THE ARNER AGENCY

Represents all the leading Fire Insurance Companies of the world, and can insure you against loss at lowest rates obtainable. We are also agents in Forest county for the

TITLE GUARANTY AND TRUST CO.,

which furnishes security for County and township officials. Also furnishes bonds for

HOTEL LICENSES

at a nominal fee. A nice line of Real Estate Deals always to be had at this agency.

C. M. ARNER & SON,

TIONESTA and MARIENVILLE, PA.

BUSINESS.

POSITIONS. SUCCESS. PROSPERITY

are yours, if you join us and follow our teachings. . . . . .

NOW - IS - THE - TIME.

Our Course is a Necessity.
Everything Up - to - Date.

THE HOFF BUSINESS COLLEGE, Warren, Pa

DR. R. O. WOODRUFF,

WATERFORD, PA.

SPECIALIST.

Nervous and Chronic Diseases.

Write for symptom blank and mailing case for chemical and microscopical anlysis of urine.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Joe Levi, Ad.
Lammers, Ad.
Notice of Appeals.
Harvey Fritz, Ad.
Horse Stolen. Ad.
Wm. B. James, Ad.
Robinson & Son. Ad.
Smart & Silberberg, Ad.
Edinboro Normal. Local.
Hopkins. Ad. and Locals.
White Star Grocery. Locals.
Glasgow Woolen Mills Co. Ad.
Forest County National Bank. Ad.

—Oil market closed at $1.50.

—Oil and gas leases at this office.

—The county auditors are at work on the county accounts this week.

—The subject of Rev. W. O. Calhoun's sermon next Sabbath evening, "A Peculiar Name."

—Merchants G. W. Robinson & Son distributed a neat calendar for the new year to their customers the past week.

—If a normal training is what you wish, come to Edinboro. Winter term begins Jan. 3d, 1905. Tuition free. John F. Bigler, Prin. It —Rev. W. O. Calhoun is conducting a series of revival meetings at the M. E. church which are well attended and in which much interest is shown.

—This is inventory season at Hopkins' store, an event which always brings out a lot of odds and ends that make bargains for shrewd buyers. Come and look them over. It —The Meadville Star figures that one difference between Lynn, Mass., and Titusville is that the former is noted for boots and shoes and the latter for shoots and booze.

—Olive Lodge, F. and A. M., with a number of invited brethren of other lodges, had a very pleasant time at their banquet at Hotel Weaver, Monday evening of last week.

—Don't hesitate to call us on the telephone if you know of a news item or personal, as we need the news and appreciate the favor you will be doing us in gathering the news.

—The stock of plain and fancy confectionery at the White Star Grocery was not entirely exhausted during the holidays, and if you wish something fine in that line call. All strictly fresh. It —The Derrick reports that several Pennsylvania couples crossed the line on Christmas day and were married in Jamestown, N. Y., among whom were Edward Burket and Miss Laura Weingard, both of Tionesta.

—Sixty-eight liquor licenses have been granted in Elk county for the year 1905, and nine applications were refused. Thirteen licenses were granted for St. Marys and twelve for Ridgway. Strange why so many were refused.

—The dance given by the young people in Bovard's hall on the 27th ult. was one of the most enjoyable social functions of the season, and the supper furnished by Caterer Bristow was not the least enjoyable feature of the occasion.

—Following is the list of letters lying uncalled for in the Tionesta, Pa., postoffice for week ending Jan. 4th, 1905: Mr. Frank Haggerty, Mr. John Fitzgerald, Mr. Samuel Kitelinger, Mrs. A. E. Daniels, card. D. S. KNOX, P. M.

—Hugh A. Jamieson, one of Warren's most prominent and well known business men, died at his home on the 27th ult., of paralysis, from which he had suffered several slight strokes prior to the one which finally ended in his demise.

—Lost, in the evening of Dec. 21st, on Elm street, somewhere between R. M. Herman's residence and the Presbyterian church, a Marte fur scarf. The finder will confer a favor on the owner by leaving same at this office or at L. J. Hopkins' store. It —A Kaffir in Africa, hearing a hymn sung about heaven, inquired what sort of a place it was. Being told that it was a beautiful and pleasant land, he wanted to know if the English had yet taken possession of it, and was astonished to learn that they had not.

