Republican Ticket.

- NATIONAL: Theodore Roosevelt, President; Charles W. Fairbanks, Vice President. STATE: John P. Elkin, Supreme Court Justice. COUNTY: Joseph C. Sibley, Congress; John H. Robertson, Assembly; Frank X. Kreidler, Associate Judge; Wm. H. Harrison, Treasurer.

The peaceful settlement of the Wisconsin quarrel insures that State to the Republicans by at least 60,000 majority.

Henry Gassaway's "whirlwind tour" should prepare him to meet the business end of a cyclone which is due about November 8.

The Hon. Isador Rayner, the new Senator from Maryland, rears back on his hind legs and yells out that Roosevelt is unsafe. Hot stuff!

Amidst the only use the Parker campaign is now is to provide places for the Bryan men who need a job, and it will not do that if the funds give out.

A Democratic worker is said to have admitted in an unguarded moment that a miracle is the only hope for his party this year. A Balaam miracle?

Mr. Peary is about to make another dash for the North Pole. It is to be hoped that some one will not have to make a dash after Peary, as is usually the case.

After November 8 Judge Parker will be in a position to write a telegram announcing that the Republican tariff system, like the gold standard, is irrevocably established.

Since that report of Senator Clark's contribution of $1,000,000 to the Democratic campaign fund, several old Democratic States are insisting on being placed in the doubtful column.

It is now stated that the nomination of Henry Gassaway Davis will not gain 500 votes for the Democratic party. It was expected, however, to gain the price of a good many thousand votes.

The Democratic party has been on both sides of nearly every important question during the last forty years, and the best they can boast of is being on the right side at the wrong time.

We haven't heard of any Democrats trying to answer Senator Knox's great speech. Nobody but a bilgeon anyhow would be foolish enough to chew on a file. They have more gumption than we thought.

Hon. James Kay Jones, of Arkansas, the ex-chairman of the Democratic committee, is again predicting Democratic success. We have a very distinct recollection of the same predictions by him in '96 and 1900.

The Hon. John Sharpe Williams says Mr. Roosevelt is no better than his party. He does not claim to be. Neither is Judge Parker any better than his party, which believes in free trade, free silver and free riot.

Despite the heavy payments for the Panama canal and other improvements the treasury receipts are now in daily excess of the disbursements. In other words the treasury department is not going Democratic.

Democrats claim to have helped to start the Spanish-American war; yet they try to find fault with the President because he believes in being ready to lick any fellow who will be satisfied with nothing less.

After all, isn't it a fairly good commentary on Roosevelt that half the trusts are said by his opponents to be lining up against him because they are afraid of him and the other half tumbling over themselves to make friends with him for the same reason?

EX-GOVERNOR CRANE'S appointment to the Senate to succeed the late Senator Hoar ought to be very satisfactory to the President, who entertains a high opinion of Mr. Crane's abilities. A Cabinet office was declined by Mr. Crane. He is not an orator, but he is a man of sound judgment, is familiar with national politics and with the affairs of Massachusetts, and has had wide experience in business, and can be of great usefulness to New England. He was one of the best governors Massachusetts ever had, and will be an honor to the State.

JOHN H. ROBERTSON.

FRANK X. KREIDLER.

WM. H. HARRISON.

OUR COUNTY CANDIDATES.

The local ticket of the Republican party in Forest county this year is an exceptionally meritorious one in all respects, the candidates named for these offices being men in whom the people repose confidence, and are worthy of the support of every Republican in the county. That the ticket will be elected by safe majorities scarcely admits of doubt, overconfidence alone can in the least jeopardize the outcome. While the campaign is and has been a quiet one it is not one in which the voters are taking no interest, by any means. The Republicans, and a good many Democrats as well, are satisfied to let well enough alone, and do not want a change, and they will be at the polls and vote accordingly. A few words regarding our nominees for county offices will not be amiss at this time:

JOHN H. ROBERTSON, of Tionesta Borough, Republican nominee for the important office of Assembly, is so well and favorably known to the people of Forest county that he scarcely needs an introduction. His six years' service in the office of Prothonotary was so well performed and so highly satisfactory to the people that they seemed willing to extend him further favors, and he was nominated for Assembly, and his election on the 8th day of next November can with positive certainty be predicted. That he will render the same attentive and efficient service at Harrisburg goes without saying. Mr. Robertson has, we might say, been reared in Forest county, having spent a greater portion of his life within its borders, and having been so situated as to know its every need, hence will be in a position to work and vote intelligently on any measure that may come before the legislature affecting the interests of the county. Filled with ambition and energy to do his best for his constituents he will rapidly make friends in the House, a feature which counts much for the usefulness of a member of Assembly. There are important matters to come before the legislature at its next session, not the least of which will be the election of a United States Senator. Pennsylvania will want to send a man there that will hold up the hands of President Roosevelt. Mr. Robertson may be depended upon to do his duty faithfully in this as well as in all other matters touching the welfare of his people. Do your whole duty by giving him your loyal, hearty and united support at the approaching election.

