

THE ARNER AGENCY

Represents all the leading Fire Insurance Companies...

TITLE GUARANTY AND TRUST CO.

which furnishes security for County and township officials.

HOTEL LICENSES

at a nominal fee. A nice line of Real Estate Deals always to be had at this agency.

C. M. ARNER & SON,

TONESTA and MARIENVILLE, PA.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Joe Levi, Ad. Lammers, Ad. Devoe & Co. Letter. Win. B. James, Ad. Penn's Ry. Readers.

—Oil market closed at $1.63.—Oil and gas leases at this office.

—See "Hells" the heater, at McKinley's hardware store.

—A killing frost last night, one that will open the chestnut buds.

—The North East Breeze says the crop of Concord grapes will exceed last year's output by 50 per cent.

—The residents of South Elm Street have been doing the elegant in shaping up and improving their properties for the winter.

—A merry ground planted on a vacant lot down on Walnut street is nightly resplendent with hundreds of nickels.

—Fresh shipments of grapes arriving every day at the White Star Grocery.

—The party who took a child's red coat with white collar from the Hotel Weaver hall is known, but it seems returned the matter will be dropped.

—How many houses painted with Lawrence? See the list of satisfied customers.

—When troubled with constipation try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.

—A full account of the convention of the Forest County Woman's Christian Temperance Union, held at Endeavor recently, will be found on the fourth page of to-day's REPUBLICAN.

—For two weeks only—this week and next—I will be at Brookville fair grounds with a carload of horses.

—Counterfeit silver dollars, of the date of 1891, are in circulation and the public is warned to be on the lookout for them.

—George I. Davis, Tionesta's artistic painter, was up at West Hickory last week putting the finishing touches on the beautiful new M. E. chapel and parsonage.

—Eben Campbell, a brother of Joseph C. Campbell, died at Leola, E. K. county, Wednesday of last week.

—A charter was granted by the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, at its meetings held in Philadelphia recently for the establishing of a lodge of Free and Accepted Masons in Marienville, says the Express.

—Wanted—A good reliable man, with horse and rig preferred, for Tionesta and surrounding towns to distribute circulars, samples, tack signs, etc.

—Hugh E. Carnahan, an old and well known oil operator, died at his home at Fagundes, Wednesday of last week.

—A dwelling house on a farm owned by our townsman, Moses Hepler, located between Johnstown and Newsmansville, was burned last Saturday forenoon.

—The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres., J. J. Young; Sec., W. C. Sweeney; C. H. Wilton, Marienville; Treas., J. C. Hubert, East Hickory; Executives: Committee—W. E. Witherspoon, J. L. Wood, John Gove, J. J. P. Morrow, G. W. Bova, J. W. Robinson, Tionesta.

—If any of our friends that happen to be a little behind in their subscription accounts should be attending court next week it would be a good time to call and "shake hands" with the editor.

—Harry Crispen, a young man aged 15 years and living at Goliza, while chopping in the woods Tuesday of last week, cut his foot very badly.

—The first frost of the season occurred in this section on the night of the 15th, last Thursday.

—Wednesday of last week, while Mrs. Charles Walters and Mrs. Peter Hepler were driving down the Smoky Hill road, a hold-back strap broke, allowing the buggy to strike the horse's heels, and the consequence was a runaway.

—Low Arner landed a couple of nice pike at the river bridge one morning last week, and saw another twice as big, but he was too shy and cunning to take the bait which Lew had fixed up for him.

—Mrs. John Gillespie, field secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, will give a lecture in the Presbyterian church next Friday evening, Sept. 23, at 7:30 o'clock.

—The residents of South Elm Street have been doing the elegant in shaping up and improving their properties for the winter.

—Court for the trial of civil and criminal causes will convene next Monday, and the indications are that the entire week will be taken up in the disposition of the several cases pending.

—Mr. and Mrs. Simon P. Whitman, of the Borough, were called upon last Wednesday morning to mourn the death of their youngest son, William, aged 18 months, death being caused by cholera infantum, the illness being of a short duration.

