months' extra pay to all troops serving in foreign lands in compensation for the loss of furloughs on pay. Adverse decision by the Comptroller of the Treasury prevented payment on the ground that the Act applied only to the Spanish-American war soldiers. Captain Cunningham has fought this through the courts until he has gained a favorable decision. It will affect several thousand soldiers in this State.

Stewart Bun.

Miss Blanche Mays, of Tionesta, visited at the home of Chas. Emick Sunday.

Orion Carson was up from Hunter's station over Sunday.

Mrs. Henry O'Hara, of Tionesta, spent Sunday with Mrs. John O'Hara.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dawson, of Franklin, are visiting the former's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cummings are here from Erie county, helping to care for his mother, who has been quite ill.

Fred. Dryer was considerably hurt by being thrown off a load of ties.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Winegard were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Carson.

We are all glad to hear that Mrs. Jas. Elliot is again able to be out after her serious illness.

Eyes Examined Free.

Prof. C. Block, the eye specialist and optician, will be at the Central House, Tionesta, Pa., March 17, 18 and 19, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Open evenings, too. Remember the dates.

C. Block, The Optician.

Notice to Delinquent Taxpayers of Hickory Township.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says. "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Dr. J. C. Dunn.

Personally Conducted Excursion via the Nickel Plate Road.

The very latest equipment is used for Nickel Plate excursions, coaches with high back seats and modern sleeping cars. If you are going to travel you can not afford to miss this opportunity to make a trip cheap and comfortable. Write A. C. Showalter, D. P. A., 307 State St., Erie, Pa., for particulars. 17to13.

A Favorite Remedy for Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. For sale by Dr. J. C. Dunn.