—A large party of friends and old neighbors from German Hill and vicinity called at Louis Winegard's home, over in Harmony township, last Saturday and proceeded to rank up enough stove wood to run him the greater portion of the winter. Mr. Winegard is in a very weakened condition from a long siege of illness, and this thoughtful act of kindness on the part of his friends is no doubt very much appreciated by him and his family.

—Ruben Mohney, a resident of Mayburg, sustained a fracture of the front or shin bone of one of his legs, on the 23d ult., a log rolling against it while at work at the mill pond of the Watson Lands Lumber Co. Dr. Detar of Kellettville attended him and he was doing well at last accounts.

—Dr. Siggins, of Oil City, was the winner by a large majority in the contest for a handsome medical cabinet instituted by St. Joseph's R. C. Church. Tionesta friends of the Doctor who "got onto the game" in his behalf will be glad to learn of his success as the most popular physician in the city.

—Major L. L. Shattuck, of Titusville, well known to many of the veterans of this section, was thrown from his buggy in that city last Saturday and very seriously injured. Later reports state that he has a chance for recovering, although at first it was thought his injuries would prove fatal.

—The Forest County National Bank of Tionesta has declared the usual semi-annual dividend of three per cent., payable on and after January 2, 1905. They have increased the surplus account to $42,000, and closed the year with a deposit of over $492,000. The success of this bank has been beyond all expectations.

—Attorney George Higgins, of Erie, is unable to attend court this week, owing to the dangerous condition of his wife, who is reported to be failing fast with no hope of recovery. Mrs. Higgins, who was formerly Miss Addie Starbird, is a daughter of the late Moses Starbird and her early life was spent in Corry.—Warren Mail.

—The best editorial summary of the problems discussed in President Roosevelt's annual message and of the questions now before Congress will be found in the January number of the Review of Reviews. There is also in the same magazine a good discussion of the situation in world-politics and international relations at the opening of the new year.

—Daniel P. Roberts, of Titusville, who was shot by a man named Weatherbee over two weeks ago, and who was thought to be mortally wounded, is still alive and may recover, although the chances are still largely against him. Mr. Roberts is connected with the Queen City tannery, and is well known to many of our readers from whom he has had business dealings.

—If some one gave you a useful Christmas gift, don't hide it away and never get any good of it. Show your appreciation by making use of the gift where and when it will add most to your pleasure and comfort. It is "better to wear out than rust out" applies to Christmas presents as well as other things. Good things were made to use, not to hide away.

—An exchange remarks: It is the man of limited mental capacity who believes that people "have it in for him." The man of brains goes about his work knowing that nobody "has it in" for the fellow who attends to his own business and makes a living for his family. The world is too busy to take the time to interfere with any man who does not interfere with it.

—The Grove City board of trade is considering propositions from two firms which desire to erect plants in that place. One concern, just organized, will manufacture rolls for making flour by a new process, while the other is an old firm which makes staple iron goods. The firm was recently burned out and is seeking a cheaper and better location. The two plants would employ over 100 hands.

—W. B. Osgood and Fred. Rudolph have taken the job of cutting and skidding the timber on the Wheeler & Dusenbury tract located on Ross Run, beginning their work on the first of the new year. This is an energetic pair of hustlers, and it goes without saying that they will make a success of their contract both for themselves and their employers. J. I. Dean has heretofore had this job.

—The ice passed out of Tionesta creek last week, and to the great relief and satisfaction of those who had b[illegible] and lumber frozen in [illegible] damage worth mentioning [illegible] The boats can now be ship[illegible] to provide against damage [illegible] lar freeze-up occurs [illegible] yet to come. The river [illegible] the night of Dec. 24th, causing age.

—The "glad new ye[illegible] last Sabbath morning [illegible] bells, while the you[illegible] the streets at the ho[illegible] spent the early mor[illegible] changing greetings [illegible] a sensible opening o[illegible] void of the usual hoo[illegible] those who preferred to [illegible] were not greatly distur[illegible] bers.

—At the congregati[illegible] Presbyterian churc[illegible] a unanimous cal[illegible] Dr. Paul J. Slon[illegible] Slonaker has for[illegible] of a church in [illegible] is obliged to m[illegible] of the severit[illegible] country. Th[illegible] warded to hi[illegible] pects him to [illegible] change can be [illegible] cannot determi[illegible]

—Foley Bros. have erected a [illegible] side cemetery for J. [illegible] memory of his deceased [illegible] his father. The monume[illegible] gus, composed of seven pie[illegible] large and finest piece of [illegible] section. On the face of the [illegible] heavy bronze plate beari[illegible] of John and Sabilla [illegible] J. D. W. Reck and fami[illegible] This monument is buil[illegible] Barre granite, and was [illegible] the makers, work[illegible] is $1,200.

