Wanted, a good reliable man, with horse and rig, for Tionesta, and surrounding town to distribute circulars, samples, tack signs, either in connection with present work, or give entire time. Address, Atco Printing Co., Dept. L 7, South Whitley, Ind.

Willis Harmon, a young man employed on Proper Bros. lease, Tionesta twp., while chopping without axe, cut his left foot quite badly last Thursday, nearly severing the two last toes of his foot. Dr. Bovard, who attended him, found some difficulty in saving the toes.

During the coming week the James Store at Oil City, is having its semi-annual clearance sale of remnant goods, as will be seen by reference to his triple-col. ad. on the 4th page of this issue. Look it over and consider the invitation extended to call and secure some of the bargains offered.

Mrs. Tebo, of Emporium, who was recently arrested by a State fish warden with about 20 trout she had caught at a water hole six inches hidden in her shirt waist, and sentenced to 300 days in jail in default of $300 fine, has been released by friends paying her fine to the State Department of Fisheries.

Saturday last Fred Glassner, who is building barges at Gaston's yards, made a mistake with a heavy broad-axe and struck his left leg below the knee with the blade, making an incision to the bone several inches in length. The wound will keep him off duty for several weeks, no doubt. Dr. Bovard made the necessary surgical repairs.

Herb Stoughton fell from the roof of George & Aylesworth's nearby Endeavor Monday, a distance of nearly thirty feet, and sprained his right wrist badly, and sustained severe strains of the muscles of his right hip. Dr. W. G. Morrow attended him but found no bones broken, which is somewhat remarkable considering the distance of Herb's tumble.

The Tionesta township school board elected the following corps of teachers last Saturday: Hunter Stanton, Miss Elliott; Hunter Rau, Katie Osgood; Jamie-son, Mary Matha; Pigeon Hill, Pearl Mealy; German Hill, Ralph Blocher; Oldtown, Florence Thomson; Smokey Hill, Ida Fones; Blocher, Clara Wolf; Huddleston, Eddie Hopher; Shriver, to be supplied.

A lecture will be delivered by Mrs. W. G. Morrow, of West Hickory, in the Presbyterian church, next Sabbath evening at 7:30 o'clock. She comes under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of this place, and the society extends a cordial invitation to the members of the church and congregation to be present on this occasion. Mrs. Morrow has delivered the lecture at Endeavor and West Hickory, and comes most highly recommended by both these churches. A silver offering will be taken.

The name of Mr. Cortelyou, the new Chairman of the Republican National Committee, says the Philadelphia Inquirer, should not be sounded as it is by many people with the accent on the "tel" or on the "you," but on the first syllable, as if you were pronouncing such a word as "Cortel" on the style of "mortal," "portal," etc., and added a very short "you" on to it.

Capt. Harry R. Hyde, son of the late Senator Hyde, and one of Ridgway's most prominent young business men, was among the unfortunate victims of the recent Fourth of July celebration, having had his right hand completely blown off while setting off fireworks for the amusement of some guests who had assembled at the Hyde club house, eight miles from Ridgway.

Mrs. John Greenwall, for almost her entire life time a resident near Greenwood, Barnett township, this county, died suddenly of heart trouble, on the 28th ult., aged 60 years. She was highly respected in the community where she spent most of her life, and the surviving husband has the sympathy of all his neighbors in this sudden bereavement. The burial took place on the 2d of July, at Crown, Pa.

A very sensible alteration in the back stair-way of the court house is completed. The old trap which has answered as a place for climbing from the hall to the jury rooms in rear of the judges' bench has been torn out and a respectable stair case erected in its stead, making access to the court room by that route much more convenient and safe. The Commissioners deserve credit for this improvement.

Wm. Green, a young man employed in the borough as a teamster, was brought before Esquire Randall last week on a charge of furnishing liquor to a minor, Benton VanCamp. The proceedings were brought at the instance of the father of the minor, James VanCamp, of Tionesta twp. Upon hearing the evidence Justice Randall placed Green under $200 bail for his appearance at September court, in default of which he was placed in jail.