—A Terpsichorean maestro announces that the jig, in dancing, is to again become fashionable.

—Philip Wolf and Bert Hanhold, the carpenters of this corner have repaired the hinder school house.

—It will interest some of our readers to know that the new Governor-elect of Maine, Hon. W. T. Cobb, is personally known to a number of our citizens.

—Speaking of the "good old times of our grandfathers' days," a well known local attorney, in conversation with a Meadville Tribune-Republican representative Wednesday recalled an old letter among his grandfather's papers which referred to four gallons of whiskey, two gallons of brandy and a quantity of wine which "had been provided for the entertainment of the ministerial visitors."

—A new monument has been erected in Franklin township at the point where the Riddle brothers made their last stand two years ago.

—James Albough of Hickory township informs us that work on the roads in the southern portion of that township has been completed for the season.

—The Veterans' Reunion. Providence was kind and smiled graciously upon the old veterans yesterday when they met here once more to shake hands and mingle with each other in their annual reunion.

—Chas. Southworth, of Buck Mills, who was re-unioning with his old comrades here yesterday, gave the REPUBLICAN a pleasant call.

—Mrs. Ed. Youngk, of Wilkensburg, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity for the past month, returned to her home yesterday.

—Miss Elva Lanson left Monday to enter Allegheny College at Meadville as a student during the coming winter term.

—Mrs. L. M. Webber, of Lucinda, Clarion county was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. G. C. Miller, a part of last week.

—Miss Edith Hopkins departed yesterday for Chambersburg, Pa., where she will attend Wilson College this winter.

—Misses Martha and Nannie Morrow, teachers at Hickory and Tidoute respectively, were home to visit their parents last Saturday.

—Mrs. Robert Hunter and Children, of Grunderville, and Mrs. Geo. Kastner, of Pitsburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Whitman last week.

—Mrs. H. M. Wheeler, of Tidoute, is visiting Mrs. Wm. McKee, of the township. Her son, Willie, who was with her, returned home Monday.

—T. J. VanGiesen, of Leeburg, came up yesterday to re-union with his old comrades, of whom he met many besides a host of his old Tionesta friends.

—Chas. Amann was down from Warren a couple of days last week and while here purchased E. W. Bowman's Oldsmobile, which he drove home Saturday.

—Dr. C. C. Yingling and wife, Editor Sam Pickens, and Miss Maude Lininger, of Marienville, have been representing Forest county at the St. Louis fair the past week.

—At Youngsville, Warren county, the other evening, the people showed their disapproval of the verdict of not guilty in the Webb murder case.

—The attention of New York state clergymen is called to the law passed at the last session of the legislature, which makes it unlawful for a girl under 18 years of age to marry in the state, with or without the consent of the parents.

—Bernard Gorman, who was shot while in the act of committing a burglary in the Presbyterian parsonage at Falls Creek, Jefferson county, last June, died of his injuries in the Brookville jail on the 12th inst.

—Mrs. John Gillespie, field secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, will give a lecture in the Presbyterian church next Friday evening, Sept. 23, at 7:30 o'clock.

—Mr. and Mrs. Simon P. Whitman, of the Borough, were called upon last Wednesday morning to mourn the death of their youngest son, William, aged 18 months, death being caused by cholera infantum, the illness being of a short duration.

—A Terpsichorean maestro announces that the jig, in dancing, is to again become fashionable.

—Philip Wolf and Bert Hanhold, the carpenters of this corner have repaired the hinder school house.

—It will interest some of our readers to know that the new Governor-elect of Maine, Hon. W. T. Cobb, is personally known to a number of our citizens.

—Speaking of the "good old times of our grandfathers' days," a well known local attorney, in conversation with a Meadville Tribune-Republican representative Wednesday recalled an old letter among his grandfather's papers which referred to four gallons of whiskey, two gallons of brandy and a quantity of wine which "had been provided for the entertainment of the ministerial visitors."

