Republican Ticket

- NATIONAL: President, THEODORE ROOSEVELT, of New York; Vice President, CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS, of Indiana; STATE: Supreme Court Justice, JOHN P. ELKIN, of Indiana County; COUNTY: President, JOSEPH C. SIBLEY, of Venango County; Assembly, JOHN H. ROBERTSON, of Tionesta; Associate Judge, FRANK N. KREITLER, of Green Twp.; Treasurer, WM. U. HARRISON, of Green Twp.

Get out and vote next Tuesday, Republicans.

PARKER'S "talk" is like a fish caught in a net—every time he wiggles his tail he gets in a worse tangle.

The Democratic cause has reached a point where stimulants have to be administered to keep it alive until election day.

REPUBLICANS find it difficult to get any takers at 4 to one on Roosevelt—well it looks like a shame to take the money, even at that.

GROVER CLEVELAND is going to present Judge Parker with a silver horseshoe. Col. Bryan has already contributed a gold brick.

A FOLLOWER of Mr. Dowie who killed himself left a note saying that Dowie got all his money. What did he think Dowie was in business for?

HAVE you seen anything of that Democratic whirlwind that was predicted for the last of October? Some one seems to have frightened it off.

THE election predictions sent out by the Democratic National Committee appear to have increased the betting odds in favor of Roosevelt.

DON'T be a stay-at-home next Tuesday. Get out and vote for Roosevelt and the whole Republican ticket, and a continuance of the prosperous times.

"I AM not willing to take the responsibility of four years more of Theodore Roosevelt," says Mr. Bryan. The President will relieve him of that responsibility.

VOTERS in some of the far western states have heard that there is a man by the name of Parker running for President, but most of them discredit the rumor.

JUDGE PARKER believes that the government of the country costs too much. He would be perfectly safe in consenting to a radical reduction of the presidential salary.

WORKINGMEN who got $1 under Grover Cleveland are getting from $2 to $4 under Roosevelt. Do you think you could bribe these men to vote the Democratic ticket?

THE situation in Indiana is so distressing under a Democratic standpoint that Chairman Tiggart will soon be reduced to the extremity of making a series of pork talks.

JUDGE PARKER is getting so little advertising out of the campaign that he doubts if he will get an invitation to go on the stage or write a book after the election is over.

THE airship experiment at St. Louis was quite a success and gives promise of future success in that art. This ought to be encouraged as people are being crowded off the earth.

It is said that John D. Rockefeller did not accumulate money until he was 37 years old. That probably explains why there are a few small spots of ground that he does not own.

EVERYONE knows that the object of the Democrats in putting Mr. Davis on the ticket was to put him in charge of the fat-frying pot, but the "giddy young thing" insists on "working" out his share in the campaign just as the other boys are doing.

ACCORDING to August Belmont, the Democrats do not expect to win this year, but will do something four years hence. At the present rate there is hardly likely to be enough of the party left by that time to do anything. It isn't expedient now of anything more effective than a bluff.

THE Republican ticket is this: Roosevelt, Fairbanks, Elkin, Sibley, Robertson, Kreidler, Harrison. One error (X) is sufficient to vote the whole of it. Put it in the large square opposite the name "Republican," on the left of the ballot and the thing is done, and well done. Get out and vote next Tuesday.

DEMOCRATIC PAPERS ARE ANNOUNCING that "Roosevelt is so greatly alarmed that he may take the stump," which moves the impertinent Oil City Blizzard to ask if "that is what is intended Parker to do?"

THE Democrats have gone to considerable trouble to show that President Roosevelt held views twenty years ago different to what they are now. That's nothing; the whole Democratic party changes its views every four years.

ALTHOUGH the betting in New York is now over six to one that Roosevelt will carry that state, the odds-givers have difficulty in getting bets placed, and it is predicted on good authority and by the best estimates based on actual canvasses that New York will give Roosevelt over one hundred thousand plurality, and that the chances for the election of the Republican candidate for Governor are also excellent. He is the favorite in the betting, with his chances for success growing brighter every day.

THERE is likely to be more than an ordinary slump in the vote of Dr. Salem Hellman, the Democratic Nominee for Congress in this district. Hon. J. B. Watson, of Marienville, who was the nominee of that party two years ago, is out hot-footed against the Doctor, whose nomination, he claims was made by unfair means. Mr. Watson was the choice of his county this year, and had he been nominated would no doubt have made a good run. He has issued a public statement in the Marienville Express denouncing in unmeasured terms the methods employed to defeat him, and calling on the members of his party to rebuke "a shameful continuance of polluted party machine conspirators." When Mr. Watson goes after a party he doesn't mince matters, and as he generally knows what he is talking about he strikes to kill.

Safe for Roosevelt.

The estimate of the Republican campaign managers gives 290 electoral votes as absolutely safe for President Roosevelt, 166 for Parker and 35 doubtful. The total vote in the electoral college is 476; necessary to a choice, 239. The electoral votes by states that are classed as safe beyond possibility of change are: California, 10; Connecticut, 7; Idaho, 3; Illinois, 27; Indiana, 15; Iowa, 13; Maine, 6; Massachusetts, 10; Michigan, 14; Minnesota, 11; Nebraska, 3; New Hampshire, 4; New Jersey, 12; New York, 39; North Dakota, 4; Ohio, 23; Oregon, 4; South Dakota, 4; Vermont, 4; Washington, 5; Wisconsin, 13. Total, 290.

