SHARE IN GOVERNMENT.

Appeal to Czar From Representatives of Russian Communists.

Japs Repulsed at Port Arthur—Warning to British Shippers—President at St. Louis—Nineteenth Week of Strike—C. K. G. Billings Buys Major Delmar.

"In order to secure the proper development of the life of the state and the people it is imperatively necessary that there be regular participation of national representatives, sitting as an especially elected body, to make laws, regulate the revenues and expenditure, and control the legality of the actions of the administration."
The above is the final form of the declaration of the zemstvo representatives in favor of the election of a body not merely to participate in legislation as at first reported but to be entrusted with the framing of the laws of the empire.
The meeting also adopted the declaration in favor of granting general amnesty to political offenders imprisoned or exiled by administrative order.
This completed program declaring the necessity of the participation by the people in the government was signed by 102 zemstvo presidents, including 30 presidents of provincial zemstvo committees out of 32 who attended the meeting.
The memorial will be presented within a couple of days to the minister of the interior, Prince Sviatopolk Mirsky, by a delegation composed of Presidents Shipoff, Petrunkevitch, Prince Ivoff, Count Helder and Rodiansky, the most prominent participants in the meeting.
The meeting of the zemstvos "first Russian congress" as it is now called, may mark the inauguration of a new era for Russia. Emperor Nicholas, the initiator of the plan for universal disarmament, may turn back upon the reactionaries and crown his reign by granting to his subjects the constitution which his grandfather had already prepared when he fell by the hand of an assassin.
Desperate Assault Expected Shortly
The report that the Japanese are concentrating their energies for a desperate assault on Port Arthur in view of the approach of the second Pacific squadron, is quite generally credited in official quarters at St. Petersburg.
Such a move has been expected to transpire as soon as the Japanese learned that the squadron's trip was an actuality and no mere demonstration. The authorities are prepared to hear terrible reports of the projected assault.
While not hazarding a guess whether the fortress can be carried if the besiegers are utterly regardless of human life, they are confident that General Stoessel will be able to make such an attack one of the costliest operations in history.
Japs Repulsed at Port Arthur.
Imperial headquarters at Tokio has issued the following announcement:
"The works for our attack having been nearly completed against Sung shu mountain (Port Arthur) and the forts lying eastward therefrom, a general assault was made on the afternoon of Nov. 26, but owing to the enemy's stubborn resistance our object has not yet been accomplished.
"The fighting still continues."
Warning to British Shippers.
Foreign Minister Lansdowne has written to the Chamber of Shipping, Chamber of Commerce and other bodies giving further warning with reference to British colliers and the Russian Pacific squadron explaining that British owners chartering their vessels for such purposes as following the Russian fleet with coal and supplies might render themselves liable to proceedings under the foreign call-in-law act, the applicable sections of which he quoted.
Lord Lansdowne then refers to the fact that a similar question arose during the Franco-German war, when Mr. Gladstone laid down the principle that such colliers would to all intents and purposes become store ships to the fleet.
"Therefore," concludes Lord Lansdowne, "although neutral traders may trade in contraband at the risk of capture, they should bear in mind the conditions of the English laws."
To Meet Second Russian Squadron.
The progress of the Russian second Pacific squadron excites daily growing interest in London. A Japanese correspondent of the Morning Post, discussing possible preparations to meet the squadron, suggests that Japan rely upon the older warships to maintain the blockade of Port Arthur (in fact the correspondent asserts they already are so employed) and that already Tokyo to release his more modern vessels for overhauling at Sasebo preparatory to meeting Admiral Rojestvensky.

President Visits the Fair.
President Roosevelt visited the St. Louis exposition Saturday and Sunday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Alice Roosevelt, Mr. and Mrs. D. Robinson, Secretary and Mrs. Loeb, Surgeon General Rixey of the navy, M. C. Latta of the executive office and representatives of the press associations.
Saturday was spent in visiting various points in the exposition grounds. At night the presidential party attended a banquet in the main building of the Tyrolean Alps, at which 800 persons were present.