—Judge [illegible] LOOK [illegible] umberland c[illegible] [illegible] es, [illegible] down a locie[illegible] [illegible] or to the en[illegible] more sets [illegible] ness or subpoenas, [illegible] and defendats are the [illegible] same pe[illegible] be served on the same person or per[illegible] they can only charge one mileage [illegible] one writ or paper. That when such papers are sent to them by mail, they cannot charge mileage from the place from which it was sent, but only fees for executing the process. That by a misunderstanding of this law there has been great abuse of power by constables, and a violation of the spirit of the law.

—Bert Thomson, of Jamieson, station, (or what was once Jamieson station) was a caller at this office one day last week, and wasn't in any too good humor over the fact that the railroad company had cut that place out as a flag station, making it necessary now to walk a mile and a half to town, it on foot, or drive four and a half if in a conveyance, or else stay at home till the river is fordable or wait till old Boreas closes the stream with an ice bridge, any one of which contingencies is a darn bore any way you take it.

—Here's a bet question that is threatening to cause trouble at one of the horse and mule barns at the stock yards: A makes two bets with B, each of which is $10. Then A says: "I'll bet you $20 to $10 that you don't win both of those bets." B accepts. A believes next day that he lost the two $10 bets and pays B $40, the extra $20 being the $20 he bet against B's $10 that he wouldn't win both $10 bets. Later it is found that A wins one of the $10 bets. How much shall B pay back to A? The answer is $50, but can you figure it out that way?—Kansas City Times.

—Here is a new one. A man entered the Farmers' hotel, Carmens Mills, Pa., stating that he was out of money and that he had nothing to eat for two days. The landlord sent him to the dining room and told him to eat a good meal. While there he pulled out a handkerchief and a twenty dollar bill fell to the floor. The waitress picked up the bill and took it to the proprietor. When the man got through with his meal to leave the hotel the landlord said: "The waitress found a twenty-dollar bill which you dropped on the floor at the table. The regular price for a dinner is 50 cents, but as you deceived me, stating that you had no money, I am going to charge you 75 cents," and handed him back $19.25. Shortly after the fellow had left Mr. Westover discovered that the bill was counterfeit.—Ex.

—The new officials elected in this county in November were inducted [illegible] their respective offices on Monday [illegible] week, and will hold down the [illegible] positions to which their party has elected them for the regular terms. Representative Robertson assumes his place in the House at Harrisburg, so ably filled last term by Hon. C. W. Amsler. Judge Kepler takes the chair which has for the past five years been occupied with dignity and honor, both to himself and the county, by Judge R. B. Crawford. Treas. Wm. H. Harrison takes charge of the county "strong box," in place of F. A. Keller, who has had by far the fattest job in the county for the past three years. That the new officials will [illegible] equit themselves with credit to [illegible] d the people who elected [illegible] without saying, and the REP[illegible] bes each and all a pleasant a[illegible] cumbency of their re[illegible]

—The furnishi[illegible] the rooms of the T[illegible] completed, and th[illegible] first annual meeting of st[illegible] e Monday evening. The [illegible] e second story of the large Kepler [illegible] is devoted to the use of the Club, and a great trans[illegible] formation scene has been [illegible] acted in the fitt[illegible] and furnishing of [illegible] e new quarters [illegible] it is doubtful wh[illegible] ether the eastern pa[illegible] of the State afford [illegible] more inviting or pleasant suite of re[illegible] n these. Billiard and pool tables have been installed in the large double rooms on the south tier, while on the o[illegible] side of the hall the reception and [illegible] been handsomely [illegible] pro[illegible] vided wit[illegible] ne large with elegant furniture [illegible] orate and modern des[illegible] organization are s[illegible] rigidly enforced. [illegible] will live long and [illegible] society of the men fo[illegible]

Anthony Maz[illegible]

Antho[illegible]
Bart[illegible]
bel[illegible]
I[illegible]

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

—Ted Hood is up from McKeesport on a visit to relatives.