—A new monument has been erected in Franklin township at the point where the Riddle brothers made their last stand two years ago.

—James Albough of Hickory township informs us that work on the roads in the southern portion of that township has been completed for the season.

—The Veterans' Reunion. Providence was kind and smiled graciously upon the old veterans yesterday when they met here once more to shake hands and mingle with each other in their annual reunion.

—Chas. Southworth, of Buck Mills, who was re-unioning with his old comrades here yesterday, gave the REPUBLICAN a pleasant call.

—Mrs. Ed. Youngk, of Wilkensburg, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity for the past month, returned to her home yesterday.

—Miss Elva Lanson left Monday to enter Allegheny College at Meadville as a student during the coming winter term.

—Mrs. L. M. Webber, of Lucinda, Clarion county was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. G. C. Miller, a part of last week.

—Miss Edith Hopkins departed yesterday for Chambersburg, Pa., where she will attend Wilson College this winter.

—Misses Martha and Nannie Morrow, teachers at Hickory and Tidoute respectively, were home to visit their parents last Saturday.

—Mrs. Robert Hunter and Children, of Grunderville, and Mrs. Geo. Kastner, of Pitsburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Whitman last week.

—Mrs. H. M. Wheeler, of Tidoute, is visiting Mrs. Wm. McKee, of the township. Her son, Willie, who was with her, returned home Monday.

—T. J. VanGiesen, of Leeburg, came up yesterday to re-union with his old comrades, of whom he met many besides a host of his old Tionesta friends.

—Chas. Amann was down from Warren a couple of days last week and while here purchased E. W. Bowman's Oldsmobile, which he drove home Saturday.

—Dr. C. C. Yingling and wife, Editor Sam Pickens, and Miss Maude Lininger, of Marienville, have been representing Forest county at the St. Louis fair the past week.

—Miss Berdenia Ross, of Oil City's popular trained nurses, visited Mrs. E. W. Bowman over last Sabbath.

—Misses Sarah Vickroy and Edna Horner, of Johnstown, Pa., sister and niece respectively, of Mrs. H. E. McKinley, who have been visiting here for the past five weeks, returned home last Friday.

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

—M. A. Felt was in Oil City on business Saturday.

—Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Proper were Oil City visitors Monday.

—Mrs. M. A. Felt spent the past week with friends in Kelleitville.

—Miss Emma Lawrence is a guest of friends in Oil City this week.

—T. F. Ritchey, Esq., was in Warren on legal business last Friday.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. Agnew were visitors to Oil City last Friday afternoon.

—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lindel, Monday morning of this week, a son.

—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Anthony of Nebraska, Sept. 21, 1904, a daughter.

—John Joyce is up from Franklin on a couple of weeks' visit with his parents.

—Mrs. J. H. Kelly and Miss Artie Robinson were Oil City visitors Friday.

—Mrs. S. T. Carson and children spent Saturday with her mother at East Hickory.

—Miss Verna Brown, of Sistersville, W. Va., is a guest of Miss Mame Fitzgerald.

—Mrs. P. K. George and Mrs. J. B. Muse were visitors to Franklin a part of last week.

—Mrs. W. W. Grove and daughter, Miss Maude, spent Sunday with friends in Oil City.

—Mrs. Chas. Pope and Baby, of Kelleitville, were guests of Mrs. J. A. Huling Friday.

—E. E. Fleming and F. P. Amster were among the business visitors to Oil City Monday.

—Miss Bird Foreman returned Saturday from a visit with friends in Spar-tansburg, Pa.

—Amon Carson, of West Hickory, left for Meadville Monday to attend Allegheny College.

—W. J. Baughman, of Oil City, was a guest of his brother-in-law, A. C. Brown, Esq., Saturday.

—C. W. Smith of the Hoff Business College, Warren, was a visitor to Tionesta Saturday.