It had been announced that the president would not make a public address while at the fair, but there were repeated calls for a speech and Mr. Roosevelt replied briefly, expressing his appreciation of the courteous reception that had been accorded to him. Sunday was passed quietly in St. Louis and at midnight the president and his party left on their special train for Washington, arriving at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning.
Holiday Trade Begins Well.
Bradstreet's summary of the state of trade says:
Cold weather is needed to move retail stocks of winter clothing, dry goods and shoes, re-orders for which are not brisk. On the other hand, the trade in holiday goods has begun well, and good feeling as regards this line, is completed with confidence as to trade in spring fabrics, which is proceeding better than a year ago.
Holding by farmers is credited with affecting collections at several Southern points, but as a whole payments are better than a year ago.
At the South the cotton crop movement has been large, and private market estimates and ginning reports favor the growth of large estimates. Prices have sagged for this reason.
Business failures for the week ending Nov. 24 number 193, against 167 in the like week in 1903.
Revision of Commercial Treaties.
When the new Russo-German treaty is ratified, Russia expects to open negotiations for the revision of commercial treaties with other powers. One of the most important results doubtless will be the ending of the trade war with the United States which arose over the imposition of a counter-vailing duty on Russian sugar a few years ago. Russia retaliated, imposing the maximum duty on American goods, practically ending American importations and destroying the growing Russian market for American manufactures.
The loss to American trade has been about $10,000,000 annually.
Anti-Endurance Contest Bill Vetoes.
Mayor McCallan of New York has vetoed the bill recently passed by the board of aldermen forbidding any contest or race of endurance of more than three hours daily. The mayor says his disapproval is given because the ordinance constitutes an unwarrantable interference with the ordinary exercise of personal rights of citizens. Aside from the consideration that the bill would entail large and unnecessary burden on the already overtaxed police and health departments, the mayor adds, it purports to protect public health in matters that are now under the jurisdiction of competent authorities.
Nineteenth Week of Strike.
With conditions so far as the great mass of workers is concerned unimproved the textile strike in Fall River, Mass., involving nearly 26,000 operatives, has reached the 19th week of its continuance. Following their practice of the past two weeks, the cotton mill owners Monday opened their mill gates and invited such of their former employees as are willing to work for wages 12 1/2 per cent less than they formerly received, to return. Officials of two mills report that they are gradually securing sufficient help to permit the operation of their full plants.
C. K. G. Billings Buys Major Delmar.
Major Delmar, the famous world's champion trotting gelding, with an unspaced record of 2:01 1/4 and a paced trotting record of 1:59 1/4, was sold at the Old Glory sale at the Madison Square Garden for $15,000. The purchaser was Mr. C. K. G. Billings, owner of Lou Dillon. It was announced that Mr. Billings would race Major Delmar and Lou Dillon in an effort to break the world's record. Major Delmar was consigned by E. E. Smathers, who bought him last year for $40,000.
Co-Operation of the Netherlands.
The government of the Netherlands has notified the American charge d'affaires that Queen Wilhelmina will be glad to see the second peace conference meet at The Hague and that the United States may count on the co-operation of the Netherlands, so soon as Emperor Nicholas, the originator of the work begun in 1899, and the other powers have given their adhesion to the proposal.

UNITED STATES ARMY.

Secretary Taft's Report For Fiscal Year 1904.