The states classed as close or doubtful are Colorado, 3; Delaware, 3; Maryland, 3; Montana, 3; Nevada, 3; Utah, 3; West Virginia, 7; Wyoming, 3. Total, 35.

OF these states the Republican managers consider Delaware, Utah and West Virginia, with a total of 13 votes, decidedly favorable to the President, and should he carry them, his total vote in the electoral college would be 303 out of 476. They concede to Judge Parker 166 votes, and should all the States classed as doubtful go Democratic his total would be only 291, or 38 less than a majority.

The Republican campaign has been conducted without noise and without boasting, but those who have directed it say that the work has been done in a thorough manner, nothing left to luck or chance, and that there has been no rain-bow chasing. At the beginning an elaborate system of investigation was established and every move of the Democrats in every section of the country has been watched and developments reported to national headquarters.

An estimate based on careful investigation by a Washington correspondent gives Roosevelt 311 electoral votes to 163 for Parker. This calculation allows the Democrats, in addition to the Solid South, Maryland, Delaware and Nevada. Any one of these states is as likely to go Republican as Democratic.

REPUBLICANS HAVE A DUTY.

[Special Correspondence.] Harrisburg, Nov. 1.

If the good work which was begun weeks ago by the active Republicans of Pennsylvania shall be kept up until the polls are closed on Tuesday next, the prediction made by State Chairman Penrose some time ago that the Keystone State will give Roosevelt the largest majority ever given a presidential candidate, will be surely fulfilled.

But the leaders of the Republican organization in every county in the state have been impressed with the fact that to accomplish this result extraordinary efforts must be made during the remaining days of the campaign to get the voters interested in the election and to have them prepare not only to vote themselves but to get their neighbors to do likewise.

It should not be forgotten that the farmer who loans his wagon to haul voters to the polls does his party as great a service as does the manufacturer or the banker who signs a check to meet the campaign expenses of his party's organization. The young Republican who will agree to spend the whole or part of election day at the polls assisting the committeemen in getting out the vote should be entitled to recognition from his party in the future. The men who should be rewarded by the party leaders, and this is to be the policy followed under the state leadership of Senator Penrose, are those who give their time and energies to promote the interests of the party and its candidates.

Abraham Lincoln once said that there was no more patriotic duty a young man could perform than to interest his neighbors in the discussion of great political questions, and to have their vote for the party which stands for progress and the advancement of all of the material interests of the country.

In the present campaign there has been a widespread interest shown by the young men in the candidacy of President Roosevelt, and in the success of Republican candidates generally, and it is predicted that at the election of Tuesday next there will be a demonstration of young men at every polling place in this state which will attest in the most practical manner possible the fact that the Republican party is the party for the young American.

"STAY-AT-HOMERS" DANGEROUS.

It is known that the Republican "stay-at-homes" were responsible for the election of Cleveland on two occasions. A careful review of the election returns in each instance showed that had the Republicans been on the alert and got their voters to the polls, the Democratic candidate for president would have been defeated.

While, of course, everybody knows that Pennsylvania will go for Roosevelt by a large majority, and would do so without any campaigning on the part of the Republican committeemen, yet the majority would necessarily be a reduced one. A reduced Republican majority in this state this fall would be hailed with delight by the Democrats in every part of the country.

There is no certainty that the next national house of representatives will be Republican. Should a Democratic speaker of the house be elected, to be followed by the appointment of Democrats to all of the important places on the committees of congress, the interests of Pennsylvania would suffer irreparably. If on the top of this the Democrats could be able to point to a greatly reduced Republican majority in the Keystone state, due to indifference of Republicans, the consequences would be something terrible to contemplate.

The business and manufacturing interests of the state would be the first to suffer, and the wage earners would quickly feel the effect of Democratic ascendancy, as they did when Cleveland was president.

Democratic free soup houses are not desired by the voters of Pennsylvania, and the best way to insure themselves against this evil is for the voters to go to the polls and vote the full Republican ticket by placing a cross mark in the square to the right of the word Republican, which is at the top of the first column on the left-hand side of the official ballot.

No citizen can be in doubt as to the policy that is to be followed by the Republican party for the next four years. There is a new era of prosperity about dawning upon the American republic. It is dawning with much of promise for the future because the people believe that there is no doubt about the election of Roosevelt.

The people do not know what the Democrats would do in the event of the election of Parker and a Democratic house of representatives. They do not believe Parker knows himself. Parker has made so many blunders since his nomination for the presidency that his fellow countrymen fear his election would throw the business interests into a panic.

Fortunately the drift of popular sentiment is so strongly against Parker that nothing but the most remarkable anomaly on the part of Republicans could make his election possible. While it is noted that this has not been a campaign of sensational moves on the part of the Republican leaders, and that there has been less hurrah and less of the spectacular features of previous campaigns, it is believed that the Republican voters generally are impressed with the importance of a continuance of Republican supremacy in the national government, and that they will go in force to the polls on Tuesday next and vote for the full Republican ticket.

The Exact Thing Required for Constipation.

"As a certain purgative and stomach-purifier Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets seem to be the exact thing required, strong enough for the most robust, yet mild enough and safe for children and without that terrible griping so common to most purgatives," says R.
