Republican Ticket.

STATE. Supreme Court Justice—JOHN P. ELKIN, of Indiana County. COUNTY. Congress—JOSEPH C. SIBLEY, of Venango County. Assembly—JOHN H. ROBERTSON, of Tionesta. Associate Judge—FRANK N. KREITLER, of Green Twp. Treasurer—WM. H. HARRISON, of Green Twp.

THERE has been filed in one of the courts in Chicago a bill asking for an injunction against ticket scalping. It is the purpose of an injunction to preserve property, but it will be a queer application of this instrument if it can keep up the price of railroad tickets.

If Mr. Roosevelt shall be elected this fall, he will be the first Vice President to succeed to the first office after filling out the unexpired term of a dead President. He will be the first man ever elected by the Republican party from east of the Allegheny mountains, and he will overturn a rule unbroken since 1836.

A CRANK with a loaded revolver was recently found in John D. Rockefeller's Bible class in New York. He did not get a chance to use his weapon and was handed over to the police. Mr. Rockefeller felt keen when the "discovery" was made. He said it was hard to understand why the wicked so often live at ease and prosper, while the righteous suffer. It is a puzzle, John.

The closing of the cotton factories in Fall River, Mass., and the throwing of thousands out of work, may not have been the cause of perversion, but it is noted that recently in that city fifteen converts to Mormonism were baptized in the chilly water. They went into the stream robed in black, and a large crowd witnessed the ceremony. Perhaps Senator Lodge can tell why Mormonism is spreading in the old Bay State.

ONE of the questions to be considered by the Methodist conference in session at Los Angeles, Cal., is what can the church do to aid the cause of temperance? It might at least allow its clergy to preach a temperance sermon, now and then. There is much need of this in Boston, where the police hauled in last year 27,700 "drunks." Bottling up the "drunks" and unhooking the liquor saloons will never work a temperance reform.

WITCHCRAFT has again broken out at Salem, Mass., or at least many people in that town think so. A Sunday crusade has been started which closes up everything in the city except drug stores and churches. Florists, undertakers, restaurants, etc., all have to submit to the law, some people journey to Lynn to get something to eat. In Brooklyn, N. Y., the courts have decided that it is legal to play ball on Sunday. This would never do for Salem.

RECENTLY a man in New York was found on the doorsteps of the Russell Sage mansion praying for the wealthy and venerable banker. He was immediately considered to be insane. He will understand that hereafter prayers for millionaires should always be offered in the churches. Besides there comes a time, according to some good folks, when a man is past praying for. Mr. and Mrs. Sage are good, respectable people, and when Mr. Sage dies he will leave everything.

THE late Herbert Spencer caused his auto-biography to be set up in type, corrected the proofs and to guard against loss he had a few copies printed. The book is a delineation of the author from his own point of view. This isn't a bad idea. It should be imitated in America. Think how a book by Howells titled "What I Think of Myself," or a work by William Jennings Bryan called "Peeps into my Own Soul" would sell on the railway trains.

THERE is a wide-spread opinion that the United States government is very expensive because the Congress appropriates about one billion of dollars at its two sessions. The Department of Commerce and Labor has been looking into the matter and finds as follows: The amount of money per capita of the population necessary to be raised for the Government is in the United States, $7.97; in Germany, $9.45; in Spain, $10.92; in France, $17.84; in Great Britain, $21.39; in New Zealand, $38.38.

THE milk question is looming up at a fearful rate. In Boston the authorities will not allow milk to be sold above fifty degrees of temperature. Milk wagons must have a refrigerating establishment, and even these have to be inspected. The object of the low temperature is to prevent the multiplication of bacteria. Any milk containing more than 500,000 of these individuals is liable to condemnation. Milk with less than 5,000,000 bacteria to the cubic inch is wholesome enough to drink. There's nothing like science in Boston.

LAST year scientific circles were agitated over mosquitoes, and some of the government entomologists incubated much literature regarding their destruction and the assertion that they innoculate human beings with fever germs. The mosquito still thrives and manages to get in his work. There has recently arrived in New Orleans, from Cuba, a consignment of 600 live mosquitoes enroute to St. Louis. They are for the purpose of demonstrating the transmission of yellow fever germs. They are kept in a cage and fed on sugar and water. Their eggs are hatched in a short time and the species is kept in existence in this way, since the youngest take the place of those which die. It is assumed that microbes are bequeathed.

ASSUMING that the Japanese should conquer Russia and then turn in and make an alliance with China, teach the Chinese the art of war, and announce the slogan "Asia for Asiatics," what would Europe or America do about it? If within forty years Japan, with fifty millions of people, has arisen from absolute insignificance to be a first class military and naval power, what if China, with a population six times as great, should advance with equal rapidity under the tutelage of Japan? Would not the Mongolian be able to dictate to the Caucasian, the Heathen to the Christian? Would not this great United Empire be likely to say to the United States, "You have no business in the Philippines. We have a new Monroe doctrine that forbids the interference of foreigners in the Archipelago. We must therefore respectfully request that you pick up your baggage and go." What, under such circumstances, would we do about it? Could we cope with such a tremendous power in its own waters and among its own people? Would it pay to attempt it? These might some day become very pertinent questions.—Punxy Spirit.