—John Charleston has been on the sick list for the past week.

—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wolf, of the township, Dec. 24th, a son.

—Miss Artie Robinson was a guest of friends in Tidioute last Friday.

—M. A. Feit spent a couple of days of last week with friends in Franklin.

—Harry Heath, of Wilkinsburg, paid a business visit to Tionesta last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McKinley were among the Oil City visitors Saturday.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Gaston spent the holidays with friends in Crawford county.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fulton spent New Years with friends in Youngsville, Pa.

—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kenniston of the north ward, Dec. 24th.

—Mrs. C. A. Randall is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Kiser at Wilkinsburg.

—Homer Johnston has moved to Kellettville, where he will conduct a jewelry store.

—Mr. and Mrs. Merton Mealy, of Oil City, spent the Sabbath with Tionesta friends.

—Our old friend Daniel Byers, of Venus, Pa., was a pleasant caller during the holidays.

—Fred Bessner, of the Borough, is confined to his bed with an attack of appendicitis.

—J. B. Sproul, of Uniontown, Pa., was circulating among Tionesta friends over the [illegible] bath.

—[illegible] Moore, of the West Side, returned S[illegible]ay from a visit with relatives in Mercer county.

—Miss Amie Anderson spent Christmas with her sister, Mrs. David Blum, in North Warren.

—Hyde Shriver has gone to Franklin, where he has secured employment in a steam laundry.

—James Graham, one of the aged inmates of the County Home, is lying at the point of death.

—Miss Ada Jones, of Fagundus, was a guest of her cousin, Miss Blanche Hunter a part of last week.

—Sol. Foy, of Tylersburg, an old friend of the REPUBLICAN, made the office a pleasant call Saturday.

—Chas. Amann was down from North Warren a couple of days last week shaking hands with old friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Haslet, of Oil City, were guests of the families of Rob, and James Haslet last Saturday.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kelly, of Chesnick, Pa., were Christmas visitors at the home of the former's parents here.

—Mr. and Mrs. David Edwards, of Sharon, are here on a visit to the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Clark.

—John W. McCrea, agent for the Erie railroad at Orangeville, Ohio, was home to spend Christmas with his family.

—Leonard Smith, of Philadelphia, former foreman of the laundry here, spent the past week with Tionesta friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Conway of Franklin, spent New Years day as the guests of the former's aunt, Mrs. S. S. Canfield.

—Mrs. J. D. Davis and son, Kepler, are home from Philadelphia, where the letter [illegible] been attending school this winter.

—Miss Virginia Siggins returned home Saturday from a visit with friends and relatives in Tionesta.—Oil City Blizzard.

—Many friends will learn with sincere regret that Edwin Dewoody of Fox creek, Green [illegible] is seriously ill with diphtheria.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Corah, of Warren, were guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. F. S. Hunter, during holiday week.

—George Robinson and Karl Wenk were guests of Tidioute friends last Thursday, and attended a dancing party in the evening.

—Mrs. Wade Burdick, of Smethport, Pa., spent the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Jones, at Newtown Mills.

—Bert Wilcox and Harry Alexander, of Cooperstown, Pa., were guests several days of the past week at the home of their aunt, Mrs. J. C. Dunn.

—County Treasurer Harrison has moved his family to town, occupying the Bovard house, on Vine street, near the public school building.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stiles and daughter are guests of M. E. Abbott and family this week, while the former is attending to his duties as Auditor.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. Agnew, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Davis and son, Kepler, and Mrs. W[illegible] Smearbaugh, were among the Oil City visitors yesterday.

—Mrs. James G. Carson of West Hickory and daughter, Mrs. J. F. Sheasley of Kittanning were guests of Tionesta friends a day or two last week.

—All the young students home for the holidays have returned to their respective schools, having apparently enjoyed every moment of their vacations.

—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fitzgerald were guests of Tionesta and Marienville friends a few days of holiday week, prior to taking up their residence in Buffalo.

—M. C. Carringer, of Marienville, has been drawn to serve as a petit juror at the January term of United States district court to be held in Pittsburg.

—Curtis Proper, who arrived from Florida Monday, left yesterday afternoon with his cousin, Miss Edith Hopkins, for Chamberburg where he will attend school this winter.

—A. R. Braden and J. C. Knight, of Barnett township, were business visitors to the county seat recently and took occasion to make a pleasant call at the REPUBLICAN office while in town.