—Hiram Irwin, home on a furlough from the U. S. Navy, is visiting his uncle, S. D. Irwin, Esq.

—S. R. Maxwell was in Pittsburgh on business connected with his oil agency a part of last week.

—Mrs. Frank Withereil, of Oil City, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. S. H. Lusher, yesterday.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Williams, of Grove City, Pa., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bova.

—Mrs. John J. Neal, of Conneaut, Ohio, is here on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. D. W. Reck.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hunter and children, of Green township, were visitors to town yesterday.

—Mrs. C. Y. Detar and niece, Miss Myrna Detar, of Kelleitville, were Oil City visitors yesterday.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Anderson, of Warren, visited their sons, Charles and G. T., here over Sabbath.

—Alfa Dunkle came up from Oil City last Saturday and took his return trip down the river in a canoe.

They were accompanied as far as Oil City by Mrs. McKinley, who visited friends there a couple of days.

—The Republicans of New Mexico have nominated Hon. W. H. Andrews, former State Senator from the Crawford district, for Territorial Delegate to Congress.

—Adam Emert has been very critically ill with heart trouble during the past week, Mr. Emert is past eighty years of age, and his physician has little hope for recovery.

—Mrs. J. F. Proper and son, Curtis, departed for Florida yesterday, where they will spend the winter.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bradt are entertaining the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wiswell of Oil City.

—At a small party given by Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Sharpe, in honor of Mrs. Elsie Kelly Rodgers, of Cincinnati, the public announcement of the engagements and approaching marriages of Miss Emma Lawrence to Mr. Edward Fitzgerald, and Miss Iva Holman to Mr. Merton Mealy, was made.

—Fred M. Morgan, of Denver, Colorado, called east to attend the funeral of his sister, the late Miss Lizzie Morgan, came up from Oil City last week to spend a day with Tionesta friends.

—James W. Mong, who some months ago moved to the Kansas oil field, located at Independence, has returned to this section with his family, and will make Pennsylvania his home again.

—Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Maude Butler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Butler, and one of Tionesta's choicest young ladies, and Mr. H. M. Dove, of Warren, Pa., next Wednesday, a week from to-day.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

—The young couple will go to housekeeping at once in their new home, which has already been nicely fitted up for the occasion.

Did You Ever!

Wonder why there was such a great difference in the prices of various brands of

EXTRACT OF VANILLA?

It is because some are diluted, some adulterated, and others are made from poor vanilla beans.

It is full strength unadulterated, of full flavoring value. You can make no mistake in buying THIS VANILLA.

It costs no more than many cheap brands and has 2 or 3 times the flavoring power.

25c a Bottle. BOVARD'S PHARMACY.

At a small party given by Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Sharpe, in honor of Mrs. Elsie Kelly Rodgers, of Cincinnati, the public announcement of the engagements and approaching marriages of Miss Emma Lawrence to Mr. Edward Fitzgerald, and Miss Iva Holman to Mr. Merton Mealy, was made.

Something is Going to DROP! Watch this Space Next Week!

NEW GOODS GALORE AT HOPKINS' STORE.

High-Grade Shoes For Men. We're looking for the best end of it. But we are not all getting it, especially the men who are not wearing our Joe Levi Sycamore, Seneca and Centre Streets, OIL CITY, PA.

The Stetson The Cowboy and the Ranchman demand quality and durability in a hat. They will have—only the Stetson. Wherever you find a man under a Stetson Hat, you'll find a Stetson friend.

LAMMERS ONE PRICE CLOTHIER 41 & 43 SENECA ST. OIL CITY, PA.

Always Scores OF WEDDING GIFTS To select from at our store. We are never satisfied in showing from a meager stock any more than you would be in selecting from one. We have not only goods suitable for Wedding Gifts, but articles for gifts of all kinds.

WATCH INSPECTOR L. S. & M. S. and P. R. R. HARVEY FRITZ, THE LEADING JEWELER. 32 SENECA ST., OIL CITY, PA.