Increase in Army During the Year 560 Men—12,317 Men in Philippines. Comparison of United States Soldier's Pay With That in Other Countries—Seacoast Defense.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Secretary of War Taft submitted yesterday to the president his annual report. The secretary says in part:
On the 7th of December, 1903, the date of the last annual report, the army of the United States, according to the latest reports which had been received from the military departments (Oct. 15, 1903), consisted of 15,811 officers and 55,500 enlisted men; a total of 71,311. In addition there were in the service 2,807 men of the hospital corps, excluded by the act of March 1, 1887, from classification as part of the enlisted force of the army. There were also in the service 26 officers and 529 men of the Porto Rico regiment, and 99 officers and 4,805 enlisted Philippine scouts.
At the date of the last reports received from the military department (Oct. 15, 1904), the actual strength of the regular army was 3,744 officers and 55,479 enlisted men, distributed as follows:
United States, 45,462; Philippine islands, 12,317; Porto Rico, 10; Hawaiian islands, 216; China, 136; Alaska, 1,642. Total, 60,183.
These figures show a total increase during the year of 560 men.
The total number of enlistments in the army during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1904 (exclusive of the hospital corps and Philippine scouts) was 27,380. Of this number 6,372 were re-enlistments and 21,008 were original enlistments.
Of the 27,380 accepted applicants 21,559 were recruited in cities, and 5,821 at and in the vicinity of military posts and camps; 2,464 were native born; 3,662 were of foreign birth; 32 were born in the Philippine islands and were enlisted for band musicians, and 222 were born in Porto Rico.
Of the 27,380 accepted applicants 25,816 were white Americans; 1,348 were colored Americans; 32 were Indians; 222 were Porto Ricans, and 32 were Filipinos. Five hundred and eighty-nine were enlisted for the staff departments and 26,791 for the line.
In making these 26,791 enlistments for the line of the army the recruiting officers examined 119,243 men, of whom 83,452, or about 70 per cent, were rejected, as lacking in either mental, moral or physical qualifications; 2,283 of these were rejected as aliens and 4,608 as illiterates.
During the fiscal year 461 native Filipinos were enlisted for the Philippine scouts. The number of men enlisted for the hospital corps was 815.
The aggregate of all enlistments and re-enlistments during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1904, including the hospital corps and the Philippine scouts, was 28,386.
Military Operations.
During the past year the troops have been principally engaged in the regular routine of military duties in garrisons, and they have participated in practice marches, encampments and maneuvers. They have not been in action, except for a few encounters with the savage Moros in the Philippines, rendered necessary by their defiance of the law in Mindanao and Jolo. In one of these actions a detachment of infantry was ambushed, resulting in the loss of two officers and 13 enlisted men out of 39 men engaged.
The clothing allowance for the American soldier is of the amplest, both in quantity and quality, the ration furnished has long been the surprise and wonder of military men of foreign nations, and that the private in the United States army, who receives $12 per month, is well paid can be seen from the following statement showing the pay of privates in other countries per month:
Austria-Hungary, 73 cents; France, $1.74; Germany, $2.50; Great Britain, $7.14; Japan, 60 cents; Russia, 12 cents.
Seacoast Defenses.
Our present system of seacoast defense based upon the report made by the Endicott board, Jan. 16, 1886, is now considerably more than half completed. Projects for the defense of 21 localities in the United States have been prepared and approved and actual construction under these approved projects has so far advanced that 25 1/2 of the principal harbors now have mounted in fortifications and ready for use heavy guns and mortars sufficient to furnish an effective defense against any possible naval attack.
Since the inauguration of the present system of coast defense the total appropriations made by congress for carrying out the work aggregate, in round numbers, $110,000,000, and it is estimated that it will take $65,000,000 more to complete the work.
New Peruvian Gunboat.
Kingston, Jamaica, Nov. 29.—Colonel Pedro Porfillo, formerly Peruvian minister of marine, arrived here last evening on the steamer Barbadian from Liverpool. He recently superintended the building of a gunboat in the United States for Peru, which vessel will be used on the Amazon river. Colonel Porfillo is returning to Callao. The new Peruvian warship will follow him to Callao later on.

EXCITEMENT IN COURT.

Defendant in Divorce Suit Fired at the Judge.

