CORTELYOU IS PLEASED

Congratulates Penrose On Activity of Pennsylvania Republicans.

AIDING NATIONAL COMMITTEE

State Committee Is Co-Operating With the Members of the National Committee In the Campaign For Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, Sept. 6. A fitting compliment was paid to the Republican organization of Pennsylvania last week by Chairman Cortelyou, of the Republican national committee. It was upon the occasion of Senator Penrose's visit to the national committee headquarters in New York, when the subject of state organizations was under consideration.

"Pennsylvania Republicans have the finest, most compact and most loyal Republican organization in the country," said Chairman Cortelyou, "and I fervently wish that other states would copy the methods and manifest the enthusiasm and the ardor which is being shown by the Republicans of the Keystone state in the present campaign."

Senator Penrose visited the national chairman upon a special invitation from Mr. Cortelyou, who desired to talk over a number of matters of importance in connection with the presidential campaign. Their interview was a most cordial and satisfactory one, and Chairman Cortelyou was assured that he could always count upon Penn. sylvania for men and money, as occasion demanded.

As chairman of the Republican state committee, Senator Penrose has organized a corps of spellbinders, whose services have been placed at the call of Chairman Cortelyou for duty in the doubtful states, and he has already done considerable effective work in aiding the members of the advisory committees named by the national chairman to collect campaign subscriptions for the presidential contest, Pennsylvania is second only to New York in the amount of money contributed to Republican campaigns, and with the co-operation of State Chairman Penrose the representatives of the national committee who are soliciting contributions in this state will, it is believed, be able to make gratifying reports.

Information received at the state headquarters daily indicates a general disposition among Republicans to help make good Senator Penrose's predic tion that Pennsylvania will even surpass the record-breaking majority of 301,000 for McKinley by giving Roosevelt at least 325,000 majority. It was this statement to Chairman Cortelyou that brought forth his very complimentary reference to the Republican organization of Pennsylvania

No one not thoroughly familiar with conditions in this state can appreciate the ramifications and the sturdy character of the Republican organization of Pennsylvania. As it stands today it has stood for 50 years, ever loyal to the principles of Republicanism and ever steadfast to the Republican nominees

This organization was not built in a day. It is the result of the careful, watchful interest of men of intelligence and activity; men who have labored hard to cement the various interests in he several counties and who welded together into a compact body the brains and the brawn of stalwart Republicanism of every section of the commonwealth.

The organization of Pennsylvania today represents hundreds of thousands of Republican voters who are in touch with the precinct committees and through them the county organizations and the state committee. These voters are all enrolled, and their names and addresses are kept permanently at the headquarters of the state committee in this city. The lists are carefully arranged, and are always available for communications to be sent directly by the chairman of the state committee on a minute's notice.

In most of the states of the Union party organizations are formed for each campaign, and most of the preliminary work before each election consists of gathering together an organization for election day. The Pennsylvania idea is to keep a permanent organization The secretary of the state committee, Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, who has been engaged on this work for many years, is almost as busy between campaigns perfecting his lists as he is in the midst of a desperately fought political contest. Senator Penrose, who succeeds the late Senator Matthew Stanley Quay as leader of the Republican organization of Pennsylvania, was a trusted lieutenant of the great leader who recently passed away, and he has endeavored to follow his example in keeping the party organization constantly on a "fighting basis." Senator Penrose has gone further. He has sought to harmonize the party wherever differences have existed, and he has made it a rule to consult the active Republicans of every district before acting upon any proposition affecting that district. He believes that the men who labor year in and year out in the interest of the party are the men to be consulted As chairman of the state committee, he believes that every young Republican ambitious to be a factor in his party's organization should follow this course, and he has advised many young men since the opening of the present contest to at once get in touch with the committeemen from their respective precincts and volunteer for duty throughout the campaign. He holds that this is the only way for a young Republican to become a power in his party organization.

WILL BLAZE THE WAY

Republican Clubmen Leading Fight For Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

A NEW SONG FOR THE CAMPAIGN

Chairman Penrose Procures Speakers of National Prominence For the State League's Convention at Reading.

