When troubled with constipation try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no gripping or other unpleasant effect. For sale by Dr. J. C. Dunn. Grant Shuster will remain in Brookville three weeks with 30 head of draught and driving horses. They are an extra lot of good horses and must be sold or exchanged quick. If in need of a team or driving horse you should look over the lot at once. Miss Pearl Wolf, daughter of Andrew Wolf, of Johnstown, is having serious trouble with her right hand in which blood-poisoning has developed from a very slight abrasion of the skin, inflicted a week or ten days ago. The arm is badly swollen and is giving her much pain. Charles C. Adams, a former Tionesta boy has our thanks for a copy of the San Francisco Call, which gives a profusely illustrated account of the great Knight Templar Conclave held in that city recently. Charles, or "Chub" as his friends know him here, is now located in Los Angeles, California. While assisting in changing a band saw on the mill at Nebraska last Wednesday Charles Klimeser received a stroke on the back from the lever that is used to tighten the saw, and was quite severely hurt. He has been confined to his bed since, but his physician hopes to get him through without serious results. J. C. Scowden shipped one of his fine make of wagons to Green county Monday, which means that his output has a reputation that extends far beyond the confines of this section, this being only one of several he has sent to that section of late. Users of team wagons know that it pays to buy the best, and that always means one of the famous Scowden make. John Lockwood, of Pleasantville, lost the greater portion of his right hand in a buzz saw at a mill at Sheldahlina Springs Friday. He was employed in the mill and had his hand caught while attempting to remove a strip of wood that had lodged between the saw and table. The thumb, index and little finger were amputated by Drs. Jamieson, of Titusville, and Tupper, of Pleasantville. Don't ask the editor to write up every evil work and rebuke every evil in the town and community, says the North East. But when convicted that such duties are attending to, write an article for the paper yourself and sign your name to it for publication. The man who is too big a coward to thus express an opinion is the very one who will stand on the corner and talk loudly about the cowardice of the editor. Joseph Horn, who was mentioned in these columns last week as having sustained an injury to his right leg while working in the woods in Harmony township, by having a tree fall on it, was taken to the Oil City hospital, where on Monday his leg was amputated in the hope of saving his life, gangrene having set in. The unfortunate victim had been making his home with Joseph Carson for some time prior to the accident, and it was there he had been treated until taken to the hospital. He is aged about 55 years. The injury to the leg was between the knee and ankle. Miss Allen, of Reno, Pa., who was one of an outing party who had their tents pitched at the mouth of Tubbs run last week, met with a painful accident on Thursday afternoon. She was out in a boat with a lady companion and the two were practicing shooting with their revolvers, when the one Miss Allen was handling was discharged accidentally, the ball, a small 22-calibre, entering the instep of her right foot at the top and coming out the sole, passing around the bones. Dr. Bovard attended her, and while the wound was quite painful, it was not considered a dangerous one, there being no evidences of blood poisoning when she was taken home last Saturday.

D. W. Black, attendant in the Warren State hospital for the insane, was convicted at Warren last week of robbing a patient of the asylum of money, and sentenced to pay $35 fine, costs, and remain in jail six months. Walter J. Carter was also convicted of receiving stolen goods and sentenced to pay $25 fine and costs, and to remain in jail three months. These men were both among the prisoners kept in the jail here for some time. An exchange says that a new and clever swindle is being operated by a man who is going about the country representing himself as a repairer of sewing machines. He asks to examine the machine, and while doing so takes out good pieces and inserts broken parts and cuts the lady's attention to it, then he stily replaces the good piece he has removed and charges exorbitant prices for his work. Look out for him. He is one of the smoothest swindlers that ever come down the pike. The annual meeting of the Forest County Veterans' Association here on the 20th inst., will be a memorable event in the annals of the place. Short addresses will be delivered by Rev. O. H. Nickle, Capt. John M. Clapp, Rev. B. F. Feit