Miss Bessie Confer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Confer, of Redelyfe, this county, died at her home on the 1st inst., of typhoid fever, aged 17 years. Deceased was a young lady who bore the highest esteem of all who knew her, and her death is deeply mourned by the neighbors and friends in the community in which she lived. Funeral services were held on the following Sabbath, the interment being in the cemetery at Kahl-town, Jefferson county.

J. W. Daubenspeck, of Gollinza, was circulating among friends in this vicinity yesterday. He is a had charge of the filling room in the large mill of Collins, Watson & Co. for about fifteen years, and is now taking a two weeks' vacation, which is about the first he has had during that time. Mr. D. has been quietly working on a motor for some time, and expects to have it ready for patenting shortly. He doesn't claim "perpetual motion" for it, but the contrivance will be as nearly that as it is possible to get. He is a genius in his line, and we venture the prediction that he will evolve something that will astonish them all when he is ready to show it to the public.

Rev. S. S. Popoff was a guest at the home of his brother-in-law, F. A. Keller over the Sabbath, and during his stay occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, morning and evening. His discourse in the evening was largely in the nature of a talk on the progress of the mission work in his native country, Bulgaria, and was an extremely interesting revelation to the congregation. He came to this country when quite young, educated himself for the ministry, and was pastor of a prosperous church in Pittsburg, but failing health compelled him to seek a new climate, and he has been in Arizona for some time. His visit east at this time is to escape the extreme heat of that section. His wife is a daughter of W. H. Frost, of Fredonia, N. Y., and they expect to spend the summer with their eastern friends.

The remains of Frank G. Ittel, one of the young men who met death in the grade crossing accident at Warren on the 2d inst., were given burial in Greenwood cemetery, Barnett township, this county, on the 4th of July. He was a son of the late George Ittel, well known to many of our readers. He is survived by two sisters, both father and mother being dead. Deceased was an industrious young man of steady habits, and well liked by his acquaintances. His companion, the other unfortunate victim of this tragic affair, Michael J. Zipele, was also well spoken of by friends. He was a resident near Brookville, and his remains were taken there for burial. Both young men had been employed at Leola, Elk county, and were aged about 22 years. They had started out together to spend the Fourth with friends near Grunderville.

President Judge F. J. Thomas of the Crawford county court handed down a decision at Meadville, Monday afternoon to the effect that the pure food law enacted by the last legislature was unconstitutional. It was in the case of Frederick J. and Nicholas Kalort, who were convicted of selling adulterated blackberry brandy and wine. They asked for an arrest of judgment on the grounds that the law was unconstitutional, and the judge upheld them. The title of the act he holds is misleading and conflicts with article 3, section 3, of the state constitution, which says that no bill, but a general appropriation bill, shall contain more than one subject clearly expressed in the title. Judge Thomas holds that as the law is intended for the enforcement of pure food regulations, and says nothing whatever regarding intoxicating liquors, it is unconstitutional.

The Free Methodists of this district have advertised a big campmeeting to begin at Moran's grove, Oil City, Pa., July 28, and extending over August 7th. The following clergymen of this denomination have accepted invitations to be present: S. K. Wheatlasek, Cowden, Ill.; J. E. Berkeheimer, Pleasantville, Pa.; J. C. Bowman, Tionesta, Pa.; E. L. Monroe, Whig Hill, Pa.; G. S. Mitchell, Tidoute, Pa.; R. M. White, Mt. Pleasantville, Pa.; Emma Ellison, Titusville, Pa.; Helen Critchlow, Pleasantville, Pa.; G. T. Bryan, Sugar Grove, Pa.; G. A. Garrett, Youngville, Pa.; R. McArthur, Barnett, Pa.; A. H. M. Zahniser, Meyburg, Pa.; E. A. Zahniser, Tionesta, Pa.; W. H. McClimans, Weavers, Pa.; J. M. Critchlow, Franklin, Pa.; A. G. Gill, Franklin, Pa.; W. E. Smith, Sycamore, Pa.; John S. Meloney, P. E. Titusville, Pa.; Albert T. Sauer, pastor, 25 West Fourth street, Oil City, Pa.

