Death of Mrs. J. A. Proper.

To few people have come such manifold blessings from the hand of God, as have been given to the family of our venerable fellow citizen, the Hon. John A. Proper.

It has been their lot to enjoy an unbroken family circle for more than half a century.

In the evening of life the aged parents have enjoyed the privilege of having children, grand-children, and great-grand-children gather 'round their hearthstone in the large commodious home, and the children have lived to see the halo of peace and prosperity crown the honored leisure of their parents.

But, during the past week, the uninvited guest of death has entered this favored home and has robbed it of its best and richest treasure—the mother.

Although her deathless soul, freed from its earthly body, racked, tortured and paralyzed by disease and pain, triumphantly passed through the mystic veil, far beyond the touch of disease, suffering and death, yet there is weeping for the heart is lonely and yearns.

"For the touch of a vanished hand, And the sound of a voice that is still." The mother "has gone from sight, but not from hearts and memory; she lives on, embalmed with love and garlanded with affection."

Sarah A. Grove was a daughter of Jacob and Mary (Bolt) Grove, and was born near Diamond, Venango county, December 16, 1823.

She was a granddaughter of Peter Grove, the famous Indian fighter with Samuel Brady, who was one of the pioneers of Centre county, and whose service for his country was of untold value.

On Sept. 22, 1846, she was united in marriage to John A. Proper, of Venango county. Shortly after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Proper came to what is now Forest county, where Mr. Proper was engaged in the manufacture of lumber.

In 1867 they removed to Tionesta where they have since resided.

To them were born seven children, who grew to manhood and womanhood and whose sad privilege it was, with their father and as many of their children and grand-children as were near, to see their mother quietly, peacefully and unconsciously breathe the last breath of her life on earth.

The children are: Mrs. Rosilla Walters, Mrs. Jennetta Varner, Oliver W., Mrs. Alice Lanson, J. Floyd, EuRetta, and Forest C.

Mrs. Proper was one of nine brothers and sisters, four of whom survive her: Mrs. Eliza Paup, of Tionesta; Mrs. Mary A. Beers, Granison Grove and P. H. Grove, of Venango county.

It was also the privilege of these devoted kindred to be with their beloved sister during her last illness.

In the death of Mrs. Proper the community has lost one of its best and most valued members. Unselfishness, that rarest of gifts, was one of the most attractive traits in her beautiful character.

Her ever ready and sweet thoughtfulness for others, with never a thought for self, caused many a home to be benefited with the comforts which they lacked.

It also shed its genial light in the home, and caused her to brighten and gladden the hearts of all who shared her unstinted hospitality.

Loyal and loving to all, patient and brave in suffering, her life reflected the image of her Savior, to whom she gave her heart, in the Methodist Episcopal church at Tionesta, some twenty years ago.

Her simple faith and childlike trust in her heavenly Father, stood as an anchor as she neared eternity's shore.

Her work was done, but the lasting perfume of a sweet life was poured into the hearts of those who remain, and "no live in hearts we leave behind is not to die."

At 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, her pastor, Rev. O. H. Nickle, assisted by Rev. R. W. Hillingworth, conducted impressive funeral services at her late home, after which, amid a profusion of fragrant flowers and mingling of tears, the body, followed by a large concourse of relatives and friends, was laid to rest in beautiful Riverside Cemetery, there to await the resurrection of the just, who die in the Lord.

Burglars at Kelletville. Some time Monday night, probably after midnight, the town of Kelletville was visited by burglars.

The general store of Day & Watson was broken into, the thieves entering by the front door which they pried open with a chisel taken from Wesley Whitehill's wagon shop, and the till, which contained about $8.00 in silver, was rifled.

The tannery office, on the opposite side of the creek, was also visited, the entrance being gained in about the same manner.

The safe was not locked, and the thieves broke open some of the safety boxes, but found nothing apparently that they wanted, as none of the private papers were taken.

A sledge hammer was taken from the blacksmith shop of Nick Arnold. The thieves left no clue by which they could be detected.

Two strange men were seen shortly after midnight by the watchman at the kindling wood factory.

Dear Sir, It took 10 gallons to paint your house last time with somebody else's paint, and takes 8 with Devco, we save you $8 or $10; for painting costs two or three times as much as paint.