and other comrades. Knox Camp S. of V. will participate in the proceedings of the day, and aid in the music for the occasion. If the day is fair, it is expected that a large gathering of the people will attend. The former meetings have been a success in every sense of the word. As time goes on the interest of the people seems to increase. A program will be announced later. By order of the President. John Zitz hired a horse and buggy from Liverman Palmer Sunday and drove to Kelleitville. When he returned to town Monday he was drunk and abused the horse on the streets until the animal was taken from him. Palmer made information before Squire Borden charging Zitz with cruelty to animals. He was arrested and fined $10 on that charge and $5 for being drunk and disorderly. In default of payment of fines and costs he was sent to jail at Warren to do time. This lesson should be profitable to others of like tendencies. Sheffield Observers. A little of this sort of medicine is needed in this place to cure some parties of the inhuman habit of getting drunk and abusing their dumb animals. It is a satisfaction to note that the judges in many counties of the state are exacting more care than formerly in the presentation by constables of reports relative to the condition of public roads. The law which requires these reports to be made to the Quarter Sessions has been too long treated as a mere form. The agitation for good roads has brought the subject of constables' inspection into prominence, and those officials are meeting pronounced objections to their stereotyped approval of the work of the road commissioners. One judge has taken a practical method of inciting the constables to more vigorous discharge of their duties relative to the care of roads. He spent the greater part of his vacation driving through the county, and when the constables presented their reports he had things to tell them. This practical method of treating the road question has brought the constables and road commissioners of that county into closer relationship with practical road improvement than they have heretofore sustained. It is high time it were so. Ministerial Assignments. The 9th annual Erie conference of the M. E. Church, held at Titusville during the past week, made the following assignments of ministers for the ensuing year. Franklin District—J. N. Fradenburg, Presiding Elder; Chieora, R. A. His father, James Schwerdtfeld, who has been in that state for several months, writes such favorable reports that both sons will likely follow him to his new western home.—Sheffield Observer. Rev. O. H. Nickle, who has so successfully filled the Tionesta charge for the past three years, is stationed at Conneaut Lake this year by the Erie Conference. There is very general regard here at the departure from among us of Mr. Nickle and his estimable family, and only the best wishes go with them to their new field of labor. Wm. Horn received a letter from Joseph Chudaha stating that he had sailed on the sixth for his old home in Germany. Joseph will be remembered as the expert turner employed in the mantel works here for a couple of years, and who, on the fourth of July, mistook a cannon firecracker for a Roman candle and lost a portion of his right hand in the operation. Many Tionesta friends will be interested to learn of the marriage of Miss DeEtta Saul, a former popular girl of this place, to Mr. Loren Gibson. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's brother, W. H. Saul, 1607 Coal St., Pittsburg, Thursday evening, Sept. 1st, 1904, by Rev. Theodore N. Eaton, of the South Avenue M. E. church. The bride is well remembered here as an accomplished, bright and charming young lady, and the husband of her choice is a rising young business man of Warren, Pa., being connected as undertaker with the Ryers Furniture Co., of that city, where they will begin housekeeping at once.

Webb Not Guilty.

Harry Webb, the young man imprisoned in the jail here since July, had his trial in Warren last week, charged with the murder of Ora A. Filer, at Youngsville, on the night of July 4th. At 2:15 Saturday afternoon the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty." The Warren Mirror says: The verdict was received with emotion by the prisoner and his relatives who were present in court. His mother was not in attendance. Webb attempted to address the jury but only got as far as to say "Gentlemen" when Messrs. Higgins and Munn, his attorneys made him desist. A large number of his relatives and friends crowded around him and shook hands and congratulated him upon the outcome of the trial. As soon as N. N. Hanchett, of Tiltonville, foreman of the jury, announced the verdict, there was an outburst of handclapping on the part of a large