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—Rev. Isaac Selby of Australia, party in a divorce suit, shot at Circuit Court Judge Hebbard yesterday while the latter was on the bench. The bullet came within an inch of the judge's head, and lodged in the back of his chair. Selby was at once removed to the city prison and charged with an attempt to commit murder.
Selby recently was sued for divorce. He conducted his own defense, but was unsuccessful, a decree against him being granted.
Judge Hebbard, who issued the decree, was trying a case when Selby arose from a seat in the court room and fired at the judge, who rushed from the bench and grappled with his assailant, preventing him from firing another shot.
For a time great excitement prevailed. When quiet was restored it was learned that the judge had not been injured. Before being taken to his cell Selby said:
"I shot at Judge Hebbard because that seems the only way for a man to get justice in this country. My only regret is that I seem to have bungled matters considerably. My intention was to kill him but I was a trifle nervous."
FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY.
Joseph F. White Arrested For Killing Mrs. Josephine Russell.
Albany, Nov. 29.—Joseph F. White, for 10 years orderly in the state treasurer's office, is under arrest here charged with shooting Mrs. Joseph Russell, a handsome widow, yesterday afternoon. Jealousy is said to have been the cause.
White is 45 years old and a widower. His home formerly was in Birmingham. He had just been released from the hospital. Mrs. Russell is 35 years old, and White formerly boarded with her.
Early in the morning he appeared at a milk depot where Mrs. Russell traded and spent the day until half past four, apparently waiting for her to appear. When she came in the police allege he shot her in the neck. Three more shots were fired into her body.
White made no attempt to escape and when arrested denied committing the crime.
Mrs. Russell was taken unconscious to the hospital, where she died early in the evening.
RECORD-BREAKING DROUTH.
No Rain Near Louisville Since July 3. Distilleries Suspend.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 29.—The record-breaking drouth in Kentucky is beginning to decrease the milk supply in Louisville. Several dairies have put their customers on half allowance and ice-creameries are unable to secure enough milk for use in making certain kinds of candy.
A number of distilleries have suspended operations until rain falls. In a number of small places the citizens are buying water and farmers are compelled in many instances to drive stock several miles to water. For more than a month the Southern railway has been hauling water to its Shelbyville tanks and for the past three weeks it has been hauling 10 carloads of water a day. Freight engines are carrying double water tanks.
There has been no rain since July 3. In many churches Sunday prayers were offered for rain and today the weather bureau announces a possibility of showers within 48 hours.
Run on a Savings Bank.
Kalamazoo, Mich., Nov. 29.—Excited depositors of the Kalamazoo Savings bank created a run on the institution, drawing out about $150,000. The bank was kept open two hours later than the usual closing hour and it is considered that the run, which is said to have been caused by suit begun last week by heirs of the Henry Brees estate, is broken. Part of the funds of the estate are kept at the bank and the institution was made defendant with the executors. This fact is said to have been misunderstood by a number of the savings depositors and the run followed.
Painter Intruded on the President.
St. Louis, Nov. 29.—Miss Hornd was released at the police station after satisfying the authorities that she meant no harm to the president. She said that she had a painting of George Washington on display in the varied industries pavilion, and was anxious that it be viewed by President Roosevelt. When he failed to see it on Saturday she decided to call on him on Sunday to persuade him to see the picture.
Stones Thrown at Pilot Engine.
Indianapolis, Nov. 29.—A special to the News from Brazil, Ind., says that while the pilot engine preceding President Roosevelt's special train was passing a lonely place near Brazil yesterday four men threw stones, breaking several windows. The engine was stopped and secret service men chased the men, but the stone throwers escaped.

Attempt to Fasten Murder on Him Unearted Before His Trial Began.
Springfield, O., Nov. 28.—An attempt to fasten a crime upon an innocent man was unearthed in the common pleas court of this county when the case of the State vs. William Nichols, charged with the murder of Wilbur E. Lattimer, was called for trial at Urbana.
William Wooley, an inmate of the Mansfield reformatory, had made a verbal and written confession, acknowledging that he and Nichols had committed the murder, and upon the strength of the confession Nichols and Wooley were indicted. It developed just before the trial that Wooley had been induced to confess on the promise of immunity from punishment and a share of the reward offered for the apprehension of the guilty party.
When it was made plain to him that the best he could hope for was life imprisonment he broke down and acknowledged that his confession was a lie. The case against Nichols was then dismissed and affidavits were issued against ex-Mayor Standish of Woodstock and Columbus Bowen of Fountain, charging them with subornation of perjury. Standish and Bowen were arrested and Wooley is charged with perjury.
Lattimer, a prominent merchant of Woodstock, was shot down as he was returning home, about a year ago.

Allentown, Nov. 28.—Imbibing freely of bad whisky at a football game in Emans on Thanksgiving afternoon, 25 young men on their way home plotted the barn of Joachim Eberts, a truck farmer, with stones. When he protested they hurled stones at him, and one of them struck him in the face.
Eberts, who is 60 years old, defended himself with a lantern, while the entire crowd rushed at him in true football style and left him lying unconscious in the barnyard with a broken nose and concussion of the brain. When a son-in-law charged the crowd with a shotgun the assailants ran off.
Eberts' condition is precarious.