E. B. Catlin, of Kellettsville, has taken the job of filing on the big band mill at Eagle Rock, and expects to move to that place some time this summer. Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Perry, of Oil City, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Dawson, at Stewart Run, during the past week, returning home Saturday.

J. C. McNamee, agent for the Pennsylvania station, is on a two weeks' vacation, and he and his family are spending the time among friends in New York State. Isaiah Proper, of Venango county, has been here the past week with his brother, Hon. John A. Proper, who has been quite ill for several days past, but is improving.

Dead Body of a Man Found Floating in the River at this Place.

At an early hour last Sunday morning, while Patrick Joyce and his son, Joseph, were standing on the river bridge at this place, having been called there on account of the sudden rise of the night previous to see what shape their tools were in, they espied what appeared like a man floating rapidly down the middle of the stream. Joe hurried down to John Bush's place, and the two jumped into a boat and followed and overtook the float-er about a quarter of a mile below. Towing the body to the shore they made it secure and notified Coroner Dr. Morrow, who, after viewing the body put himself in telephonic communication with Warren parents, whose description of a missing man of that city tallied so closely with the body found that the Coroner deemed it unnecessary to hold an inquest.

A week ago last Saturday night, 2d inst., George H. Evans, a man aged about 55 years, and a resident of Warren, was missed by his people. The last seen of him was about 9 o'clock that night sitting on a bench near the bank of the river on Front street. Sunday morning his hat was found near where he had been seen the night previous, which led to the belief that he had fallen into the river. Search was made but no trace of him was discovered.

A tattooed mark on the arm of the man found here was sufficient to make the identification as that of Evans complete, and the body was given in charge of Haslet Bros., undertakers, who, at the request of Warren friends, prepared the body for burial, and on Monday sent it to Warren. No evidences of foul play were discovered on the body, and we learn of none being suspected. The deceased is survived by his widow and several grown children.

Held on a Charge of Murder.

Harry Webb, a young man aged about 20 years, of Youngsville, Warren county, is confined in the Forest county jail on a charge of murder as the result of a fatal attack he made on Orrie Filer, of the same town, on the night of the Fourth. The day had been celebrated in gorgeous manner and all features had been voted a success, and in the evening a dance was being held. About 9 o'clock Webb had been refused admission to the hall by Filer who was attending the door, because he failed to produce the required ticket or its equivalent in cash. A short time after Filer had an errand down stairs and was met by Webb on the street. After some words Webb struck Filer, knocking him down and planting several kicks about his head. When Webb was finally pulled away it was found that Filer was unconscious, and was carried to a building near by and a physician summoned. The doctor found a slight movement of the heart, which ceased within a few moments. An examination disclosed that the man's neck was broken. Webb made no effort to escape and was arrested in a few moments. At a hearing before Justice Mead the prisoner was bound over to the September term of court in Warren county, and the charge being one for which no bail can be accepted, Sheriff Brown brought him here on Wednesday and placed him in the keeping of Sheriff Noblit.

The prisoner's family is very highly respected in the community in which they reside, and much sympathy is expressed for his parents. Mr. Filer, the victim of this unfortunate affair, had been a resident of Youngsville for many years, and was one of its most peaceable and highly respected citizens. He was a steady, industrious man, not addicted in any way to drink, and had not been drinking on the day of the tragedy. He leaves a widow and three children. He was aged about 30 years.

Three Fatal Fist Fights.