[Special Correspondence.]

Reading, Sept. 6. Pennsyl-Pennsyl-vania! Pennsyl-Pennsyl-Pennsyl-vania! Pennsyl-Pennsyl-Pennsyl-vania! She's going to blaze the way! For Teddy and Fairbanks, too!

(To air of "Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!") The above campaign song will be sung in every section of the commonwealth after the convention of the State League of Republican Clubs, which is to be held in Reading on September 21, 22 and 23.

Already enthusiastic Republican clubmen who are preparing to attend the convention are singing this song at home, and they expect to join in a mighty chorus when they get together in the convention from every county in the state and formally open the presidential election in Pennsylvania. The convention of the clubmen this year promises to be the greatest in the history of the league, and much of the credit for the success of the convention will be due to the active co-operation of Chairman Penrose and Secretary Andrews, of the Republican state committee, who have given every assistance possible to President John R. Wiggins and Secretary John Kelley and the other officers of the league and the members of the local committee of arrangements.

Senator Penrose made a personal appeal to Chairman Cortelyou, of the Republican national committee, and Chairman Babcock, of the Republican congrestional committee, to send speakers of national reputation to the league's convention, and they have promised to comply with his request.

As the result of Senator Penrose's visit to New York, Candidate for Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, and Senator Joseph B. Foraker, of Ohio, are among others who have been assigned to address a mass meeting under the auspices of the State League, which will be held in the Reading Academy of Music on September 21. It is expected that there will be a number of other distinguished Republicans from other states to address the meeting in addition to many of the leaders of the Republican organization of Pennsylvania. Senator Penrose, Senator-elect Knox, Governor Pennypacker, Attorney General Carson and a host of others have been invited to be present. Every Republican member of congress from Pennsylvania is expected to attend, so that the gathering will be a notable

There will be music and fireworks galore and special excursions to Mount Penn and other points of attraction in and about Reading will be arranged for the entertainment of the delegates, alternates and other visitors to the convention. Secretary Kelley estimates that at least 250 clubs will be represented, and that the number of visitors who will accompany the delegates will be the largest on record.

The convention of the club league will be the inauguration of a brilliant series of Republican mass meetings to be held under the auspices of the Republican state committee. Senatorelect Philander C. Knox, who has just returned from a trip abroad, had a conference with Chairman Penrose last week and agreed to speak at a mass meeting to be held in the Academy of Music in Philadelphia, under the direction of the Manufacturers' Club of that city. This will be one of the largest demonstrations that will be held in the state during the campaign. It is proposed to have a tremendous rally of employes of the various manufacturing plants in the Quaker City that have prospered under the protective tariff and which would be jeopardized in the event of the election of a Democratic president and of a Democratic congress favorable to the Democratic idea of free trade. Capital and labor will figure conspicuously in this meeting, which is likely to be one of the most unique features of the presidential contest. A large delegation of active Republicans from Allegheny county were in conference with Chairman Penrose last week relative to a series of monster mass meetings which they propose to hold in Pittsburg and vicinity. They submitted a list of orators they desired, which among others included Candidate Fairbanks, Speaker "Joe" Cannon, Senators Penrose and Knox, Governor Pennypacker, Attorney General Hampton L. Carson, Charles Emory Smith and General Thomas J. Stewart.

County Chairman Ford and City Chafrman Leslie Informed Chairman Penrose that Allegheny county will give Roosevelt and Fairbanks the largest majority that has ever been given to any Republican national ticket. They informed him that the party is united in Allegheny, and that the Have for Dessert? greatest enthusiasm prevails among the rank and file of the party organization.

Several of the active spirits of the State League of Clubs were in Reading during the last week. They reported that the condition of the party organization in their respective localities is very satisfactory, and that Republicans generally intend to give loyal and cordial support to the entire Republican ticket.