number of the spectators. Judge Lindsey had a few moments before cautioned the audience that there must be no demonstration and he was naturally chagrined when his instructions were disobeyed. The court officers were instructed to bring before the court any who were seen applauding, and 14 were rounded up, most of them women. The court lectured the prisoners upon their behavior and fined three of them $2 each. Mr. Higgins made a plea for remission of the fines on the ground that the provocation had been great, and that it was a first offense. The court finally so ordered. The verdict was generally received with the greatest surprise, it being thought by those who heard the case that the prisoner would be found guilty upon at least the manslaughter count in the indictment. Upon the motion of his attorney Webb was a few moments later released from custody and left the court room surrounded by his relatives and friends. Upon the first ballot the jury was divided between a second degree verdict, a voluntary manslaughter verdict and not guilty. Seven ballots are said to have been taken, those believing that a conviction should be found being gradually won over by those favoring an acquittal. The youth of the prisoner and the good reputation established by the defense undoubtedly had much to do with the verdict. The jury was out for four hours and 15 minutes, and were occupied upon the case about three days and a half. Barn Destroyed by Lightning. The large and well-stored farm barn of C. F. Cropp, on Cropp Hill, was struck by lightning during the storm which passed over this section last Thursday afternoon, and in the twinkling of an eye was almost completely enveloped in flames. Not only the building but practically all the contents were consumed. The product of Mr. Cropp's summer's labor had been garnered and was stored in the barn and all went up in smoke. Of this product there were 35 tons of hay, 90 bushels of rye, 60 bushels of wheat, and about 300 bushels of oats. A fine driving horse belonging to W. H. Cropp was killed by the lightning bolt. Mr. Cropp had an insurance of $600 on the building, $300 on the contents. This will not cover much more than one-third of his loss, as there was a large amount of farm machinery in the barn, none of which could be saved. Cooing and Corn Roast. On Friday evening Sept. 9, 1904 the young people of Kelleitville started out on a cooing expedition and after procuring all the available corn in the vicinity started for what is known as "Indian Reservation" a few miles from the city, and there with the assistance of the red men speedily disposed of their spoils to the satisfaction of all, by corn roasts and corn boils, meanwhile they were highly entertained by war songs and war dances by the Chief and his noted band of hardy braves, but before the party broke up the fire water flowed so freely that one of our party became astranged from the party and was sat upon by the savages and returned home without his scalp, whereupon the party gave him a parody on "There'll be a Hot Time in the Old Town-to-Night" and dispersed to their respective wigwags, wishing the Chief many a happy night among the green henlocks of Forest county. A STRANGER. Letter to Tionesta Cash Store. Tionesta, Pa. Dear Sirs: Would you rather have your customers speak of your shoes as wearing well, as not running down at the heel, as turning water, and taking a shine; or wag their heads and say nothing? We'd rather have ours, at long intervals say: "We want some more pair, and we want Devoe." We know it isn't in human nature to paint very often; we don't expect them to come very often; we don't want 'em to. All we want is to paint what they have to paint, whenever they paint it; the longer the time the surer they are to come back. There's business enough in this world; there are houses enough to paint; let 'em take their time. If we were a shoemaker, we'd make shoes to last half a life time, and shoe the whole town. Yours truly, F. W. DEVOE & CO., P. S.—Jar. D. Davis sells our paint. Oil City and Titusville Low-Rate Sunday Excursion via Pennsylvania Railroad. On Sunday, September 25, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will run a low-rate excursion to Oil City and Titusville. Special train will leave Tionesta at 11:02 a. m. Returning will leave Titusville 7:00 p. m., Oil City 7:30 p. m. Round trip tickets, good going only on special train and good returning on special train September 25 or regular trains September 25, will be sold at rate of 75 cents from Tionesta. Tickets will not be good in Pullman cars. Sour Stomach. When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too frothy or easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. Sold by Dr. Dunn.

RECENT DEATHS.