—Adam Sibble of German Hill, one of the REPUBLICAN's prompt paying subscribers, paid the office his customary New Year visit Saturday and had the tab on his paper set up to the 1906 mark.

—Recently Sheriff and Mrs. George W. Noblit attended a re-union of the Gilson family at Saybrook, in which five generations were represented, a rare occurrence which few have the pleasure of witnessing.

—Representative John H. Robertson left for Harrisburg last Friday to be present at the organization of the Legislature which convened yesterday. Mrs. Robertson accompanied her husband and will spend the winter in Harrisburg with him.

—The latest heard by Tionesta friends from Alfred Sperry, of Cleveland, was to the effect that he is slowly recovering from his serious injuries sustained in a trolley wreck some weeks ago, and that his ultimate recovery is confidently looked for.

—Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Wheeler, of Endeavor, expect to sail on the 14th of this month on a trip abroad. Their journey will include the principal places of interest in Europe, together with a two or three months' journey through Palestine and other historic lands of the Orient.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Church and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Shaffer, of Church Hill, were in Oil City Saturday to see Miss Florence Cropp, who is ill in the hospital. Her condition is not improving as rapidly as her physicians desire and it is feared she will have to undergo another operation.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunn were guests at the marriage of Miss Maude Susan Titus to Mr. Henry LeVern Ford, which occurred at the home of the bride at Barnes, Pa., on the 26th ult. It was the social event of the season for that place, and was attended by many guests from abroad.

—Miss Bertha McKee, of the township, was obliged to give up her school in Kingsley township before the holidays on account of a severe attack of appendicitis. Her condition was such yesterday that an operation was deemed advisable, and her physician, Dr. Bovard, took her to the Oil City hospital for that purpose.

—Mrs. W. A. Shewman, Jr., who, with her husband, is enjoying the delightful climate of Florida this winter, will please accept the thanks of the editor's family for a liberal quantity of most delicious oranges direct from the groves of that world famed State of tropical fruits. We assure the estimable lady that the remembrance was thoroughly appreciated.

—Mrs. James Brumbaugh, widow of the late James Brumbaugh whose death from typhoid fever occurred in this place several weeks ago, writes a friend in Tionesta that kind friends at the former home of the family at Golinza, Pa., remembered her very generously on Christmas with a purse of money amounting to over fifty dollars. The lady feels very grateful to these loyal friends.

Four-Year-Old Son of C. F. Feit Drowned

One of the saddest and most distressing fatalities that this community has had in many years occurred on Wednesday of last week, when Nacy, the little 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs C. F. Feit, who reside on the street above the court house square, lost his life by drowning. The little fellow left his home some time before the noon hour to go, as his mother supposed, to meet some neighboring playmates, as he had frequently done before. Not returning at dinner time a search was begun, and the alarming discovery was made that the little fellow had not been seen by any of the neighbors. The premises were quickly searched, and the lifeless body of the child was found by the horrified father in an excavation on the rear of the lot some rods from the house. The excavation was about five feet deep and had been made some time previous and left uncovered. The rain of the day before had filled the hole nearly full and a thin scum of ice had formed on the top. It is thought the lad had gone there shortly after leaving the house and was playing on the ice when it broke through and he was drowned. The shock to the fond parents and friends over this distressing accident can better be imagined than expressed.

Nacey Feit, son of Christian F. and Bessie Mealy Feit, was born October 26, 1900, at Johnlowen, Clarion county, Pa., In 1901, he moved with his parents to Tionesta, when our citizens first became acquainted with the charming little laddie. From the time he was old enough he was taken to Sabbath School and Junior League of the M. E. church, and since then there have been but few Sabbath mornings that the beautiful sweet face has not been seen in company with his elder brother on his way to the house of worship. His winsome manner and lovable disposition won him friends wherever he went, and all who ever saw Nacy, loved him. In the home he was all life and sunshine and love itself, and to say he will be missed but feebly expresses the great loss, the sadness and heartache of the home. All our community grieves, touched by the tenderest cords of sympathy and words fail to speak the language of the heart, But surely the Great Shepherd who has gathered the little lamb unto his bosom, and has caused the loved ones to pass through "the valley of the shadow of death," will also comfort them. On Friday afternoon funeral services were conducted at the residence of the parents by their pastor, Rev. W. O. Calhoun, and the body of the little one was laid to rest in our beautiful Riverside cemetery. The pall bearers were: Harry Carson, Willie Clark, Russell Hopkins and Thomas Fulton. Beautiful floral offerings were given by relatives, friends and the Junior League, of which he was a member. These tributes of love were carried to the cemetery by four flower girls—Clare Henry, Hazel Stitzinger, Merle Dunn and Bulah Clark—and strewn over the casket in the open grave.