An Open Letter. From the Chapin, S. C. News: Early in the spring my wife and I were taken with diarrhoea and I was taken with the pains that we called a physician who prescribed for us, but his medicines failed to give any relief. A friend who had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, on hand gave each of us a dose and we at once felt the effects. I procured a bottle and before using the entire contents we were entirely cured. It is a wonderful remedy and should be found in every household. H. C. Bailey, Editor. This remedy is for sale by Dr. J. C. Dunn.

WANTED: 30 MEN AND WOMEN To Take Advantage of Special offer Made By James D. Davis.

James D. Davis, the enterprising druggist, is advertising to-day for fifty men and women to take advantage of the special half-price offer he is making on Dr. Howard's celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and get a fifty cent package at half-price, 25 cents.

Resolutions of Respect. WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst Brother Oscar Heck, a member of the West Hickory Lodge, Sons of Temperance, Riverside Division, No. 112, therefore Resolved, that while we mourn the loss of our worthy brother, we humbly bow to the will of Divine Providence in this dispensation, and we wish hereby to express our heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved mother and brothers of Oscar Heck.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism. "My mother has been a sufferer for many years with rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Houshold, Pa. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact she is never without it and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Dr. J. C. Dunn.

"DO IT TO-DAY." The time-worn injunction, "Never put off till to-morrow what you can do to-day," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it to-day!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that backing cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for IT-TO-DAY—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep-seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. A. J. D. Davis.

A Tionesta Woman Asks "Have you a floor paint that will last two weeks?" Yes we have Devco's; it has a beautiful gloss and will wear two years if properly applied. James D. Davis, Jr.

GLIMPSES OF A BUSY WEEK.

Going to the Biennial Assembly of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church Philadelphia Division.

BY NANCY C. MORROW.

It is Goethe that is quoted as saying, "Kindness is the golden chain by which society is bound together." And so kindness is the golden chain that has bound my impressions of the Newark convention to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Philadelphia Division. Through the royal kindness of the child of a King, I was permitted to enjoy what I never expected to, the privilege of attending a Biennial Assembly of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, which includes the synods of Atlantic, Baltimore, Canada, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Tennessee. My feelings on the latter imagined that described when our kind president telephoned me that if I could go to Newark a friend would bear all my expenses. It was no thought of, but it was not hard to guess who the kind friends were who had endeavored together concerning the proposed visit, for their princely gifts are a continual blessing to humanity.

As the first session was announced for Tuesday evening, April 23, it was decided that we start on the evening of the 25th in order to reach Newark in time. When it was found that Mrs. Marks, of Tidoute, had never seen New York we concluded to spend our extra time on Tuesday in that great metropolis. It was after ten in the morning when, after a delightful journey, we were registered at the Holland, on Fifth avenue. Our hostess, after consulting her guests, conducted us to the Missionary Headquarters of the Presbyterian church, at 136 Fifth Ave. We were delighted to visit the fine new building, which is a decided improvement over the headquarters of a decade or more ago. We were pleased to meet Mrs. Halsey Wood, in her office, who had just received a letter from Mrs. Edward Wheeler, of Portville, asking about the support of a missionary in whom we are interested. We also called in the office where Miss Katharine A. Crowell is busily engaged, and were delighted to find that she had purchased a copy of China for Juniors from the author of that charming little booklet, Miss Crowell is rather a plain looking woman, but so kind, gracious and unselfish that her inner life makes a deep impression upon those who meet her. She has been asked to write Japan for Juniors which will be out in October. One of the sacred spots we visited on that floor was the little chapel where all the missionaries gather for prayer before they embark for foreign shores and where the daily and weekly prayer services are held by the mission workers. It seemed a hallowed spot—an entrance into the holy of holies. On the floor below we came back to the United States and saw the needs of Alaska, Hawaii, the frontier stations of the West and the call for help from the mountaineers and freedmen of the South. It was near 12 o'clock and many were out for lunch, but we had the happy privilege of meeting Miss Josephine Petrie, whom many of you know, who was also a guest of Mrs. Wheeler at luncheon at the Holland. At 2 o'clock a carriage came to take our little party to visit the tomb of the hero of Appomattox. The drive to Riverside Park was simply delightful, while the sight of the tomb with its battle flags of the 69's and the tokens of a nation's love and honor, aroused all the patriotism of a true American.

We were soon wending our way to the convention city which we reached between 5 and 6 in the evening. We were met by the Rev. Mr. Hutchison, who was at our last convention and who is assistant pastor of Dr. Allen's church, the largest in Newark. Mr. H. kindly conducted us to the places assigned to us and it was not long before we felt our lot had been cast in pleasant places.

