PARKER's speech and letter of acceptance have fallen with a dull thud. But, then, his party has no issue.

Ir Judge Parker continues to give valuable directions at the last minute this will be known as the P. S. campaign.

This country will refuse to be insured in Judge Parker's company so long as it cannot find out what sort of policy he is

IT is all very well to be cautious, but Parker's silence leads one to suspect he has been warned that whatever he says will be used against him.

IF elected, Judge Parker declares that he will revoke President Roosevelt's pension order. Judge Parker has about the same love for the old soldier that Cleveland had.

WE were told at the beginning of this all was voiced by Congressman James S. campaign that the Democratic party would return to sanity, but recent developments lead one to suspect that it has forgotten just where sanity is.

REPUBLICAN'S, don't put off the payment of your taxes another day. You will want to vote on the 8th of November and the only way to be sure of your right to vote is to pay your taxes on or before next Saturday, October 8th.

THE death of Senator George F. Hoar of Massachusetts, on the 29th uit., removes one of America's most distinguished and greatly beloved statesmen, whose wise council in the affairs of the nation could illy be spared. He will go down in history as one of America's great

THE Democratic press, which is so repeatedly calling attention to the fact that Republican expenditures have increased from administration to administration, might spend a little time to advantage in explaining why the expenditures during Cleveland's second term were so much greater than during his first term, even reckoned on a per capita basis.

THE way business men and great business concerns are going ahead with their plans of improvement is the best argukeeping the present administration in power. Capital is said to be timid, but this autumn witnesses bold investments in all directions regardless of the fact that a presidential contest is pending.

A REMARKABLE admission is made by a very prominent metropolitan newspaper to the effect that platform-makers, candidates and spell-binders, are powerless in their efforts to frame the issues upon which the campaign turns. One who has read President Roosevelt's letter of acceptance is certainly not at a loss to know what are the issues of the day.

In a political campaign supposed to be serious enough to change the policy of the government the intelligent and serious American voter will demand something better as a reason for changing his party preferences than carping criticisisms of the nation's Chief Executive or chronic opposition to the party in power. Many once dominant issues are now in the pulitical graveyard.

MANY of the epigrammatic sentences of the President's letter of acceptance will be preserved for many decades to come, and none longer than the following: "Within the limits defined by the Nahe wrongs no one else."

Possibly some people have forgotten that as long ago as March 18th, Grover Cleveland, writing from Princeton, N.J., approved of President Roosevelt's much liscussed and denounced pension order. He said. "I have noticed that the Commissioners have merely construed the law so as to make the change. So far as I can see, the change is in keeping with the law." And Grover Cleveland is an L. L. D., and credited with being able to see as much as the next man. Moreover he made a pension order himself while president which Judge Parker will have as little chance to revoke.

THERE is a strong sentiment on the Pacific coast in favor of the policy of the Republican party regarding the Philippine Islands. The merchan's and business men of that section of the country see that their future interests are largely bound up with the development of our far eastern possessions, and the growth of trade in Asia. Until the Panama canal is finished they cannot hope to do much business with Europe. It is therefore no matter for surprise that these gentlemen have largely contributed, unsolicited, to the Republican campaign fund. The lumbermen of Washington and Oregon are especially interested in the Philippine Islands.

The Great Barbeene at Monarch Park.

Uuquestionably the greatest event in political annals that has ever taken place in Northwestern Pennsylvania was the of last week, when a barbecue of roast ox and burgeo soup was intersperced with music, fine speeches and a general gala day for all who attended. The crowd was to 15,000 people, the street car receipts showing an attendance of nearly eighteen thousand during the day. All this vast ground but that was filled to the extent of audience, while the speech-making was Co.) Breeze. in progress. A number of the Nation's most notable men were there, friends and colleagues of Mr. Sibley, and all bore highest tribute to his great worth as a representative in the American Congress. As the Oil City Blizzard properly states it, every man who spoke made an excellent speech, and those who were so fortunate as to be present and listen to the addresses were entertined in a most excellent manner by a flow of wit and humor such as is rarely encountered at a political assemblage. The meeting was in the nature of a family gathering, the speakers being warm personal friends and ascociates of Mr. Sibley, who, when they heard about the barbeene, sent him word that they were coming whether he invited effort in the direction of elucidating all | ton Truth. the more complex political problems, the speakers vied with each other in telling bring out. FINE WORK FOR ROOSEVELT

The Democrats Are at a Loss For Ammunition and Many Are Mak-Ing Little Show of Fighting.

Pennsylvania editors continue their effective work in the campain for Roosevelt and Fairbanks, and they are not leaving the Democrats any ground to stand upon in the contest in which the minority party is so heavily handicapped. There has been a constant and scathing fire from the Republican batteries, and in many cases the Democrats have not even dared to respond. Here are a few of the latest shots at the opposition: Vote For Republican Congressmen. Suppose that the present Republican ouse of representatives should give place to a Democratic majority and John Sharp Williams should become speaker of the house, who would most likely displace Mr. Sereno E. Democrats Are Unhappy. The Democratic campaign is not many weeks old, but that it has been unsatisfactory from the Parker point of view is evident.