Mr. Ezra Rathmell, Williamsport, Pa., always used 11 gallons of mixed paint for his house; Devco took 6.

But that isn't all; that's only first cost; how long will it wear?

The paint, that goes farthest in covering, wears best, too.

All paint, true paint, and full-measure, are on one side; part paint, false paint, and short measure are on the other. What can you expect?

Yours truly, F. W. DEVCO & CO., New York.

JAMES D. DAVIS SUCCESSFUL. Induced Dr. Howard Company to Make Special Price.

After a great deal of effort and correspondence, James D. Davis the popular druggist, has succeeded in getting the Dr. Howard Co. to make a special half price introductory offer on the regular fifty-cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

This medicine is a recent discovery for the cure of all diseases of the stomach and bowels. It not only gives quick relief, but it makes permanent cures.

Dr. Howard's specific has been so remarkably successful in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all liver troubles, that Mr. Davis is willing to return the price paid in every case where it does not give relief.

The old-fashioned idea of dosing with mineral waters, cathartic pills or harsh purgatives will soon be a thing of the past. The best physicians are prescribing Dr. Howard's specific because it really gives the desired results and on account of the small and pleasant dose that is needed.

Scientific Rheumatism Cured. "I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H. Waldron, of Wilton Junction, Iowa.

"My joints were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been thoroughly cured. I have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment."

Their 25th Wedding Anniversary.

One of the pleasantest events of the season took place on Saturday last, 23d inst., at the comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. Will S. Clark, when upward of seventy of their neighbors and friends assembled at their residence, on Hunter Run, to remind them that it was the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

The affair was intended as a surprise and had been in contemplation for three or four weeks. How well the friends succeeded in making it such, and in "keeping the secret," may be imagined when it is stated that as, over sixty strong, they marched in upon the genial couple, they found Mr. Clark busily engaged out on his farm, while Mrs. Clark was wrestling with the problems of the kitchen and general household duties.

It was more than a surprise, and if the recipients had not been possessed of good stout hearts and constitutions it would have amounted almost to a shock, so unsuspecting were all the details arranged by the chief ones in the "conspiracy."

They brought with them many well filled baskets and took complete possession of the household affairs, relieving their host and hostess of any responsibility for the remainder of the day.

Among the pleasing features of the occasion was the presence of Mr. Clark's father and mother, three brothers and two sisters, together with their families. In fact the Clark family connection was all present with the exception of four of the nieces and nephews.

And besides the near neighbors and friends there were also present Mrs. Hong, Mrs. Hubbard and Mrs. Metcalf and grandson, of Titusville, and Mr. and Mrs. Bryner and daughter of Pleasantville.

At one o'clock the company sat down to a most bounteous feast to which all did great justice, and after a day most joyously spent the guests took leave of the genial bride and groom of a quarter century ago, wishing them yet many very happy returns of the day.

Several very handsome and useful presents were left as mementoes of an occasion long to be pleasantly remembered by all the participants.

Mayburg. Monroe McManigle has been in full charge of the lumber business here for the last ten days. Things seem to go all right.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. V. Card were down from Sheffield over Sunday visiting the old folks. It doesn't seem long that I said to my wife, "let's go down and see the old folks over Sunday."

Ethel Richards visited friends in Warren and Sheffield this week.

The boys got a fine shot in No. 65, Cook Oil Lease, Tuesday.

L. Littlefield is repairing some rigs for Wm. Richards.

Ralph Castle was a visitor at the burg Wednesday.

Rev. Zahniser held funeral services at Minister over the body of Mrs. Wm. King. It was a sad case, a young wife and baby dying within a week.

Sick children at T. B. Gifford's, and A. M. Hunter's.

Mrs. Dunn, the gauger's wife has been away visiting at Warren.

Mr. Decker, pathmaster, was down from Porky Saturday.

F. K. Brown returned from his southern trip Friday.

Marshall Catlin, of Whig Hill, was a visitor at the squire's office Thursday.

Rev. Ralph Zahniser, with his family, has been visiting his brother, our pastor, this week.

The High Constable H. E. Gillespie, of Kelletville, was in town Saturday. One gentleman spoke to made tracks for the woods. Now, Ed. can't run very much, but he got his papers served all the same.
