MATHEW STANLEY QUAY, senior Senator from Pennsylvania, is the subject of a frank and brilliant character sketch in the May number of the Booklovers Magazine. It is written by Mr. Joseph M. Rogers, the leading editorial writer of the Philadelphia Inquirer. Through his intimate knowledge of national politics and his close touch with the politics of Pennsylvania, Mr. Rogers is unusually well qualified to write of the astute politician whom he describes as "a cross between the Egyptian Sphinx and a stroke of greased lightning." In this article Mr. Rogers has read the riddle of Pennsylvania's political Sphinx. At least he has put two and two together in such a convincing way that the total is very close to four! Mr. Quay is characterized as "a consistent and persistent opportunist." his State and has given the people what they want-though not what some estimable and ultra reformers think they that a man currently held to be utterly unscrupulous "maintains his hold upon a rural constituency which is morally honest and God-fearing." "DO ITTO-DAY."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til to-morrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advise we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it TO-DAY-and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cureas it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble, New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. Western Union vs. Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, May 3.-Judge Gray handed down an opinion in the United States court of appeals, remanding the case of the Western Union Telegraph company vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad company to the circuit court for further proceedings. The litigation which involves the right of way of the telegraph company along the lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad company has been before the United States courts in this district a number of times and the courts have always sustained the position of the railroad. This decision reverses the circuit court on a demurrer raised by the tele graph company and the case is sent back to the lower court on the demurrer for further proceedings.