Bad temper cost the lives of three men in as many surrounding counties during the Fourth of July "festivities" of the past ten days. All were fist encounters, the first happening at Oil City, on the 2d of July, between John Lynch and Alfred Thumwood, the latter having lost his life by hard blows from his antagonist. The second occurred at Youngsville, Warren county, when, on the night of the Fourth Harry Webb killed Orlie Filer, an account of which is given in today's REPUBLICAN. The last fatal quarrel is reported from Clarion county, between Ora Sampson and Cash Furman, of Strattonville, and resulted at a dance being held in that town on the night of last Friday, 5th inst. Sampson, who is said to have been the aggressor, was dead when the fight ended. In none of these cases were the combatants above the age of 20 years. It would appear from this that the toy pistol is not the only instrument of death that should be eliminated from the Fourth of July carousals.

At the Circus.

Every seat and all available standing room occupied and many seated on the ground close to the arena, such was condition of things at both performances at Sparks' circus which showed here at East Side Park yesterday afternoon and evening. The circus was a first-rate exhibition, the performers being stars in their respective lines. Many clever feats were performed by the acrobats, trapeze artists and contortionists, besides the tricks of a well-trained elephant, dogs, lions and horses; and old and young enjoyed a remarkably interesting exhibition. The Sparks' show will always have a warm welcome in this city. The circus is at Canisteo to-day.—Corning (N. Y.) Daily Journal, July 17, 1932.

The above show will exhibit at Tionesta, July 20.

Mr. Bruner, Station Agent at West Hickory, Sustains Serious Injury.

Milton Bruner, for many years station agent at West Hickory, P. R. R., met with an accident Monday which cost him his left arm, and may yet prove even more serious. The local freight north had completed its loading and shifting at that station and was about ready to pull out. Mr. Bruner had a message for the crew and was in the act of delivering it when overtaken by the accident. The train was parted somewhere near the middle, and the rear part, with the cabooses attached, was standing several rods above the office. He walked up the track and was handing the message to the flagman when the two parts of the train came together, causing the caboose to rebound and Mr. Bruner was struck and knocked down, the wheels passing over his left arm, mangle it badly. Dr. W. G. Morrow was summoned and took charge of the unfortunate man till the arrival of Dr. Shugart, the company's surgeon, at Tidoute. The two physicians took him to the Oil City hospital at once, where the arm was amputated close to the shoulder. Mr. Bruner came through the operation very well, but the shock has been so severe as to cause considerable fear of a fatal termination of his case. Later—Report this morning from his bedside states that he is doing as well as could be expected.

Pretty June Wedding.

A pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Sutley, West Hickory, Pa., at 9:00 o'clock p. m., June 30, 1934, when their daughter, Miss Edith, was united in marriage with Mr. Carter R. Shorts, of Townville, Pa.

Mrs. W. G. Wilkins presided at the piano and promptly at 9:00 o'clock as strains of the wedding chorus filled the room, the bridal party entered and took their places under a canopy of tulle and roses. The groom entered with the best man, Mr. B. T. Elder, and the bride with the bridesmaid, Miss Edna Sutley, her sister. They were led by the Rev. H. B. Potter, who performed the marriage ceremony in a most impressive manner.

The bride looked charming in a gown of light blue Ceclilian and carried a bouquet of orange blossoms. After the congratulations, a dainty wedding supper was served. The gifts were very handsome and consisted of solid silver, cut glass, linen, china, furniture and pictures.

Mr. and Mrs. Shorts left Friday morning for Titusville, and will visit Meadville and Erie before their return home. They will reside in West Hickory. Over 75 guests were present, and those from out of town were, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Carnahan of Pleasantville, Miss Ross of Meadville, Mrs. L. Neil of Newtown, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carnahan, Mr. and Mrs. J. Carnahan, Mr. and Mrs. John Hinkson, all of Faganville, Mrs. Frank Strive of Union City, and the Misses Clara and Ethel Carnahan of Pleasantville.
