Republican Ticket. STATE. Supreme Court Justice - JOHN P. ELKIN, of Indiana County.

THE Togo bottling works at Port Arthur have at last discovered that the cork is too small.

If Mr. Bryan will hush up for a minute or two he may be able to hear the gentle voice of Mr. Parker.

A DRY-GOODS merchant inquires if there is any way to keep moths out of his stock. Why doesn't he try advertising?

COL. BRYAN, the "peerless leader," sacrificed to some extent that position when he plunged into the vile muck of Goeblism.

THE distribution of government seeds from the Agricultural Department at Washington, ceases after April 8th.

Hobson and Bankhead are having great fun with each other down in Alabama. The latter derides the former's proposal for a $2,000,000 navy and points out that such an appropriation would cost Alabama alone nearly $70,000,000.

SENATOR GORMAN having secured the disfranchisement of negroes in violation of the Constitution by the Democratic machine of Maryland, seems to have been virtually withdrawn from the Presidential race.

MANY petitions are being received in Congress for the establishment of a parcels-post. The coming of such a valuable adjunct to the mail service is only a question of a short time.

IN reading the war news it may assist you in understanding it if you will bear in mind that in many cases the Japanese geographical names are compounds of which the termination is a descriptive word.

THE selection of O. D. Bleakley, of Franklin, as one of the Delegates-at-Large to the Republican National Convention, was a well merited compliment to a man who, for valuable services rendered, deserves well at the hands of his party.

ELKIN is the Nominee. As was outlined in these columns last Wednesday morning, former Attorney General John P. Elkin, of Indiana county, was on that day nominated unanimously for Supreme Court Justice by the Republican State convention.

THE Dauphin County Judges, Bell and Von Moschizker, have decided that the Judge's salary act is constitutional. Of course they would decide that way.

THE salary of the Supreme Court Justice is $10,000 a year, and the term is for 21 years. Mr. Elkin is 41 years of age and he is thus taken out of the race two years hence for Governor, on which he seemed to have a veritable claim.

Governor Samuel W. Pennypacker, James Elverson, of Philadelphia; O. D. Bleakley, of Franklin, and Francis L. Robbins, of Pittsburgh, were elected delegates-at-large to the National convention and instructed to vote for the nomination of President Roosevelt.

THE convention throughout was entirely harmonious, lasting just one hour. Senator Penrose was re-elected Chairman of the State Committee.

Mr. Sibley's Personal Popularity.

Personal popularity plays an important part in legislation in the halls of Congress, and probably few constituents who are asking favors of their representatives, realize to what extent they are dependent upon the personality of their representative for success.

It is then that measure after measure is objected to, and pleas for just a few minutes to pass a bill, are refused, and representatives become irritable and anxious to hit a head on sight.

It was a simple bill, carrying no expenditure of money, and was merely an act of justice. It had been before other Congresses, only to be left at the end for lack of time.

There was no objection on the Republican side, and Democratic leaders like Williams, Livingston and others called to their colleague not to object; those near by whispering to him to sit down, and one called out: "It is Joe Sibley's bill; you don't want to object."

There are indeed few members in the House who could have accomplished this. But Mr. Sibley has a warm feeling for all members, and they have for him; and with a winning smile on his face, and good horse sense in general, he is able, not alone to make hay while the sun shines, but get in an occasional load between showers.

J. C. MILLEN, Republican candidate for Presidential Elector from the 25th Congressional district.

Joseph Chalmers Millen, of Ridgway, Elk county, was the choice of the conference which recently met at Warren for this important and honorable place on the Republican ticket in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Millen was born in Oliver township, Jefferson county, Pa., December 23, 1858. From an obscure teacher he rapidly rose to a position of influence and prominence in his community, and is to-day a member of the extensive mercantile firm of Osterhout & Campbell; also general manager of the Ridgway Brick Co., an institution doing an immense business in that city.

Mr. Millen is a man of liberal education, having finished the course at Bellevue Academy. His popularity is universal in the community in which he resides, and he has been honored with many borough offices, all of which he filled with credit.

Mayburg.

Protracted meeting continued. Rev. J. Zahniser, accompanied by his wife and son, came last Wednesday to assist his brother.

Carl Christanson went to work on the Cook Oil Lease Monday.

F. K. Brown, was a business visitor to Warren Wednesday.

Ernest Cropp and Ed. Ransom quit the mill for other employment.

Wm. Desher and Jerome Long finished up a barn for McManigle & Brown. Its a fine building.

J. G. Richards and wife and Orlo Stroup were called away Saturday to North Clarendon to attend the funeral of F. M. Eastwood, who was suddenly stricken with death on Thursday.

T. D. Collins was a business visitor at the offices of the Cook Oil lease and the Watson Lumber Co. on Saturday.

Mr. Collins owns a good chunk of both institutions.

Boyd Winans finished a nice little cottage for the Cook Oil Lease Saturday. He will continue to enlarge and reconstruct Wm. A. Hartman's house, on the Ball town road.

Jos. Miller, of Kellettsville, is plastering two cottages for the Cook Oil Lease. During a trip the other day up Tionesta creek to Sheffield on the S. & T. R. R., I observed that the ice pushed ashore by the winter break-up had pretty much disappeared, but it left its mark upon the trees and most everything else.

At some places the banks undermined, falling great beech and sycamore trees that had stood for perhaps 200 years. Drift wood was piled in every direction, and damage to farm lands, oil property, saw mills, dams and especially rail road property was noticeable. There is hardly anybody who can realize the strain on mind and cash, to keep trains a-going on time during such a winter as we have just passed through.

The S. & T. trains have been on time most of the winter. The extensive damage has been rapidly repaired. No expense has been spared to keep things running on time, and it pays in traffic. The day I went up the cars were full, and on the return trip the same. The boys were in a good mood and seemed to enjoy hauling a trainful of passenger cars much better than they do empty cars.

I saw Lawson with crews of men leveling up the track, repairing bridges and putting things in good shape for safety. During these times of muddy roads it's a big thing to be able to ride on a smooth road bed.