Edwin W. Smiley, whose serious illness was mentioned in these columns last week, died at his home in Franklin on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Smiley had not enjoyed good health for two years past. In June last he was stricken with paralysis from which he partially recovered and was again able to go about. A second stroke occurred about three weeks ago. This was followed by a third on Sunday prior to his death. Ed. Smiley was a man of very lovely traits of character, not the least of which was his indomitable will, faithfulness to friends and his sympathetic nature. He was distinctively a self-made man. He was born in Franklin, Sept. 12, 1845, and lacked but five days of being 59 years of age. At an early age he began the Venango Citizen as an apprentice and from that time until a few years ago he was connected in some capacity with the printing and publishing trade. In April, 1899, he came to Tionesta and assumed control of the FOREST REPERCUSSOR, then owned by a stock company, and conducted the paper for a year. During his residence here he gathered about him a host of friends who were loth to see him again depart from the town. Returning to Franklin he purchased, with his brothers, S. H. and F. D. Smiley, the newspaper plant upon which he first learned to set type. From this he naturally drifted into politics, and until overtaken by ill health he was easily the leading figure in Venango county political affairs. At the time of his death he was chief clerk of the State Senate, a position which he had held for almost a quarter of a century, and in which capacity his great knowledge of parliamentary practice made him an almost indispensable adjunct of that branch of the law-making body of our State. Truly a good man went out when genial, kind-hearted and level-headed Ed. Smiley breathed his last. Peace to his ashes. SAMUEL SEIGWORTH. The subject of this sketch was born near Lickingville, Clarion county, on the 9th day of February, 1825. His death occurred September 10th, 1904. He was united in holy wedlock to Miss Elizabeth Fellows in 1850. This union was blessed with seven sons and three daughters. Two sons, Scott and Edward, preceded him to the spirit world. Edward was preparing himself to enter the holy ministry. He took sick at college and died away from home. Brother Seigworth united with the Evangelical Church over 40 years ago and was a true, consistent Christian all these years. He lived, toiled and "wrought righteousness" all his life time in the community in which he was born. He was a man of most excellent parts. He possessed most superior qualities of mind and heart, and will be greatly missed in the church and community. He is survived by his widow, five sons and three daughters, viz: William, of Armstrong county; Harrison, Westly, Riley and Warren, of near Lickingville. The daughters are: Mrs. Ella Slagle, wife of Rev. C. D. Slagle, of Franklin; Mrs. Isabelle Miles, wife of Wallace Miles, and Mrs. Jenae Hepler, wife of J. Hepler, all of near Lickingville. The burial took place at the Washington cemetery on Monday, at 3 p. m., the body being followed to its last resting place by a large concourse of relatives and friends. Rev. B. F. Feit, a former pastor on this charge, conducted the services. MORGAN. Miss Elizabeth Morgan, who has had her residence in Oil City for a number of years, died at her home in the Morgan block, that city, Friday morning, Sept. 9th, 1904, after an illness extending over a year, from cancer. Miss Morgan spent a large part of her early life in Tionesta, being aged about forty-eight years, and being a daughter of the late George Morgan, and a sister of our townsman, James and William Morgan. She will be pleasantly remembered here by a large circle of friends, being of a quiet, amiable disposition, and winning the high esteem of all who knew her. The remains were brought to Tionesta Monday morning and laid to rest beside those of her parents, in Riverside cemetery. Short services were held in the M. E. church here, her pastor, Rev. Dr. T. R. Thornburg, of Oil City Trinity church officiating. He spoke briefly but very beautifully of the simplicity and earnest Christian character of the deceased, who had patiently borne her suffering to the end. The floral offerings were many and very beautiful. Miss Morgan is survived by one sister, Mrs. Sarah Keating of St. Petersburg, and four brothers, James and William of Tionesta, Fred M., of Denver, Col., and Gilbert of the West Virginia oil fields. All but the latter were present at the obsequies. ABBOTT. Miss Mary Abbott died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Downing, Tonawanda, N. Y., September 5th, 1904, after an operation for appendicitis. Miss Abbott was the daughter of the late Marlin and Margaret Hunter Abbott, and was born at Geneva, Crawford county, Pa., Feb. 11, 1857. She made her home in the vicinity of her birthplace for some time after the death of her parents, and for the past eight years has followed the profession of trained nurse, and lived with her sister above referred to. Deceased had been a devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal church from early childhood and had kept the faith to the last. Besides the sister mentioned she is survived by three brothers, Wallace, James and our townsman, M. E. Abbott, all of whom were present at her funeral, which was held on the 7th inst. In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. "Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hanchett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." Sold by Dr. Dunn. Very Low Home-seekers Rates via the Nickel Plate Road to the West, Northwest, South and Southwest, first and third Tuesdays in each month. Long return limit and stop over privileges. One way Colonist rates to the West and Northwest, Sept. 15th to Oct. 15th inclusive. Splendid opportunity for parties wishing to locate in the West. Wonder why there was such a great difference in the prices of various brands of EXTRACT OF VANILLA? It is because some are diluted, some adulterated, and others are made from poor vanilla beans. It costs no more than many cheap brands and has 2 or 3 times the flavoring power. 25c a Bottle. BOVARD'S PHARMACY.