The Fine Flavor of the Jam Came From a Moving Source. In Mr. Julian Hawthorne's "Haw thorne and His Circle" Is the story of an experience which will doubtless be appreciated by many housekeepers who have suffered similar agony, if not from precisely the same cause

One night during Mr. Hawthorne's term as consul at Liverpool his friend. Mr. Henry Bright, the water color artist, came to an informal supper, and Mrs. Hawthorne, in honor of her guest, placed upon the table a jar of especially fine raspberry jam.

Mr. Bright tasted the jam and at once became enthusiastic. He had never eaten any so delicious, he declared. There was a peculiar tang about it which surpassed his recollections of any jam he had ever tasted from boyhood up. He was still in the midst of his rhapsodies and still consuming their subject with enthusiasm when Mrs. Hawthorne, who had taken a little of the jam upon her own plate, made a ghastly discovery. The cover of the jam pot had evidently got ajar in the closet, and an innumerable army of almost microscopic ants had discovered the treasure and plunged eagerly into it.

What color the invading enemy may have been before they became incorporated with the Jam nobody knew. At the time of the discovery they could be distinguished only by their struggles with the pervasive stickiness, and only then by the keenest eyes, and the eyes of Henry Bright were among the most nearsighted in England.

What was to be done? Mr. and Mrs. Hawthorne stealthily exchanged "one awful look," and the question was settled. It was too late to recall the ants devoured by thousands; it was clearly one of the cases where ignorance was bliss. Mr. Bright accompanied his meal with a "continual psalm" in praise of the exquisite flavor of the raspberry jam, and never to the day of his death did he discover the awful secret of that flavor.

A Back Action Joke.

The traveling men of Maine are noted for the jokes that they are always springing on the public, but recently one of them got into trouble in an unexpected way. His parents celebrated their golden wedding, and the drummer had long planned to spend the day with them. But when the day arrived he found that he was too far from his old home to get back to it, so he sent a telegram to his father. He thought that it was a good time to get off a joke on the old man, so he merely sent the message, "Is marriage a failure?" He was somewhat taken aback when he got the reply, "Marriage is not, but the results sometimes

A New Idea About Life

Insurance. Ever try to insure your life? Notice the extreme care taken by the medical examiner to find the exact condition of the kidneys? Thousands of people are annually rejected by the insurance companies because they have kidney trouble. Most of those people do not know it. It is an insiduous disease, with various symptoms, deceiving the doctor as well as the patient. Neglected long enough, it proves fatal. Heartburn, palpitation dizziness, sluggishness, indigestion, losing of flesh all in-dicate that your kidneys are not properly performing their functions, or that your liver is disordered. Thompson's rosma is an absolutely infallible cure for all kidney and liver disorders. The worst cases yield to it immediately. Thompson's Barosma works like magi -a strong statement, but one borne ou by thousands of authentic testimonials I had been confined to the house with Kidney Complaint for seven weeks and was most of the time in bed. Some time before I had been refused life insurance, as I was told I could not live many months. At the suggestion of the druggist, who was a friend of mine, I began taking Thompson's Barosma, Kidney and Liver Cure, and I am happy to make the statement, which my wife will affirm that five bottles of Barosma completely cured me. Also I refer to any of my neighbors as to the above facts. ORSON HOPKINS, Townville, Pa. All druggists, 50c and $1.00.

Ensy Going Butcher, The Kansas City Journal tells of a Kansas man who went to a rural butcher shop in Kentucky to order a porterhouse steak. "I have just start-ed in on this beef," said the butcher, "and I won't be down to the porterhouse until about 2 o'clock." His method was to lay half a beef on his block and begin at one end and cut along until it was gone, serving his customers with pieces all the way from the boof to the neck regardless of their preferences.

No Perfect Health. Sir Michael Foster in a lecture on "Health and Ill Health" to the mem bers of the Workingmen's club said that health, like happiness, did not exist. They had a goal, or limit, and, while seeming attainable, cluded per fect possession. The body consisted of a number of mechanisms which had the closest and most exact relations. As they approximated to harmony there was health, but when discord tame, ill health.-London Telegraph.