[illegible] Killed Near Hunter Station.

[illegible]del Kightlinger, aged 52 years, was [illegible]stly killed by the engine of the P. [illegible] R. local freight a short distance below [illegible]n, three miles south of Ti[illegible]ones[illegible] o'clock Friday morning, [illegible] fortunate man, who was [illegible] was a deaf mute, and [illegible]s his brother, W. L. [illegible]e home is near Hunter [illegible]ay morning he started [illegible]nesta, ahead of No. 71. [illegible]aw the man ahead of him [illegible]ks and gave the customary [illegible] by whistle, which Kightlinger's [illegible]ay prevented him from hearing. [illegible] emergency brakes were applied, but [illegible]e train was heavy and could not be [illegible]rought under control in time to prevent the engine from striking him. When picked up he was dead, but was not greatly mangled. Mr. Kightlinger was a native of Crawford county and spent most of his life near Fauncetown. The body was taken to the home of his brother and prepared for burial, and was after ward removed to the Diamond, Crawford [illegible]ty, where the interment was made.

Williamsport, (Pa.) Commercial College

Winter term begins Jan. 2, 1905. Students admitted any time. Low rates for board. Eighty-six calls for bookkeepers and stenographers in seventy school days. Personal and mail courses. Catalogue and first mail lesson free.

MARRIED.

ALBAUGH—PAULEY—At Kellettville Pa., on December 24, 1904, by John Shaw, J. P., Charles A. Albaugh and Miss Sadie Pauley, both of Kellettville, Pa.

BRADYBAUGH—IRWIN—At Vowinckle Pa., on December 23, 1904, by B. A. [illegible]key, J. P., John Bradybaugh an[illegible]aggie Irwin, both of Muz[illegible]

[illegible]TINGLEY—At Tionesta, Pa., [illegible]ber 22, 1904, by S. J. Sutley, T. A. Rankin and Miss Josephine [illegible]ingley, both of McCrays, Pa.

EDMISTON—FITZGERALD—At Tionesta, Pa., on December 24, 1904, by S. J. Setley, J. P., Guy W. Edmiston and Miss May Fitzgerald, both of Johnlowen, Pa.

BURKETT—WEINGARD—At Jamestown, N. Y., on December 28, 1904, by Ray L. Packard, J. P., Edward Burkett and Miss Laura Weingard, both of Tionesta, Pa.

The Eaton Hurlbut Papers

FOR YOU to find just what you want for

PRETTY GIFTS

suitable for any occasion in our well selected stock of

DIAMONDS, WATCHES,
CLOCKS,
JEWELRY,
STERLING and PLATE SILVERWARE,
LEATHER GOODS,
NOVELTIES, Etc.,

too numerous to mention.

HARVEY FRITZ,

The LEADING JEWELER.

32 SENECA ST., OIL CITY, PA

INVENTORY

this week at

HOPKINS' STORE

Stock taking always brings out the Odds and Ends in Winter Goods.

WATCH THIS SPACE NEXT WEEK.

L. J. Hopkins

Queen Quality

REPUTATION

Queen Quality is a shoe of Reputation. You take no risk in buying it. You'll take much joy in trying it. Millions of people endorse it.

Joe Levi

Sycamore, Seneca and Centre Streets, - OIL CITY, PA

A New Pair of TROUSERS

with the old coat and vest would make the whole thing look like a new suit.

An extra pair of trousers is a good thing to have around the house for trousers need a rest as well as man, and the more rest the more wear.

All wool trousers as low as $1.50 a pair, better ones at $2.00 to $3.00, best $5.00. Worsteds, $2.50, $3 to $5,

Quarter off on house coats, bath robes.

Haven't a large number of either, but some of the best styles are here at ONE-FOURTH OFF the plainly marked prices.

LAMMERS

ONE PRICE CLOTHIER

41 & 43 SENECA ST. OIL CITY, PA.