FRANK X. KREIDLER, of Green Township, is the Republican nominee for Associate Judge of Forest County. Mr. Kreidler, who is well and most favorably known throughout our county as one of its most excellent citizens, was born in the Grand Duchy of Baden, Germany, in 1842. He came when quite a young man, 1859, to the United States, and for three years made his home near New York City. In 1862 Mr. Kreidler united with the Methodist Episcopal church, of which he has ever since been a consistent member and one of the pillars of that organization. Afterwards becoming a resident of Brookville, Jefferson county, he enlisted in 1864 in Company B, 21st Pa. Vols., and served in the army till the close of the war, receiving an honorable discharge from the service. He again located in Brookville, and, saving his earnings invested in timber land, and in 1884 James H. Morrison, the present postmaster at Marienville, manufactured hardwood lumber for Mr. Kreidler from a tract located near that place, in Jonkes township. In this same year Mr. Kreidler attended Duff's college at Pittsburg, the better to fit himself for a business career. In 1886, eighteen years ago, he purchased an interest in the Nebraska property, and shortly after moved here and became actively engaged in the manufacture of lumber, boats, barges, etc., the firm being known as Collins, Darrah & Co. to the present time. The extent of this firm's business is so well known to our people that it is scarcely necessary to go into details, suffice it to say, that in all of Mr. Kreidler's business affairs, reaching up into the hundreds of thousands of dollars, and coming in contact with hundreds of laboring men, he has never had an unkind word nor a disagreement with a single person employed by him. So uniformly kind, honorable and fair have his dealings been that one never hears anything but the highest praise from those who have been employed under his management or had business dealings with him, and one often hears it remarked that Mr. Kreidler was never known to do an unjust or unfair act against a fellow man, but that friend or foe will always receive courteous treatment and equal and exact justice at his hands. Mr. Kreidler's Republicanism and loyalty to his country have never for a moment been questioned. As a member of the Grand Army of the Republic and of the grand old Republican party his record, as in all business dealings, is clean and honorable. Such a man the Republican party of Forest county presents to the people as its candidate for the office of Associate Judge. Need we be told to insure him the united support of every loyal Republican. We think not. A vote for Frank X. Kreidler is a vote for a man with a clean, honorable and upright record.

WILLIAM H. HARRISON, of Green Township, the Republican nominee for County Treasurer, is one of the honest, hardworking and industrious farmers of our county. Mr. Harrison is a life-long resident of the county, having been born and reared within its present boundaries. No man has borne a more honorable record than he. A hard worker from his youth up, he had by honest toil cleared a good farm and was comfortably situated until a certain sickness, resulting in the loss of a leg, which was taken off close to the hip to save his life. Not content to be idle, although scarcely able to do manual labor, he still continued as best he could to conduct his farming pursuits, and by pluck and energy managed to "keep his head above water," as it were, and by frugal living has kept his premises in good condition, educated his daughters and kept out of debt, but for one in his condition you may know it has been a hard struggle and up-hill work. To-day he asks his friends to give him a lift in the direction of helping him to an office for which his party has nominated him, and the duties of which he is thoroughly competent to perform to the satisfaction of the people of the county. Mr. Harrison is not a candidate from choice, and would perhaps not have asked the people for this office had he been permitted to keep his health or had he not met with the serious misfortune of losing his limb. Notwithstanding this he is worthy of the position to which he aspires on general principles, having always been a man of steady habits, honest and straight in all his dealings and a kind and sympathetic neighbor. Give Mr. Harrison your vote and hearty support, because he reserves it and will appreciate your help, and when you have performed that service for him, you will feel the better for having done so and will never have cause to regret your action.

Hurray for Our "Uncle Joe."

"Speaker Cannon is all right, but I want to tell you that there is another 'Uncle Joe' in the field besides the distinguished commoner from Illinois," remarked Dr. Edward Bedloe, the famous orientalist and bon vivant, at the Shoreham, Washington.

"The other 'Uncle Joe' is the Hon. Joseph Sibley, of Pennsylvania, and I am here to proclaim the fact that he will be the next Republican candidate for governor of the great Keystone State. What's the matter with Sibley? Nothing, absolutely nothing. He is not only big enough to be governor of Pennsylvania, but big enough for President. As a representative of the people he has been a pronounced success: charitable, patriotic, and broad minded, he has impressed himself on the public as one of the best and noblest of the public men of this age."

It was an unhappy but suggestive reference which ex-President Cleveland made to the influences which prevailed upon him to ally himself with the Democratic party, when on reaching his majority he chose to support the candidate who was least fitted of all public men of his time to meet the overshadowing question which was fast forcing itself upon the stage of American politics in 1856. The gathering of the aggressive and vigorous elements of the north under the banner of the newly organized Republican party, with a proclaimed purpose to meet squarely the moral issue which had been persistently evaded by the Democratic and Whig parties, made no appeal to the sympathies of the young Cleveland entering upon the political scene. He chose Buchanan and the party dominated by the slave-owners of the South, rather than Fremont and the party which had arisen in response to the newly awakened demands of the North. Lincoln and Grant and all of the admirable figures that pressed to the front in the great conflicts, political and martial, which Grover Cleveland witnessed while in the first flush of young manhood, made no appeal to his sympathies. He started out in political life by supporting the weakest of American Presidents and his article on "Why a Young Man Should Vote the Democratic Ticket," the weakest published paper which bears his signature, offers nothing to the young man of today but an incomprehensible explanation of the first choice of a young man who was not touched by the growing spirit of his day and chose as his political ideal the unprincipled Buchanan.

Some Sensible Advice. It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has been settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by J. C. Dunn.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullahoma, Ontario, Canada. Sold by Dr. Dunn.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.

Forty million bottles of August Flower sold in the United States alone since its introduction. And the demand for it is still growing. Isn't that a fine showing of success? Don't it prove that August Flower has had unflinching success in the cure of indigestion and dyspepsia—the two greatest enemies of health and happiness? Does it not afford the best evidence that August Flower is a sure specific for all stomach and intestinal disorders?—that it has proved itself the best of all liver regulators? August Flower has a matchless record of over thirty-five years in curing the ailing millions of these distressing complaints—a success that is becoming wider in its scope every day, at home and abroad, as the volume of August Flower spreads. Trial bottles 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by J. D. Davis.