Perhaps I had but the best view of Newark, but if you were to ask me what I think of the city, I would say the people are delightful, for it was simply one round of gracious hospitality from beginning to end. Eight o'clock found us easily quartered in the Third Presbyterian church, where the first service was held. It was presided over by Mrs. J. B. Howell, of Philadelphia, one of the vice-presidents of the Board. It consisted of a prayer service conducted by Mrs. Wallace Radcliffe, of Washington, D. C., who took as her theme "The Joy of Service." She brought out very nicely the obligation resting on Christian people to give a joyful service unto the Lord and thus bring gladness into the lives around us. Some of the missionaries present, were introduced, among whom were Mrs. Wm. C. Gault, who went to western Africa from Allegheny more than twenty years ago. Another was Mrs. C. A. R. Janvier, of Philadelphia, who spoke for India, although, as she said, she scarcely knew where she belonged, having been born in China. Mrs. Janvier is a little, unpretentious woman with all the earnestness and deep consecration that has brought her celebrated husband into such prominence. After the hour's devotion the audience was invited to the rooms in rear of the auditorium, where those who knew each other had the delight of renewing former acquaintanceships and those who were strangers had the pleasure of looking on and also forming new friendships. The large audience was served with lemonade and candied wafers. Among those whom I met was Miss Haves, it seemed no time till Wednesday came, and indeed it was raining very hard, the delegates were at the church very early and continued to come till some 600 had been registered. We had time that morning to look around a little and found the Newark people had done everything to make our stay among them comfortable. Near us was a telephone, information bureau, post office, literature table, and, last but not least, the table to get our lunch tickets, which was very imperative for a lack meant no lunch. Ushers were on hand to direct us to the vast auditorium after having umbrellas and baggage checked. We entered through one of the wings of the large old-fashioned gallery, and were taken to the main floor. In spite of the fact that the meeting had already begun, our burst of curiosity was aroused but not exactly devotional. We began wondering about the history of this stately edifice, the First Presbyterian church of Newark, which had unquestionably been built on quite a magnificent scale at an early day. It was beautiful still and the ladies in the high old pulpit were almost hedge in by the palms that surrounded it. The carved gallery was decorated with southern smilax and national flags, while here and there around it were the flags of all countries where the Presbyterian Church has mission stations.

However, my devotional spirit was not entirely spoiled, so enjoyed the morning's meeting, but when I had an opportunity I learned something about this historic building and the people who have worshipped among the congregations of the old First church since 1667, when it was first organized. Among its pastors was the Rev. Dr. Burr, father of the historic Aaron Burr. During 8 years of this pastorate he was president of the College of New Jersey, which we know as Princeton. History goes to tell us that Dr. Burr was too busy with his work as pastor and president to go to Connecticut for Esther Edwards's wife to be, but sent for her and her mother to come to him on horseback at Newark. It is stated that Aaron Burr and his sister were baptized members in infancy of the First church. Two of the world's greatest evangelists are recorded as having visited and ministered to them—Whitfield and Moody. The present church building was dedicated in 1791, and has thus witnessed over a century for missions, being two years old when the sainted Carey first went to India. It was built during the pastorate of the Rev. Alexander MacWhorter, D. D. Dr. MacWhorter had gathered together 2300 before the outbreak of the Revolutionary War, and had already had the trenches dug and much of the material at hand for a new church building, but the war coming brought destruction with it, so when the war clouds lifted no traces remained of the work that had been undertaken. But, when the war clouds lifted money was again collected and in 1797, after a prayer by Dr. MacWhorter the first shovelful of earth was lifted out of the trench by him; the second by Caleb Wheeler, chairman of the building committee. The most wonderful how those early fathers have built for the generations even yet to come just as the assembled host of devoted christian women who had there met, are working for the generations yet unborn.

A TRINITY OF EVILS.

Cured by Cal-cura Solvent, the Great New Medicine, After Other Treatment Had Failed. Write for a Small Free Bottle. Mr. Martin Montgomery, of Silvana, Pa., formerly of Roxbury, N. Y., writing to Dr. David Kennedy, of Kennedy Row, said: "Your new medicine, Cal-cura Solvent, is wonderful. It cured me of liver and kidney troubles, and rheumatism, after a lot of weary dosing with things that did no good. It is a record breaker and no mistake." As in Mr. Montgomery's case, rheumatism is often, indeed almost always, complicated with kidney and liver trouble. It is because Cal-cura Solvent acts on the kidneys and liver and at the same time expels uric acid from the blood, that it is such a reliable remedy for rheumatism and the attendant disorders. It cures by removing the cause, therefore the cure is permanent, safe and sure. Remember, Cal-cura Solvent cures 98% of all cases of Kidney, Bladder and Liver disorders. You may have a free sample bottle of this wonderful medicine, and descriptive booklet, by simply sending your name and address to The Cal-cura Company, Kennedy Row, Rondout, N. Y. Large bottles $1.00 (only one size) all druggists, or if they do not have it, send to the above proprietors.
